County Officials on the Warpath.

Lively Times Are Ahead for the Lawmakers.

The Final Grand Rush of New Bills at Sacramento.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.

SACRAMENTO, February 25.—The County Government question will soon be settled. It has been made a special order for Thursday next, and meantime the officials whose salaries are affected will be pulling every string they can lay their hands on to turn the tide their way.

In order to estimate the population of the different counties the committee adopted the plan of multiplying by five the vote given for Governor in the various localities, and this, they claim, has given them much better results than could have been obtained even by a Federal census.

The plan of letting every county arrange its own salary schedule seems to have worked well, for a member from Alameda could not be expected to be cognizant of the needs of Inyo, and vice versa. There will, of course, be a general overhauling in order to see that no advantage has been taken of this latitude by any particular section, but it is not anticipated that anything unfair will have been attempted.

The vital importance of county government issues makes the bill one that demands the most exacting attention, for there is no telling where a joker may have been run in, in the most innocent manner possible. Delegations representing some of the interests affected are on the scene and there will be some tall skirmishing between now and the time when the battle royal takes place.

NO MORE ORATIONS.

The approaching termination of the session and the great amount of work that is confronting the members has led to the adoption of a five minutes' speech rule. Something of this sort was necessary, for, altogether, 1887 bills have been introduced, 1012 of which are in the Assembly. A number were withdrawn today, the majority of those called back being duplicates, though, occasionally, a peculiar measure figured, as, for instance, when Assemblyman North asked for the return of his bill prohibiting football.

The last few moments, devoted to the introduction of bills, were fraught with much interest, for it seemed as if some of the most noteworthy had been kept until the last moment. For example, Senator Hart presented one declaring a host of waterways public highways. Among them are Alviso slough, San Antonio creek to the old embarcadero of San Antonio, north branch of Alameda creek to Eden Landing, Channel street east of Harrison and Mission creek.

Senator Geaves has taken the bull by the horns as regards election contests of high degree. His proposition is to permit recounting, etc., for State officers, and in view of the locality of the Capitol the sole jurisdiction is to be vested in the Superior Court of Sacramento.

NO PULLMAN PRIVILEGES.

If by any chance Senator Linder's latest venture becomes a law, there will be a stir in railroad circles, for it declares that a person in possession of a transportation ticket is entitled to ride in any coach on the train. This sounds like a good by to Marquis Pullman's valuable privileges.

Another bill clamoring for attention is by Senator Toner and permits six round contests with five ounce gloves. This has been framed in behalf of the athletic clubs, where it is desired to encourage scientific boxing and to put new blood into the listless individuals who have been moping around since prize fighting went out of fashion.

Senator Hart is making the dust fly in several directions and he is more aggressive than ever in a measure against specialists and quacks. It declares that all persons advertising that they can cure the morphine or liquor habit must place on file with the Secretary of State a prescription giving the formula of the drugs they advertise.

PURE BUTTER AND CHEESE.

It looks now as if Senator Frank McGowan's Pure Butter bill will become a law, for it is going unchecked through both houses. As the measure is one of the highest importance to dairymen its principal provision is given, as follows:

That for the purpose of this act every article, substance or compound, other than that produced from pure milk or cream from the same, made in the semblance of butter, and designed to be used as a substitute for butter made from pure milk or cream from the same, is hereby declared to be imitation butter; and that for the purposes of this act every article, substance or compound, other than that produced from pure milk or cream from the same, made in the semblance of cheese, and designed to be used as substitute for cheese made from pure milk or cream from the same, is hereby declared to be imitation cheese, provided that the use of salt, rennet and harmless coloring matter, for coloring the product of pure milk or cream, shall not be construed to render such product an imitation; and provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the use of pure skimmed milk in the manufacture of cheese.

The bill further forbids all owners of hotels or restaurants to keep doctored compounds without declaring them such, and winds up with an appropriation of $12,000 with which to carry out the provisions of the act. Assemblyman Hart North fought the appropriation part of the bill when it came before the Assembly, but his efforts were in vain.

AN ECHO OF A DEBATE.

By the way, Mr. North desires to be set right on a matter that is causing him quite a little trouble. In the report of the proceedings of the woman suffragists in the House, it was announced that Mr. North was the only member who voted against it. This was incorrect, and has had the result of bringing down on his head a shower of execrations from his female friends all over the State. As a matter of fact, there was strong opposition, and Mr. North was one of those who voted no. His comments in doing so were as follows:

"My vote has already been cast in favor of a Constitutional amendment covering the subject matter herein. Upon reading the Constitution of California, together with the following judicial decisions, viz: In re Benjamin, 25 N. Y. Sup. 1053; In re Gage, 26 N. Y. Sup. 967; In re Gage, 141 N. Y. Appls.; Lourand vs. Andreths, 26 Cal. 161; Van Valkenburg vs. Brown, 43 Cal. 43, I believe this bill is unconstitutional and vote against it accordingly."

THE LOXOW BILL.

The Loxow Commission fight will soon be history, for although Dr. Dille is here urging the passage of the bill he is receiving no encouragement. And there is no doubt the issue will be sidetracked altogether before the week is out. It will not go through without a struggle, for the Union League will send a delegation here to make one last effort.

The final proposition is to endeavor to have the Commissioners selected as follows: One by the Governor and the other two by the presiding officers of the Legislature. Senator Hart's query as to who would make the appointment in the event of a vacancy occurring on the board is to be met by an amendment that under such circumstances the successor shall be chosen by the Governor, who must, however, make his selection from the party to which the retiring official belonged.

COUNTY DIVISION.

County division is getting in an interesting condition. The lauded men of the State are assembling to fight the Linder General bill, for by its provisions it will be possible to divide their holdings with but little trouble. General Chipman is here in the interests of Tehama, and Major McLaughlin, Billy Hamilton, Milton Green and ex-Senator Jones for Butte, and they are all united in their opposition to the Tulare man's project. Linder says that his sole object is to get these county division fights out of the Legislature, but the opposition insists that he is manipulating in behalf of those who desire to carve up counties to suit themselves. The probabilities now are that none of the county division schemes will pass the present session as none are in a condition to be helped along.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Ed Fitzgerald's scheme for the establishment of free labor bureaus is bearing fruit. Gigantic petitions, indorsing the project are being received by the law-makers, one of the largest being from Berkeley. The proposition is to locate headquarters in San Francisco and to have branches at Oakland and other places of prominence throughout the State.

"Stop-over" Robinson's cause has got a setback. The Corporation Committee of the Assembly has favorably reported the bill which removes the liability for a railroad's refusal to acknowledge hold-over checks. This simply leaves the offense a misdemeanor, with nothing in it for outside parties.

Governor Budd is much better. He was out riding today and was able to attend to official business.

Frank Gould, ex-Speaker of the last Legislature, is here urging an appropriation of $50,000 for a wagon road into the Yosemite.

Professor Hilgard of the State University is on hand to make a fight for the agricultural appropriation and other matters pertaining to the big institute.

T. V. Cator, the Populist leader, is around the Capitol.

Rod Church is taking in the sights.

James Traver of West Oakland is watching the County Government bill.

Charles Wetmore is here fighting the liquor men's bill, and Attorney G. W. Baker of Oakland is for the defense.

Senator Biggy's bill for the payment of the claims of the National Guardsmen for services rendered during the recent strike is now a law, and the boys can come to the front now and get their money.

Lee Fairchild is ill with the grip.

J. C. Edwards and T. C. Coogan are here working on the Insurance bill.

Captain John Hackett is up from Oakland on the Pilot Commissionership business. HATTON.

NIGHT SESSIONS.

Assemblyman Ready to Do Some Hard Work.

SACRAMENTO, February 26.—From now on, business will be rushed along during the nine legal days of the session remaining.

A resolution was adopted to hold sessions every evening except Sunday.

The General Fee bill reported from the County Government Committee was taken up and amended in a few minor points, and passed to a third reading.

Bills were passed appropriating $10,000 for the support of the Women's Relief Corps Home at Evergreen, Santa Clara county; also a Deficiency bill of $5000 to pay for the heating and ventilating apparatus in the training department of the Normal school at San Jose.

A concurrent resolution was offered and referred to the Rules Committee that the Senate and Assembly adjourn sine die March 8th.

Cutter of Yuba and Sutter proposed to change the date to March 15th.

THE JORDAN CLAIM.

It Has Again Passed the Senate and May Be Paid.

SACRAMENTO, February 26.—The old claim of Contractor D. Jordan, that has been before every Legislature since 1878, passed the Senate this morning by a vote of 22 to 14.

Langford of San Joaquin opposed the bill, denouncing it as a purely lobby measure, but Ford championed the bill, pointing out that now it has the approval of the State Board of Examiners.

The bill has passed two Legislatures, but failed to become a law, because of a lack of funds to meet the claim.

The claim is for $79,000, and is for work done at Folsom prison.

Where the directions of other baking powders call for two teaspoonfuls you need use but one of Dr. Price's to get best results.

TO SUPPRESS BRIGANDS.

A Proclamation to Be Issued by the Governor General.

MADRID, February 25.—At the conclusion of the special meeting of the Cabinet last night the Minister of War, General Dominguez, announced that the Government authorized the issuing of a proclamation by the Governor General of Cuba to suppress armed bands of brigands in the Provinces of Matanzas and Puerto Principe.

The Ministers denied that any serious disorder occurred or that troops from the Philippine Islands had been landed at Cuba.

A SUSPECT ARRESTED.

Believed to Have Been One of the Bank Robbers.

CHICAGO, February 26.—A portion of the booty from the looted First National Bank of Griswold, Ia., was recovered here today, and it is supposed that a member of the gang in that robbery and the affray at Council Bluffs yesterday is under arrest.

The suspect is Mark Davis, a Chicago saloon-keeper, who was arrested with about $600 postage stamps, which he got in a valise shipped by the American Express.

OFFICERS RECALLED.

Japanese Leaders Are Needed at Home.

BERLIN, February 26.—The Japanese Minister of War has recalled to Japan all Japanese officers serving in the German army.

The Japanese envoy, Count Aoki, gave a farewell dinner last evening. Among the toasts was "Happy entry into Pekin."

Count Aoki will sail for New York from Bremen today and expects to leave Vancouver, B. C., March 14th.

THE DRAYTON CASE.

The Wife Now Wants a Divorce on the Ground of Desertion.

TRENTON, N. J., February 26.—Mrs. Charlotte Augusta Drayton, whose husband, James Coleman Drayton, is suing her in the courts of this State for a divorce on the ground of adultery, today filed a counter petition asking for a divorce on the ground of desertion.

FINE PARADE.

Rex, King of Carnival, Shows Up at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, February 26.—At noon today Rex, king of carnival, appeared in a grand pageant based upon scenes and incidents from Fergus Hume's "Chronicles of Fairyland."

There were twenty magnificent tableaux in the procession.

The weather is delightful, and the streets everywhere are packed with spectators.

Not a possible point is being overlooked by the committee. While the important work just now is to secure as favorable a showing as possible to lay before the directors of the Valley Road, there are many other matters which are under discussion. As the work of gathering subscriptions draws to a close, the committee will begin to formulate its plan of action when appearing with Oakland's claims before the railroad directors. In this connection there will have to be taken into consideration the opposing claims of other localities which are making a struggle for recognition by the road. The nearest rival to Oakland is San Jose. The Garden City has its representative citizens hard at work. One of them was in Oakland today, and favored several members of the local committee with a talk upon the situation with reference to the two cities. The matter has been placed in a very pleasant light as a result of the visit.

"I am informed through conversation with a prominent member of the San Jose committee," said Mr. Davis this morning, "that the people there have no desire to clash in any way with Oakland. In fact, they would much desire to work in harmony with us. I am told that all San Jose wants is to get a connection with the new road in good faith and in a practicable manner. The question whether it shall be on the main line or have branch connections is a minor consideration, so long as San Jose secures the service of a competing road. There is no desire to conflict with Oakland and our natural claims to the terminus. It must be remembered that the road, should it locate elsewhere, cannot have a chance to secure a very large share of the ferry traffic between here and San Francisco, which amounts to 13,000,000 passengers annually. The feeling between the people of San Jose and Oakland in this matter should be, as it is, entirely friendly. That this is important to know may be understood when it is considered that the directors will soon have to take up the matter of route for their road. Each city that is striving to gain recognition at their hands will have its subscriptions to the stock backed up by the best arguments its representatives can produce. Now, if San Jose and Oakland can go before the directors with their claims not at variance, but on one issue pooled to benefit both, the work will be much less difficult."

With such a mutual understanding there will be no attempt made by either committee to offset or underestimate the arguments of each. There will be a reciprocal benefit to attach to both whereby each may gain its desired end without injuring the other. To this end will be directed a careful consideration by the local committee of the conditions that obtain in each case. That there need be no clash before the directors is apparent, if the situation has been correctly summed up by those who are in closest touch with the sentiment of the people who are most deeply interested in the movement.

The committee will hold a meeting tonight for the purpose of surveying the field and ascertaining what progress has been made. There is every reason to believe that the responsive chord has been touched so strongly in many of Oakland's citizens that its vibrations will send a thrill of financial answer through the city that will insure success to the effort to secure the terminal of the valley road.

The San Francisco Morning Call devotes a page of today's issue to a discussion of Oakland's claims to the terminus. In place this city in a most favorable light and gives a able and complete survey of the situation. The work will undoubtedly carry weight with those who are to determine the selection of the route of the valley road.

Mark the difference between Dr. Price's and the other baking powders. It does not only immeasurably better work but does it at half the cost.

NO WATER.

A Portion of the Town of Dalton Destroyed by Fire.

DALTON, Ohio, February 26.—Fire broke out this morning in the Schultz Wagon Plant, and spread to the Presbyterian Church and adjoining buildings. No water is to be had nearer than three-quarters of a mile.

The west end of the town apparently will be destroyed.

Fire companies from Massillon and Wooster are coming by special trains.

NOT A FAIR DEAL.

L. W. Rodgers Says He Did Not Defy the Courts.

ST. LOUIS, February 26.—Vice President L. W. Rodgers of the American Railway Union, who addressed the Trades Assembly Sunday, says:

"The published account of what was said at Walhalla Hall did me an injustice in alleging that I declared myself a revolutionist and defied the courts. I am before the courts now under indictment, and I would not prejudice my cause by such a rash remark.

"Further than this, I am not and never was a revolutionist. The words of Mr. Phelan were mistaken for mine."

ALL RESCUED.

Five Hundred Miners Imprisoned by a Collision.

LONDON, February 26.—A dispatch from Normanton says the 500 miners who were imprisoned in a pit of the Whitewood Haimor Colliery by a collision of cages were rescued during the night.

ARMENIANS ARRESTED.

Charges Made Against Them by Turks.

VIENNA, February 26.—A dispatch from Constantinople says, in consequence of charges preferred by Turks, twenty-five young Armenians were arrested and twenty-one imprisoned.

The arrests produced a painful impression, which may lead to further disturbances.

CAREFUL.

No Mistakes Will Be Made.

Plans of the Terminal Committee.

William R. Davis Discusses the Situation.

San Jose and Oakland Will Not Have a Quarrel.

"We have a good hold on the second hundred thousand dollars," said Attorney W. R. Davis this afternoon, when questioned as to the progress made by the Terminal Committee. "I think," he continued, "we shall be able to show better than that amount by next Saturday night, provided the committee can sustain the effort it has made during the past two days. There are now in the field some fifteen or twenty men, each of whom is fully competent to thoroughly present the project. They are accomplishing a vast amount of work, and with good luck will be in a position to make an excellent report next Saturday evening. Having enlarged the committee, it has become necessary to increase the number of citizens and property owners upon whom the committee shall wait. Today we are gathering an eligible list from the city assessement rolls of property owners, who are to be added to the list already in the hands of the committee.

"We have segregated these lists into two classes. The first consists of those citizens who are known to be favorable to the terminal project, but whose means forbid a very heavy individual subscription. The second class will include property owners, who, by reason of their large interests in Oakland, ought to come to the front with large subscriptions.

"It is a difficult matter to canvass the city, for many of those upon whom the committee desires to wait are San Francisco business men, who are only to be found here after business hours. Considerable time is thus lost, although there are a dozen and a half energetic men camping on their trail. A very satisfactory showing can now be made in the number of men who are ready to subscribe but are only waiting to determine the amount they will obligate themselves to pay. The number, I am satisfied, will reach fifty, if not more."

A fair estimate of the situation as explained today by members of the committee is contained in the opening lines of Mr. Davis' statement. The committee considers this to be a conservative estimate of the results which will be accomplished ere the week is concluded. The new members of the committee have taken hold of their duties with a will. They are public-spirited citizens who realize the immense importance of the work in hand. With the views they hold, it is their aim to fully impress all with whom they come in contact with the great opportunity contained in the project.

A COMMISSION.

It Is Favored by the Senate Finance Committee.

How the Delegates Shall Be Chosen.

Provisions Made in the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—The Senate Finance Committee today ordered a favorable report on the amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill to provide for the appointment of a commission of nine on behalf of the United States to attend the international conference on the rehabilitation of silver in case one be decided upon.

At Voorhees' request the Senate referred it at once to the Appropriation Committee to be acted on as a part of the Sundry Civil bill.

The committee struck out the provision specifying the countries upon whose invitation the President shall determine this country to be represented, and it now simply provides he shall act with such conference if called.

The provision regarding the appointment of commissioners on behalf of the United States is made to read as follows: "The United States shall be represented at such conference by nine delegates to be selected as follows: The President of the United States shall select three of said delegates; the Senate shall select three members of the Senate as delegates, and the House of Representatives shall select three members as delegates. In any time there be any vacancy, such vacancy shall be filled by the President of the United States."

ARBITRATION BILL.

It Passed the House Without a Division.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—Henderson of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads, called up the conference report on the Postoffice Appropriation bill when the House met at 11 o'clock today, but as it was evident there would be some debate, he withdrew the report in order to give Catchings an opportunity to present his special order giving the day until 5 p. m. to the Committee on Labor, and tomorrow to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

The order was adopted without division, and McCann called up the National Arbitration bill.

Stahlman of Pennsylvania explained the bill, which, he said, was favored by railroads and by representatives of labor.

The National Arbitration bill passed the House without division.

Then the discussion of the Arbitration bill, both in favor of it and declared the President's action in sending troops to Chicago last summer was unconstitutional.

"I predict," said he, "the name of Altgeld will live in history as one who in a great crisis stood for lawful constitutional Government."

Remember that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder gives better results with one spoonful than any other powder does with two.

TRIED TO KILL.

A Fierce Sword Contest Between Italian Leaders.

SPOKANE, Wash., February 26.—A fierce sword contest took place here last night between Charles V. Scapelli and John D. Moore, rival leaders of two Italian factions of the city.

The contest was for $2 a side.

The men are far from being friendly and they fought as if they meant to kill.

The former soon disarmed Moore and was awarded the contest.

Moore took his defeat with bad grace, and by his taunts and those of his friends in the audience he succeeded in enraging Scapelli to the point that they again crossed swords to fight to a finish.

The two rival factions cheered their leaders and shouted to them to fight to kill, and they undoubtedly were trying to kill each other when the police, who were hastily summoned, appeared on the scene and stopped the fight.

OLD SOLDIERS.

The Encampment in Kansas Will Begin Tomorrow.

LAWRENCE, Kan., February 26.—The Fourteenth Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Kansas will begin here tomorrow.

Several hundred delegates have already arrived and the prospects are for the biggest attendance in the history of the organization in the State.

National Commander Lawler, Adjutant General C. C. Jones and National Chaplain Haggerty will arrive tomorrow.

The encampment will last until Friday.

A Human Target.

CHICAGO, February 26.—William Haderlee, the "human target," who was shot in the abdomen by Professor Alfred Rieckhoff Sunday night during a rifle-shooting exhibition, died at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital. Rieckhoff is still held at the Larrabee station pending the result of the Coroner's inquest, which will be held this morning.

Damage by Fire.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., February 26.—A fire did $50,000 damage in the City Hall, today. Keeper Dunn and family on the top floor of the building had a narrow escape.

Passed a Sleepless Night.

LONDON, February 26.—Lord Rosebery passed a sleepless night and there is increase of weakness.

THE U. S. Government officially reports ROYAL Baking Powder superior to all others in leavening strength. (Bulletin 13, Ag'l Dep't, p. 599.)

NO REPLY.

Senator Gorman Had Nothing to Say.

Broken Down Politicians as Inspectors.

A Lively Debate Over a Reduction of an Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, February 26. — The Sundry Civil bill was taken up in the Senate today.

Berry spoke against the proposed committee amendment reducing appropriation for protecting timber lands from $90,000 to $60,000, and moved to increase it to $120,000.

Gorman opposed the increase.

"The so-called timber inspectors," said Wolcott, contemptuously, "are a lot of broken-down politicians, who will tramp over each other as soon as this appropriation is adopted."

The Senator declared that when these men were not engaged in blackmailing railroads out of passes they were dragging some poor prospector to the Federal Courts.

Gorman resented the suggestive remark of Berry made as to the increase of many officers, but the decrease in this particular case.

Gorman declared he knew no party, no Administration, in his action on these appropriations.

"It is the first time," said Berry, excitedly, "I ever heard of the Senator from Maryland (Gorman), as a civil service reformer. If the Senator meant to infer he (Berry) was getting this appropriation in order to put political favorites in place, he was stating what was not true.

"It has been repeatedly charged that the Senator from Maryland (Gorman) has filled out one of the great branches of the Government with his appointees."

Gorman, apparently unruffled, made no reply.

Stewart further denounced the timber agents as a curse to the West.

LINE OF STEAMERS.

They May Run From New Orleans to Port of Tampico.

MONTEREY, Mex., February 26.—J. A. Robertson, general manager of the Monterey and Mexican Gulf Railroad, is negotiating with the Illinois Central Railroad Company for the establishment of a through line of steamers between New Orleans and the port of Tampico.

It is stated that arrangements for the operation of the new service have been completed.

It will place Northern Mexico in close water connection with the Central and Southeastern States of the United States and will be of great benefit to this city and surrounding country.

A TAX CASE.

Waiting for a Decision From the United States Court.

A stipulation has been filed, according to which it has been agreed that no further action shall be taken in the suit of the County of Alameda vs. the Central Pacific Railroad Company and the Southern Pacific Company, until the final decision of the Supreme Court of the United States on a writ of error from the decision of the California Supreme Court in certain points concerning the suit. The case was originally brought in 1891 to recover taxes, when the defendant filed a demurrer and the matter has been in the courts ever since.

DISEASED COWS.

Dr. Pierce Hunting for Them Over the Line.

Word was brought to Dr. Pierce, City Veterinarian, this morning, that in one of the largest dairies, over the Contra Costa county line, which furnish milk in this city, there is a number of diseased cows. The doctor will visit the dairies in question this afternoon.

HE NEARLY ESCAPED.

Constables Have a Contest Over a Prisoner.

C. A. Dolan is in the County Jail awaiting the arrival of the Stockton train on which he will be taken to the Slough city, where he is wanted for embezzlement. Dolan was released from San Quentin prison last night after serving a year for grand larceny committed in this county. Two constables had a battle over the prisoner at the gates of San Quentin and Dolan nearly escaped.

BIG STAKES.

Harry Hayward Lost $7500 at One Time.

He Admits That He Was a Free Gambler.

The Prosecution Will Try to Show That He Falsified.

MINNEAPOLIS, February 26.—When the trial of the Hayward murder case was resumed today, it was announced that County Attorney Nye could not be present, owing to the funeral in the family. Assistant County Attorney A. H. Hall conducted the cross examination of Harry Hayward.

Harry's connection with the loan to Miss Ging made on the flour mills at Hamel and the collection of the loss when it suddenly burned down was thoroughly ventilated.

Harry was asked whether he did not drive out to Hamel with Miss Ging the morning after the fire.

This he denied utterly.

The State proposes to show on rebuttal that Harry is not telling the truth.

Harry described how he turned a lot given him by his father into cash.

The proceeds had been nearly $10,000, and this he partially lost at gambling, while the rest he had given to Adry in a sealed envelope and it was put in the safe.

He declared that the largest sum of money he ever lost at one time was $5701, at the Twin City Athletic Club.

LOST THEIR STARS.

Specials Who Aided Preachers in Their Investigations.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 26.—The numerous special policemen who have been on duty at the several big hotels have had their stars taken from them by the Board of Police Commissioners.

It is charged by these men who have lost their badges of authority that the preachers and other members of the Civic Federation, who have been investigating police corruption, have been shadowed by detectives of the Police Department, and that detectives have discovered that certain of the hotel special policemen have been secretly aiding the preachers in their investigation in the tenderloin district.

THE RAILROAD BILL.

What the Minority Report Says Concerning It.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—The minority report in the House on the Pacific Railroad bill says: "We call attention to the following fatal defects in the bill: While ostensibly providing for the payment of the principal of the subsidy bonds, amounting to $64,623,512, it really gives the debtor companies simply the option, which they may or may not accept. Should the provisions of the bill be accepted by the debtor companies it will result in a transfer of the lien the Government holds as to the principal of the debt to parties whose interest will be entirely antagonistic to that of the Government."

The Sugar Bounty.

WASHINGTON, February 26. — The amendment for the payment of the sugar bounty was declared in order today in the Senate on a yea and nay vote of 40 to 16, which practically carries it.

Proven Guilty.

Judge Ellsworth held a session of court last night, and sustained the finding of the Police Court, which declared Owen Rooney guilty of selling liquor without a license.

A Conviction Affirmed.

NEW YORK, February 26.—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the conviction of Dr. Buchanan, the wife murderer.

Prof. H. G. Hanks

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Miss Bessie Wall and Miss Sophie Newland in Concert.

One of the most interesting events of next week will be the piano and song recital given by the well-known pianist and singer, Miss Bessie Wall, and Miss Sophie Newland. It will take place in Hamilton Hall on Tuesday evening, March 5th. An interesting programme has been prepared for the event, and a large number of tickets has been sold. A great deal of interest has been aroused in the event, which promises to be a great social and artistic success.

GERMAN-AMERICANS.

A Mass Meeting to Be Held Tomorrow Night.

The German-American Independent Political Club will hold a mass meeting at Germania Hall tomorrow evening to discuss the political issue as bearing upon the present municipal campaign. An attractive programme of speeches and songs has been arranged. The principal speaker will be Professor A. Putzker of the State University, who will address the audience in English on "True Citizenship."

Speeches in German will be made by Dr. H. Muhr, F. Kuckein and J. C. Scultz. The singing section of the Oakland Turn Verein and Riehl's Quartet will furnish the musical portion of the programme.

In all the States the sales of Dr. Price's Baking Powder are increasing. Envious competitors cannot check its onward march to victory.

A PAIR OF ARTISTS.

Mr. and Mrs. George Watson's Recent Acquirements.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen Watson need no introduction to the people of this city beyond the fact that they have returned to Oakland after an absence of a couple of years in New York. At all times talented actors and accomplished elocutionists, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, have just added to their artistic merit and thoroughness the result of a course of the latest design in their profession. The calling of the reader and delineator is a progressive one, and this will be made apparent to those who will note the methods of Mr. and Mrs. Watson as compared with those who have not studied under the latest instructors. Mr. Watson is known as a preferred support of Frederick Warde, Fanny Davenport and other leading actors. Mrs. Watson is especially gifted as an instructor in physical culture. Their pupils in both elocution and physical culture will give an exhibition soon.

WITHDREW HIS PLEA.

J. H. Saunders Will Now Stand Trial.

J. H. Saunders this morning pleaded not guilty to two charges of burglary. He plead guilty to one charge, and thought the other would be dismissed, but Judge Greene would not consent to any such proposition. Then he determined to stand trial, and withdrew his plea of guilty. The prisoner is accused of stealing some valuable furniture from the residences of J. M. Williamson and Marc Magner last December. Saunders will be tried before a jury on March 26th and will be defended by ex-Judge Stephen G. Nye.

FRUITCURA
(TRADE MARK)
A Scientific Discovery by a Woman to Cure Women.
Women of All Ages, Attention!
MME. M. YALE, Queen of Beauty, who has lectured in all of the prominent cities of the world before vast audiences, and has been pronounced by all newspapers to be the most perfect woman in form and feature now living, speaks to the women of the world and confesses to them that the secret of her beauty lies in perfect health—and the secret of her health lies in the use of her own remedies. Among them—Fruitcura—her great and wonderful tonic for curing all female ailments and building up the system. Fruitcura restores all weak organs to perfect health. It cures the many complaints of women that only women know of. It restores the vitality, makes the eyes bright, the step elastic and brings the bloom of health to the faded cheek. It renews the nerve tone and makes the flesh firm, hard and velvety. In fact, its use is the royal road to perfect health and beautiful womanhood. It cures their complaints and nervous troubles of any nature and revives the vitality which is lacking in all such cases for women of all ages. A discovery by a woman to cure women. Price, $1 per bottle; 6 for $5. At druggists or by mail.
MME. M. YALE, Health and Complexion Specialist, Yale Temple of Beauty, 146 State street, Chicago.

NOT INSANE.

A Girl Who Simply Had a Bad Temper.

Rosa Park, a girl of 15 years, belonging to Elmhurst, was before Judge Ellsworth and a commission this afternoon charged with insanity. Her singular freaks and sullen ways had led her relatives to suspect that she was insane, but the Commissioners refused to commit her, as the examination proved her malady to consist of a singularly stubborn temper.

BISHOP'S BOND.

The Commissioner's Sureties Approved by the Court.

Ira Bishop this morning filed his bond in the sum of $30,000 as a commissioner to sell the property of the Piedmont Cable Company. Mr. Bishop's sureties are Samuel Bigelow and John R. Spring. The bond was approved by Judge Frick. It is believed that the property will not be sold for at least a month.

OAKLAND HOSPITAL
—AND—
Hotel for Invalids,
E. H. WOOLSEY, M. D.,
SURGEON AND PHYSICIAN IN CHIEF,
Twelfth Street, Bet. Madison and Jackson
OAKLAND, CAL.
This institution is healthfully, pleasantly and conveniently located, occupying an entire block in a quiet neighborhood, surrounded by elegant private residences and yet within four blocks of the Central Pacific and narrow gauge railroads, and accessible to their stations by the Broadway street cars.
The sewerage facilities are perfect. The wards and private rooms are large, sunny, well ventilated and appropriately furnished.
The building exteriorly, together with the ground, is attractive; interiorly the woodwork is of solid and carved walnut, the floors of purest Italian marble and the walls decorated with exquisite frescoes.
The Hospital section, comprising Surgical, Medical and Convalescent wards, is separated from the section for invalids, each department being provided with special corridors, bathrooms, electrical appliances, Dr. Louis Weber's hot air treatment for diseases of the lungs, etc.
Steam, Medical and Electric Baths, and all the appointments of a first class Hospital, and all the requirements, conveniences and comforts of a private Home for Invalids are here provided.
The matron is an experienced nurse, and the nurses and attendants male and female are well trained and reliable.

TO ANNEX.

The Question That Will Interest Temescal.

It Will Be Decided at Tomorrow's Election.

Arrangements Completed for the Casting of Ballots.

City Clerk Tompkins and Secretary George Kaufman of the Board of Public Works are very busy today arranging for the annexation election to be held tomorrow. The booths are again to be resurrected from the depths of the storehouse under the Fire Department headquarters on Fifteenth street. The ballots are all printed and, with the remainder of the election paraphernalia, will be ready for distribution to the various election officers this evening.

The election is exciting a great deal of interest in Temescal and North Oakland, where the benefits of annexation are being as freely discussed as are numerous objections raised by opponents of the proposition.

Both sides, so far as the Temescal district is concerned, have waged a hot fight, and there will be a lively battle fought at the polls in that section tomorrow. The interest is chiefly in that portion of the community, and in the closely adjacent limits of the city. There does not appear to be much interest manifested in the city, generally.

The polls will be open from sunrise, or [illegible] to 5 P. M. Polling places have been established on the same lines as those fixed at the recent charter amendment election. In Temescal there will be three voting places, fixed at the following locations:

PERALTA PRECINCT.

Residence of E. J. Pullen.

TEMESCAL PRECINCT NO. 1.

MEDICAL.

MASSAGE—KINESITHERAPY, THE SWEDISH movement cure, has by degrees been acknowledged as an excellent therapeutic both at home and abroad, and particularly efficacious in cases of partial paralysis, rheumatism, neuralgia, chronic headache, dyspepsia, general weakness and curvature of the spine. The method is founded on the facts that the activity of the lymphatic vessels is increased, the current of the lymphs as well as the blood is accelerated and thus the absorption of inflammatory effusions is considerably assisted. Treatment given at patient's residence day or night; references given; terms moderate. PROF. GRAY WILLIAMS, 549 Twentieth st., Oakland.

ALL LADIES NEAR OR FAR, SAFE, QUICK cure guaranteed; any disease or irregularity; sure relief though others fail; home, etc.; travelers treated; low fees; self cure, send [illegible] or write; strict confidence; physician of wide experience; assistant. Consumption is amenable to treatment. Hope, courage, proper exercise, and from the inception of the disease the continual use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites, are absolutely necessary.

Keep up good courage, and with the use of this most nourishing and fattening preparation recovery is certain in the first stages, and may be accomplished even when the lungs are seriously involved. Stop the excessive waste (and nothing will do it like Scott's Emulsion), and you are almost safe.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

For Pale, Worn-out Folks.

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 26 1895

CUBA LIBRA is in arms once more against Spanish domination. "The much beloved isle" will break her bonds some day notwithstanding the herculean efforts of the Spanish Government to retain possession. There is an army of 18,000 Spanish regulars stationed there now, but the uprising of the Cubans is said to be general this time, and the danger to Spanish supremacy is serious. All previous insurrections have been sectional and therefore, less difficult to suppress.

ANOTHER shocking tragedy at a railroad crossing within the city limits directs public attention once more to the imperfect means provided for the protection of life and limb and property at such crossings. The scene of the accident this time was a thoroughfare which has been heretofore regarded as being under the sole jurisdiction of the railroad company, although used by the public as a highway for more than five years, and the city may in a measure disclaim responsibility. But a grave responsibility rests on some one's shoulders for leaving a notoriously dangerous crossing imperfectly provided with proper precautions against just such a dreadful accident as that which occurred there last night.

AT a banquet of lawyers in Edinburgh not long ago a toast was drunk to "the greatest benefactor of the profession—the man who makes his own will." The meaning which this toast was intended to convey was that olographic will making is simply inviting litigation and a defeat of the objects of the testator. As a matter of fact, however, olographic wills are more commonly sustained than any other kind, particularly where the decedent was not a lawyer. The average lawyer who writes out his own will surrounds it with so much complexity that its own purposes are defeated. Even so great a lawyer as Samuel J. Tilden was in his day, he failed to dispose of his property by will in a way that would survive a judicial test. The Scotch barristers' toast needs revision.

Making Marriage a Mockery.

The tendency of the times throughout the country is to make marriage a mockery. While we have established a Gretna Green, as it were, at the bar of every justice's court, and, we might add, in the presence of any one who has ears to hear the acknowledgment made by the man that the woman accompanying him is his wife and the voice of the woman making a corresponding acknowledgment, no matter how vaguely done, we have also been simplifying the method of dissolving the nuptial bonds. Divorce as well as marriage has been made easy. Incompatability of temper, failure to provide, cruelty and desertion are each, in its turn, so broadly interpreted as to cover almost any condition. The judicial interpretation of cruelty has been so finely drawn that it has almost reached the point where a cross look from either party to the divorce might be included in the definition, and a sharp answer is in danger of being accepted any day, as evidence of incompatability of temper. We have not quite reached the iniquitous and dangerous practice of "divorce without publicity," but it is in the power of the court to exclude every one not a party to the trial from the hearing of the case. The lawyer who advertises the procurement of "divorces without publicity" is freely denounced as a "shyster," but the line of secrecy is often so closely drawn that those outside the "pale of the profession" feel justified in sustaining the shyster's method of soliciting a clientage.

While the road to marriage in Great Britain is an easy one, even though the Gretna Green blacksmith on the Scotch border has ceased to ply his lucrative occupation of marrying eloping couples, the dissolution of the bond so easily and lightly made is a difficult process. The man and woman who thus marry in haste have ample leisure afterward to repent before the law furnishes any relief. The difference between us and them is this. With them the marriage bond may be easily made, but with difficulty broken, with us it is easily made and easily broken, too. "Until death shall you separate" was the time-honored formula, but Oakey Hall, when Mayor of New York, conceived it to be more in conformity with the usages of society to make the reading of the marriage declaration "until death or divorce shall you separate," and he thus expressed it at every marriage which he solemnized during his incumbency of the Chief Magistracy. The man of many divorce suits and a numerous train of divorcees to his credit, and the "grass widow" are familiar figures in American society.

But we have not yet reached the limit of laxity in this particular. South Dakota, for instance, has cut down the residence qualification of an applicant for divorce to three months. It was formerly six months. It is a shocking reflection on Dakotan morals to learn that the Legislature changed the time from six months to three in response to a numerously-signed petition from citizens.

Loose and liberal as are the divorce laws in California they require a year's residence to give an applicant "standing in court." Sometimes that is ineffective. A notable case on record was that of Mrs. Langtry, who established a residence in San Francisco and went through the form of declaring her intention to become a citizen to rid herself of the English marriage which bound her to Langtry in order to enable her to marry Goobardt, the puttybrained New Yorker, who worshipped at her shrine and followed her across continent and sea, like a puppy tied to a leading string. But the "Lily's" method of declaring her intention was abnormal and unlawful, because she made it to the Circuit Court clerk at her residence instead of at his office. Her object was defeated. She was thrown out of court.

The indifference to the marriage obligations which the looseness of marriage and divorce laws engenders is not a healthy sign. It is a return to barbarism. The Indian divorces [illegible] by [illegible] of [illegible] pleases [illegible] The [illegible] civilized Oriental [illegible] wife to her parents. We have not quite reached that point, but we are on the highroad toward it when considered in the light of the recent action of the South Dakota Legislature. Perhaps, the free and easy frontier towns of that State will petition the next Legislature [illegible] to cut down the residence [illegible] in divorce cases to six weeks [illegible] and the goal [illegible] been reached [illegible] would [illegible] making marriage a mockery [illegible] vengeance.

Annexation Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the election to annex [illegible] and other territory lying between Oakland and [illegible] will be held. The merits of the proposition on which the electors of this city will vote are well known. So far as Oakland is concerned, to vote for the annexation of the territory seeking the privilege is clearly in the line of the municipal policy since the time when it took in the villages east of the north arm of the estuary and expanded the charter line on the north from Twenty-second street to Thirty-sixth street. It is, therefore, likely enough that the vote in Oakland will be unanimous, or nearly so. The territory seeking admission into the municipal corporation will contine the real battle ground. If the gentlemen who championed the petition before the Council were sincere and truthful in their representations (and there is no reason to believe otherwise), the measure ought to carry there also. There was a good margin on the safe side to the petition which was circulated in the territory to be annexed favoring annexation and pledged to vote for it. It was thus fortified in advance that the friends of progress and good sanitation approached the Council. It is fair to presume that every one of the signers of that pledge will keep it. In this light, the success of the measure at the polls tomorrow may be regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Republican Ratification.

At the Oakland Theater tonight, the Republicans will open the municipal campaign with a rousing ratification meeting. While the campaign is to be short and promises to be a quiet one, still every Republican should turn out tonight to give the ticket a hearty support.

THE unemployed of Great Britain are appealing to Parliament for a State grant of $25,000,000 to support their needs during the next six weeks. This indicates a far worse state of affairs there than anything that has prevailed in this country during the most trying period of recent hard times.

Delicate and delicious are all food products into which Dr. Price's Baking Powder enters. The best leavening agent in the world.

Monotonous.

"Day by day," said the man blase,
We are finishing where we began,
Some embezzler so gay from his home goes away
And China is whipped by Japan.

"And gold galore goes the ocean o'er,
And Senators queer thing say
And ex-Queen Lil is ambitious to spill
New cortuscles day by day.

"Committees storm and demand reform,
And Congress is blamed for delay
'We'll soon come out of the hole no doubt,'
They say to us, day by day.

"And masters and men are at strife again
And statesmen their tred splay
Mankind is agreed that it's shocking indeed,
To keep it up day by day.

"Alack a day," said the man blase,
"What a pitiful slave am I—
Monotony's curse I'd forsake in a hearse,
If it weren't so common to die!"

WEIGHED, BUT NOT WANTING

"And have you weighed, dear sir,
This matter you've proposed?"
She said, as very gracefully
Within his lap she posed.

"But now I have good grounds
For reckoning the same to be
About two hundred pounds."

A Roman milestone was recently found near Carlisle on the old Roman road leading to York, on which is cut the name of Carausius, the commander of the channel fleet, who, in Diocletian's time, proclaimed himself Emperor in Britain and held out for eight years against both Romans and Picts. This is the first inscription of Carausius ever found, though his coins are not uncommon.

Some investigations made by a correspondent of the London Times into the much-vaunted Gothenberg system of regulating the liquor traffic appear to throw doubt upon the success of that system. BITS OF GOSSIP.

Chauncey Depew is not much concerned over the threat of the Methodist ministers to look askance at him. The row is all over the half-rate pass order issued by the New York Central, cutting off the clergy. Mr. Depew has collected scriptural authority for refusal to give passes, and is paying the ministers in their own coin.

Queen Victoria has not opened Parliament in person for nine years, and her physical disabilities are such that she is not likely to open it again, as she could not ascend the staircases. Grand Rally of Republicans This Evening.

Eloquent Speeches and Fine Music Outlined.

Oakland Theater to Be the Scene of the Meeting.

The Republicans will hold a grand rally tonight at the Oakland Theater. Preparations for the big mass meeting are now complete. The City Central Committee has done everything in its power to insure a great success for the opening meeting of the campaign. The entire ticket will be ratified.

The local issues will be discussed by a number of excellent speakers, who have volunteered their services. The voting public will also be given a chance to see the candidates and to hear them expound their views on the local questions that affect the interests of the city and her people. The eloquent gentlemen have given their time and attention to careful study of the situation in order that the issues may be discussed with intelligent understanding.

The fine speeches will be interspersed with a musical programme whose rendition will enliven the meeting. The vocal and instrumental talent will supply these features of the gathering. No pains have been spared to make the meeting a demonstration worthy of its purpose.

Hon. Charles N. Fox has consented to accept the honor as chairman of the evening. Several hundred equally prominent Republicans have been invited to act as vice presidents.

The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock, and short sharp speeches will be the programme. There will be no tiresome delay nor any long winded remarks. Each speaker will be timed so that all may be heard. Republicans throughout the city should turn out and participate in the great ratification of a municipal ticket.

The principal speakers of the evening, as announced thus far by Secretary Bishop of the City Central Committee, are the well known attorneys Fred S. Stratton and George W. Reed. A number of other prominent Republicans will also be present and will address the meeting. These are mentioned outside of the many candidates who will briefly give their views.

NO AFFIDAVITS.

How the Council of 1875 Passed Ordinances.

Important Franchises Not Properly Attested.

Telegraph Avenue Opening Carelessly Certified To.

The discovery made yesterday in the Police Court before Judge Wood, that the Midnight Saloon-Closing Ordinance is inoperative, because its passage was not properly attested by affidavit, has directed the attention of interested parties to other ordinances passed in the same manner and by the same Council, some of which ordinances are still supposed to be in effect.

The discovery that nearly all the ordinances of the Council of 1875 were passed without affidavit of publication or posting has led to the belief that they are just as inoperative as is the ordinance on the closing of saloons. As a consequence there was an examination of the original copies of ordinances on file in the City Clerk's office this morning, by a number of people.

There was quite a large number of ordinances passed by the City Council of that year and they comprised every subject from a street grade to a railroad franchise.

Among those discovered as having some relation to the present times and which may or may not, according to later action by the Council, be affected is one opening Telegraph avenue to a width of 100 feet, with sidewalks twenty feet in width and declaring the thoroughfare to be a public street. There is another creating the office of City Physician. Still another grant is a railroad franchise on Telegraph avenue, from Fourteenth to Durant street. This franchise covers a part of the line now operated on Telegraph avenue by the Oakland Railroad Company.

If affidavits were ever attached to these ordinances it is a mystery where they have gone.

Economy in the kitchen is in using the purest and best materials. There is nothing so expensive as the cheap baking powders. Highest government authorities recommend Dr. Price's as the strongest, purest and best.

MAY BATTLE.

Troops Are Marching Against the Rebels

A Ransom Offered for Release of a General.

Chief of the Rebel Forces Gets Eight Years in Prison.

NEW YORK, February 26.—A dispatch dated Panama, Colombia, February 26th, says:

News has been received from Buena Ventura of a battle near Cali, in which the rebels were defeated. Many were killed on both sides. The Government forces captured a large body of prisoners.

"Fourteen hundred Government troops are marching against Cartago, which it is reported was seized by the rebels.

"Reports from Santander are not favorable to the Government. A battle is expected there at any time. General Rafael Reyes left Calamar last Friday with 1500 men. He will join forces with General Ibarra in Santander.

Consul [illegible] writes from Cali that [illegible] Milton, chief of the rebel forces in Cauca, has been captured and tried by court martial. He has been sentenced to eight years in prison. He says that it is time for the Government to adopt drastic measures against the enemies of the Government.

"In the official bulletin is printed the announcement that General Roberto A. [illegible], formerly governor of [illegible] garrison, has been taken prisoner by the rebel forces. The Government offers a ransom for his release.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

A District Attorney Must Explain His Actions.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 26.—Charges have been preferred against William D. Painter, District Attorney of Broome county. The deponent of the affidavit in which is contained the charge alleges that the District Attorney refused to allow the Bank Examiner to examine the Chenango Valley Bank, or to appear before the Grand Jury of Broome county and present certain charges against the officers of the bank.

The person who presents the charges is a resident of this city and a newspaper man.

Colonel Cole, Governor Morton's private secretary, took them over to the Attorney General's office, and on his return said that a copy of them would be served on the accused man, and time granted him to file an answer. He would not tell what steps would be taken after that.

The examiner of the bank, who it is said was refused the privilege of appearing before the Grand Jury to present the charges against the bank officials, will also be asked to file a statement. It is asked that a committee be appointed to examine into and pass on the charges, and if the committee finds they are true that District Attorney Painter be removed.

POISONED THE DOGS.

Valuable Canines Lost at a Show in New York.

NEW YORK, February 26.—Office detectives and officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals are actively engaged in an effort to capture the miscreant or miscreants who, on Friday morning last, put poison in the cages of eight little prize dogs at Madison Square Garden.

The dogs belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Senn of this city.

"A subscription of the popular kind was started," said Mr. Senn, "but I ordered it stopped, as it was too much for my pride, and furthermore, I do not know but that I would be receiving the contribution of the person or persons who killed the dogs. I have been informed that the Westminster Kennel Club will, in due time, reimburse me for my loss.

It is a matter that rests entirely with them. If they fail to do so, it will result in no ill-feeling on my part, nor in my taking any legal action to compel such restitution by them. My sole desire is to see the guilty persons caught and punished."

At the rooms of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals it was said that no arrests had been made yet.

NOT SETTLED YET.

Differences Between Mexico and Guatemala Still Discussed.

CITY OF MEXICO, February 26.—The Secretary of the Treasury has wired instructions to the Custom authorities at Tapachula, Chiapas, for the release of the 200 head of mules which have been delayed at that point for some time by order of the government. The stock belongs to the American contracting firm of Park & Thornton, who are at present engaged in constructing the Guatemalan Northern railroad in Guatemala, where the animals, which were purchased in this country, were urgently needed.

Their entrance into Guatemala at a time when the peace relations were threatened between that country and Mexico evidently caused the Mexican government to order them detained until further developments regarding the international dispute were made. The fact that the embargo on the mules has been raised strengthens the impression that the diplomatic conference between Emilio de Leon, Guatemala's Envoy, and Mexico's Secretary of Foreign Affairs, has reached a friendly termination. Secretary Mariscal, however said that the statement as to the settling of all differences between Mexico and Guatemala is without foundation and premature.

DO NOT AGREE

Anti-Bond Men Want Amendments Withdrawn.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—The friends of the amendment to the Sundry Civil bill, providing for an issue of $100,000,000 certificates of indebtedness, have about concluded they will be unable to get the bill through as long as this amendment remains a part of it.

The Populist Senators have announced a determination to defeat the bill rather than permit the adoption of this amendment.

The amendment offered by Mills for the repeal of all laws authorizing an issue of bonds will be opposed by those who favor certificates just as stubbornly as the certificate amendment is opposed by the anti-bond men.

As no one desires an extra session, it appears probable that both amendments will be dropped after a few hours' debate.

One-half the quantity of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder will go farther and give better results than a like quantity of any other brand.

THEIR LOSS.

Rochester Is in Mourning for Fred Douglass

ROCHESTER, N. Y., February 26.—Rochester is in mourning today for Fred Douglass.

Just before the funeral train arrived there marched into the trainhouse the funeral cortege, including the Douglass League of Rochester, bearing a league banner draped in mourning.

The Mayor and members of the Common Council and other city officials came in carriages.

The funeral party moved to the City Hall, where the body lay in state several hours.

Handsome floral tributes sent by sympathetic friends from Washington lay on the coffin.

Asks for a Receiver

MILWAUKEE, February 26.—Edward Ferguson is the complainant in a suit for the appointment of a receiver for the Milwaukee Worsted Mills. The complaint charges mismanagement by the officers, which has brought about an unwarranted depreciation in the assets of the company of $80,000.

Not So Much Damage

PARIS, February 26.—A fire last night, in Casino de Paris, did not do so much damage as was first announced. Only the Rue de Clichy end of the building was destroyed.

SCHOOL BOARD.

Bids for Lafayette Building Are Rejected.

A Proposition to Settle a Legal Dispute.

The Sixth Ward School Matter Again Under Discussion.

The Board of Education held a regular meeting last night. Director Whitehead was absent owing to illness.

The matter of the sale of the old Lafayette school came up for discussion and on motion of Director Clements the Board of Public Works was instructed to reject all bids for the same and readvertise for new ones. Those received were considered too low.

Professor Meads submitted a report regarding certain heating and ventilation tests performed by him in the old Lafayette school building. The apparatus was accepted and the matter of remunerating Professor Meads for his services was referred to the Finance Committee.

Director Clement discussed the case of the Freyer children and moved that they be excluded from school privileges until the board was satisfied that Mr. Freyer is a bona fide resident of Oakland.

The Superintendent said that Mr. Freyer had been notified to be present at the meeting but had not. [illegible] Directors Clements, [illegible] Pollington and Vosa voting against it.

P. F. Lamoreaux, secretary of the Pamilard Brick Company, appeared before the board in regard to the Sixth ward school and offered to tear down the concrete wall to the ground line and rebuild in brick for the sum of $[illegible].

Director Mock objected on the ground that it would add that much to the cost of the building, making it $[illegible] in place of $3[illegible].

Director Reed was anxious to have the matter settled as soon as possible even if they had to pay for it, but would like the Committee on Schoolhouses and Sites to state first whether the demand was fair or not.

It was finally agreed to refer the matter to the committee and Mr. Whitehead to report.

In conclusion the following bills were allowed: W. Morgan & Co., $152; Carrath & [illegible], $[illegible]; B. Callagher, $3; [illegible] Farrier, $7; Tyrre & Campbell, $56.25; Walter Meese, 50 cents; Weber [illegible]; W. Webster, $2.

The board then adjourned till Monday, the 18th of March.

That the best is always the most economical is in nothing more clearly demonstrated than in the use of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

ANOTHER FINE.

Fate of a Violator of the Liquor License Law.

P. Pezzola, the saloon keeper, was fined $50 by Judge Wood in the Police Court this morning for selling liquor without a license. He has already been convicted of the same offense by a jury and fined $100. A third charge of a like character still remains to be heard.

TWO SULLIVANS.

Ill Luck Lands Them Both in the Hospital.

This morning Thomas Sullivan was brought to the Receiving Hospital with an injured knee. He is a carpenter and fell from the roof of a building on Thirteenth and Jefferson streets, where he was putting on shingles.

No sooner had Thomas Sullivan left the place than Jerry Sullivan was brought in with a scalp wound, sustained while handling lumber on the wharf. The latter is a longshore man, and belongs to San Francisco.

A SAD CASE.

John Lindy Is About Ready to Die.

Did Not Have the Courage to Commit Suicide.

Took Him Four Days to Walk In From Haywards.

John Lindy was sent to the County Hospital today, and will probably end his days there before many weeks. His story is a singularly sad one.

Lindy was once a strong able bodied man, who made good wages as a boiler maker at the Judson Iron Works. Five years ago when the grip was so bad in this country he was caught by the disease and never recovered his health. He got a bad attack of catarrh then he got bronchitis and was left in a state of consumption.

He expended $500 on doctors and druggists to regain his health and finally had to do any light manual labor just for his board.

His last engagement was at a hotel in Haywards, where he worked for his board, but getting too weak he was told to leave and was not even given as much money as would take him to Oakland.

The poor fellow then started walking, and after four days tramp reached the corner of First and Franklin streets, where he fell down exhausted and was yesterday then brought to the Receiving Hospital. He was emaciated and altogether pitiable.

[illegible] nearly gone, and in broken words, he recounted his sufferings this morning, and told how even on his walk to Oakland he had been denied a drink of milk on the road. He also produced at the hospital a small vial of laudanum which he said he had carried about for over a month with the intent on to commit suicide, but his courage had failed him and he had refrained from taking the fatal step.

Lindy is an American by birth and only [illegible] years of age, but he looks much older and wears the impress of great sufferings. He says he has no relatives alive.

The Pirates' Steed

The horse and wagon which was used by the bay pirates arrested at Fitchburg a few days ago, and which Chief Schaffer placed in the City Hall stables, were claimed by a woman this morning. She said she had rented the outfit, as she supposed, to a couple of drummers. The outfit was surrendered on the payment of costs.

He Has Appealed

G. A. Peterson has appealed to the Superior Court for a rehearing of the action brought against him by G. G. Baker. The suit was originally brought to recover an installment due on a promissory note and was decided in the Justice's court in favor of the plaintiff.

On a Promissory Note

The Union Savings Bank, through its cashier, A. E. H. Cramer, has filed a claim for $2200 in the estate of George C. Fricke deceased. The money is due on a promissory note with accruing interest from April 11, 1891.

Cost of a Will

J. Callaghan has filed a creditor's claim in the estate of Kate West, deceased. The demand is for $15 for writing and drawing a will at her request.

Territorial Census

SALT LAKE, February 26.—The Territorial census, completed last night, shows that on January 1st Salt Lake City had a population of 47,980. This is an increase of 3137 compared with the Federal census of 1890.

A REVOLUTION.

Some Lively Times Expected in Cuba.

Plans for the Uprising Made in the East.

Spanish Troops Will Be Ready to Meet the Rebels.

New York, February 26.—The outbreak in Cuba reported in last night's cable despatches is said to have been hatched here in New York. It is said that cable dispatches received here, yesterday, by members of the Cuban revolutionary party to whom the date set for the uprising has been known since February 9th, told that the revolution had been begun.

Jose Marti, twice banished from Cuban soil because of his hatred of Spanish domination, and General Maximo Gomez, who commanded the eastern wing of the Cuban rebels in the revolution of 1868, left New York two weeks ago for Vera Cruz and the news received last night from Cuba tells that they have landed, for their arrival was to be the signal for the uprising.

This movement will be known as the Marti revolution, for it is said by Jose Marti, who will be the head of the Provisional Government if the revolution is successful.

General Gomez, who accompanied him, is the commander-in-chief of the revolutionary forces.

It is now known that the revolution was planned, and it was from here that the order was sent which lighted the fire of the civil war in Cuba, yesterday, or more precisely on Sunday, since that was the date originally set.

The Cuban leaders here in league with the revolutionists of the island and who are sympathizers in the United States, Mexico and the South American republics, have been long preparing for the event, the execution of which is announced in the cablegrams.

The insurgent forces in Matanzas, near Ybarra, where one wing of the patriot party raised its standard, are under command of Major General Julio Sanguily, the place mentioned being sixty miles east of Havana, on the west end of the island.

The scene of the other uprising, Guantanamo, is on the east end of the island, and the fact that these widely separated places are given prominence was regarded by Cubans in New York last night to mean that the uprising extended throughout the island and that the Spanish authorities were attempting to belittle its extent.

The revolutionary forces in the eastern section of the island, which include Guantanamo, are commanded by Brigadier General Guillermo Moncada. It is estimated that he can raise 4000 men.

The Spanish troops number about 15,000 regulars, of which about 6000 are stationed in Santiago de Cuba, and so are within reach of the rebels at Guantanamo.

The bulk of the remaining Spanish troops are stationed in Havana, and so are near the scene of General Sanguily's starting point, Ybarra.

General Gomez and Marti are expected to land on the south coast, but there is some uncertainty about their exact destination, as they were forced to move with great caution and had gone to Vera Cruz for the purpose of deceiving the Spanish authorities who were expecting trouble from another quarter, the north.

Men who are high in the councils of the Cuban party here and who were intrusted with the date set for the uprising, said last night that with the arms which have been smuggled into Cuba during the last few weeks and which are concealed near Matanzas and other points, and those already in possession of the patriot forces, General Gomez would be able to arm 3,000 men at once and to arm more within a very short time. Advices received by merchants here in English confirmed the cable despatches of the revolutionary outbreak received about noon. The plan of campaign is more complete than in any of the numerous revolutions which have drenched Cuban soil with blood. To begin with, relying upon the fact that the disaffection is general, the arms and supplies of war smuggled into Cuba were landed at widely separated points, for it is upon patriot leaders like Marti and General Gomez that they depend, and they aimed to fire the entire island with the spirit of rebellion at the same hour.

To this end, the banished leaders and the trusty men who were already upon Cuban soil were assigned to different districts, and all were given similar instructions. They will arm as many men as their supplies of rifles will permit, and rallying, in addition, all of the unarmed or poorly-armed patriots to their standard, will make head for a common destination, there to meet Marti and Gomez, if possible, and so present a uniform front to the Spanish regulars.

The Cubans will be handicapped in the matter of arms, but the leaders here say that their countrymen know every foot of the trails and roads and can endure privations which would mean death to the Spaniards. They fought for ten years before, when their chance for success was not nearly so bright as now, Cubans here were saying last night, and think, now, that they cannot fail.

In addition to Gomez and Marti, it is believed the following are in command of bodies of patriots at various points on the island:

General Carlos Roloff, a Polish officer; General Antonio Maceo, General Crombet, General Sanchez, General Francisco Arillo, General Enrique Collazo, General Julio Sanguily, who was probably the instigator of the uprising at Matanzas; General Guillermo Moncada and the Marquis of Santa Lucia.

WANT TO RETIRE.

Officers Have Expressed Their Desire to the Emperor.

Berlin, February 26.—It is stated on good authority that Vice Admiral Holtman and Admiral Von Der Goltz have expressed to the Emperor their desire to retire, and his Majesty's decision has been deferred until the marine budget is disposed of.

The reason for the Emperor's dissatisfaction is said to be insufficient representation of naval affairs in the Reichstag.

He Wants a Divorce.

John M. Breen, the Washington street cigar dealer, commenced a suit in the Superior Court, this afternoon, against Mary Agnes Breen, for a divorce. Mr. Breen has engaged Judge J. J. Allen and Thomas F. Garrity to prosecute the action.

ON THE TRACK.

Mrs. P. J. Delehanty Killed at the Mole.

Run Down at Night by the Alameda Local.

Another Fatality at the Altamont Railroad Tunnel

Mrs. P. J. Delehanty, wife of the senior member of the undertaking firm of Delehanty & Havens, 960 Clay street, was instantly killed last night, about 8:30 o'clock, near tower No. 1 on the pier leading from the broad gauge mole.

She was returning in a buggy with her husband from San Francisco, when the Alameda local, coming from the mole, dashed into the rear of the vehicle, throwing the unfortunate woman beneath the wheels of the locomotive, crushing her to death, killing the horse and reducing the buggy to splinters.

Mr. Delehanty was thrown out of the buggy upon the roadway. He was badly shaken up, became dazed for a time, but miraculously escaped injury.

A number of people appeared on the scene almost immediately after the accident.

Delehanty was borne away bemoaning the bereavement he had sustained.

The Coroner was notified and bore the remains of Mrs. Delehanty to the Morgue.

It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Delehanty had attended a funeral in San Francisco during the afternoon of yesterday, and on their way home took the 8 o'clock boat, driving aboard in their buggy.

When they reached this side, they drove along the pier, but neglected to cross the track at a certain point in order to continue on the driveway intended for vehicles. As a consequence, whether knowingly or not, cannot be told, they continued along the right of way of the local trains.

The Alameda train was then coming away from the mole and crashed into the vehicle before it could be stopped.

The locomotive was in charge of Engineer Horace Hammond.

Mrs. Delehanty was the sister of Mr. Havens, Mr. Delehanty's business partner.

Coroner Baldwin will hold an inquest at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

CRUSHED AT ALTAMONT.

Altamont tunnel claimed another victim yesterday in the person of John Buckley, a young laborer in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. He was caught in a landslide. His fellow-workmen labored hard to extricate him from beneath the crushing weight of earth which buried him, but were unable to do so until after death had taken place. The deceased has a brother residing at 313 Tehama street, San Francisco. An inquest will be held tonight.

It was at Altamont tunnel that the collision between a construction and a passenger train took place last January, in which three lives were lost.

PASSED OUT.

An Old-Time and Popular Business Firm Retires.

The popular firm of Harrison & Boyce have disposed of their business in the Twelfth Street Market to Alexander I. Smillie, a brother of Robert and James Smillie, the well-known contractors. The senior member of the retiring firm is Street Superintendent. Harrison & Boyce have opened an office at 468 Tenth street for the adjustment of all accounts due and all claims against them. The retirement of this popular firm wipes out an old-time business land mark in this city.

UNFAIR DEAL.

East Fourteenth Street People vs. East Twelfth.

The Council at its meeting last night adopted a resolution of intention for the remacadamizing of East Fourteenth street.

This action has aroused bitter opposition all along the line, and at an early hour this morning several taxpayers on the thoroughfare called at the office of the City Clerk to ascertain whether or not they had been correctly informed in the premises. They were given the desired information, and immediately a protest against the work was prepared and put in circulation.

The protest sets forth that East Fourteenth street was macadamized some time ago at the expense of the property owners, and that, since that time, the street has had to accommodate the traffic that was driven to it through the impassable condition of East Twelfth street; also that the taxpayers are not able to do the work a second time, unless with assistance of the city.

The protestants also object to concrete curbs, claiming that wood would be good enough for them, and that if they wanted to make a change, they would ask for it.

They also claim that the street is improperly made to stand all the through traffic of East Twelfth street, the property owners on which will not make any improvements.

MAY DAY FETE.

A Date Selected for the Horse Meet.

Bicyclers Favor Oakland Trotting Park.

President Fitzgerald Is Encouraged by Enthusiasts.

The executive committee in charge of the Horse-Meet has decided that the exhibition will be given on May 1st.

That date has been selected owing to the fact that it is celebrated by many people as a half-holiday, and because, also, merchants can, at that time, be more easily induced to give their employes a day off than they can earlier or later in the season.

There is a strong feeling in favor of having the meet take place at the Oakland Trotting Park.

The mile track is always in excellent condition about May 1st, and the leading bicycle men say that the fastest riders could be secured to run on it, whereas, on a made special track they could not be induced to run under any circumstances.

Mrs. A. A. Barton, the secretary, is daily in receipt of inquiries regarding the meet. This shows that the proposed scheme is attracting widespread attention. She hopes to be able in a few days to give all the information desired on the subject.

President Fitzgerald also speaks encouragingly of the manner in which the project is espoused by people who are difficult to enthuse on any subject, and this, he argues, is a favorable evidence of the great popularity of the undertaking.

SEXTON'S TRIAL.

He Is Again Before a Jury in the Superior Court.

John E. Sexton's second trial on a charge of forging R. J. Boyer's signature to a check on Wells, Fargo Co's Bank for $100 was commenced in Judge Ellsworth's department of the Superior Court this morning. The defendant is represented by H. C. McPike. At the former trial the jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.

An Important Meeting to Be Held This Evening.

An important meeting of the Merchants' Exchange has been called for this evening in the Council Chambers. The Board of Directors has had under consideration several very important measures which will be the subject for discussion tonight. The board has requested that a very large attendance of members be present, as the questions involve the interests of the entire mercantile community.

Lady Maccabees.

A performance of unusual interest will be given tonight at Hamilton Hall under the auspices of the Lady Maccabees. M. Wentworth, the eminent reader and impersonator, will be on hand, and render some of his inimitable sketches of Dion Boucicault and Joseph Jefferson, and will be assisted by Mrs. George Monck and Mr. Forney. Henry Hatton and Kate Douglas Williams will also assist, and the entertainment will close with a representation of Sandalphon, in which moving tableaux will be introduced and fourteen young ladies take part. The musical and illuminating effects of this latter are said to be very fine.

Widow and Daughters.

Adjudication of Insolvency.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR the County of Alameda, State of California. In the matter of Elbert Olney, an insolvent debtor.

Order of adjudication of insolvency.

Elbert Olney having filed in this court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, from which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Elbert Olney is hereby declared to be insolvent. It is hereby ordered that C. B. White, Sheriff of Alameda County, be, and he is hereby appointed receiver of the property of said insolvent, and that upon his giving a bond to the people of the State of California, in the sum of $, conditioned as required by law, and qualifying, he take charge and possession of all of the estate, real and personal, of said Elbert Olney, insolvent debtor, whatsoever and wheresoever situate, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account and papers and to keep and care for and dispose of the same until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons having the same or any part thereof in his or their possession, are hereby directed to pay the same to said receiver, and that said receiver keep the said property, or the proceeds thereof, till the further order of this court. And all persons are hereby forbidden to pay any debts to said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to such insolvent, to him, or to any person, firm, corporation or association, for his use, and the said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered, that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, Department No. 4, in open Court, at the Courtroom of said Court, in the County of Alameda, on the first day of April, 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered, that this order be published in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the County of Alameda, as often as the said paper is published before the day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered, that in the meantime all proceedings against said insolvent be stayed.

Dated February 26, 1895.

F. B. OGDEN,
Judge of the Superior Court.

S. F. DANIELS, Attorney for Petitioner.

COURT NOTES.

Catherine McClosky has filed a demurrer in the suit of Thomas L. Kaen versus Catherine McClosky et al. on the ground that the complaint does not set forth facts sufficient to cause an action.

Anna L. Schramm has been appointed guardian for her four minor children to represent them in the action brought by them against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

Emil Pfannkuchen has brought suit against L. Grillo for $925 damages alleged to have been sustained through a breach of agreement concerning certain real estate transactions.

James P. Brown has been appointed guardian of the person and estate of Creed Raymond Brown, a minor.

The suit of Octavia O'Farrell against the Oakland Water Company has been dismissed.

John Ellis Hewston was this morning appointed a special deputy sheriff by Sheriff White.

You never need use more than half as much of Dr. Price's Baking Powder as of any other. A single trial will prove this.

LOADED WITH BALLOTS.

The Collins-McDonald Vote to Be Counted.

County Clerk Jordan and Chief Deputy Ewing left on the first train this morning with the ballots to be counted by the Legislature in the Collins-McDonald contest. The ballots weigh about 300 pounds, and the Clerk is required to keep them in his actual custody, and is prohibited from sending them by express or otherwise.

Mr. Jordan and his deputy will have to guard their charge incessantly during the time of recount, which will probably occupy a couple of days.

During the absence of the Clerk the office will be in charge of his efficient deputy, Frank Adams.

Today the young couple will go on their honeymoon with the company, which is about to start on a tour Eastward.

MURDOCK VS. MORCK.

The Machinist Charged With Criminal Libel.

Fire Warden Murdock swore to a complaint this morning charging William Morck with criminal libel. The complaint alleges that Morck circulated and swore to the statement that Murdock had tried to extort money from him in return for a favorable report on Morck's fire-escapes.

LEVOY ON A TEAR.

The Man Responsible for the Mired Horse and Buggy.

It was ascertained this morning that the horse and buggy which were fished out of the Lake Merritt marsh yesterday belong to the Almont stables, on Broadway, near Sixth street, where they were hired by a man named Henry Levoy two days ago. They were claimed by "Frenchy" Blouin, and surrendered to him by the police. Levoy was later found walking along the streets in a dazed manner. He did not know what had become of the horse and buggy, how he had separated from them, or, in fact, where he had been for the past two days. He was arrested and charged with cruelty to animals.

THE SHERMAN LIBEL.

Ben Morgan Will Argue the Case Tonight.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock the case of criminal libel against E. A. Sherman Jr. will come up in the Police Court. Arguments will be advanced on the motion of Sherman to have the case dismissed on the ground that the document in which it is alleged the libel on Chief Schaffer was contained was a privileged communication. It is understood that Ben Morgan will appear as counsel for Sherman.

STILL GOING ON.

The Water Front Case Drags Along in Court.

Judge Ogden was listening the greater part of the day to further argument in the suit of the City of Oakland vs. the Oakland Water Front Company.

Attorney Brown was on hand reading long extracts of law and W. R. Davis was making voluminous notes. The interest in the case is only visibly demonstrated by a very few loungers in the lobby.

BENSON ROAD.

The Proposition to Close It Discussed.

Arguments Are Presented by Both Sides.

Fortin Given More Time to Repair the Annex.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon the indigent cases of Mrs. Barelli of Thirty-sixth street and Mrs. Harmon of 1060 East Twenty-second street were referred to Supervisors Pelouze and Johnston, respectively.

Thomas Dunn, who was formerly in the County Hospital and later on at the Blind Home, asked for relief and was sent back to the hospital.

The matter of the so-called Benson road then came up for further hearing, in which the Oakland Water Company and the Alvarado Water Company are opposing each other. The road passes through land belonging to Mr. Dingee, and is situated near Alvarado. It is alleged that there is virtually no necessity for it, as the proper highway is by other old established roads, and Mr. Dingee, therefore, desires the road closed. This has been opposed by certain parties, among whom the Alvarado Water Company, which was represented by Attorneys M. L. Wright and Samuel B. McKee, while Mr. Nusbaumer represented Mr. Dingee's interest.

Mr. Wright stated that a formal petition had been filed with the Clerk for the continuation of Benson road.

Attorney Nusbaumer argued that the road was unnecessary. If the board found that the road was superfluous he asked that it be closed.

After some deliberation Mr. Wright presented a map, prepared by the County Surveyor, and argued that Benson street had been established as a public thoroughfare forever.

The speaker was frequently interrupted by Mr. Nusbaumer, who contended that the whole matter in regard to conveyances, etc., had been already laid before the Supervisors and are understood by them.

Mr. Wright then presented another petition signed by freeholders for the opening of a public road, passing over the land owned by the Oakland Water Company, the Alvarado Artesian Water Company and the county of Alameda, the proposed road being in point of fact the road in dispute. He thought the proper way to have proceeded would have been for the Supervisors to first suggest another road and not to shut them out of house and home. Before the board could proceed in this matter viewers should be appointed, but the speaker contended that according to the law the board could not close up the road in question. His clients owned a piece of land near Alameda creek, and on it were four artesian wells which they intended to make use of and would therefore utilize the road for running their pipes. That was the reason, he contended, why the Oakland Water Company were anxious to have the road closed. The latter have already laid their pipes along the Benson road, and he asked for fair play in the matter.

The board might complicate their position, but could not stop them.

Mr. Nusbaumer followed and argued that the board had a right to close the road as a public highway, and alleged that there was something behind the opposition to the closing of it, considering the contestants expended $100 for abstracts alone, when the whole question was a matter of 400 feet of a road. He desired the case settled right there.

S. B. McKee, also for the Alvarado Water Company, asked for more time.

After nearly two hours' deliberation the matter was left with the District Attorney for his opinion.

Mr. Nusbaumer appeared for Mr. Fortin in the matter of the plaster-work of the new annex. Smyth Bros., he stated, had agreed to make the defective plaster work good. Meanwhile he desired to make arrangements for the protection of Mr. Fortin, and asked for a continuance of the matter, and was granted until next Monday.

Judge Swasey of Alameda was given permission to have one of his law books rebound at THE TRIBUNE bindery.

A requisition for a new range for the County Jail was referred to the Building Committee.

The board then adjourned till 10 A. M. on Monday next.

Goethe's Visit to Carlsbad.

There is no doubt that the life of the great poet was greatly prolonged by drinking the waters of the Sprudel Spring. In our day we have the Sprudel Spring brought to us in the form of Salt, which is obtained by evaporation from the waters of Carlsbad.

The Carlsbad Sprudel Salt (powder form) is in no sense a mere purgative, but is an alterative and eliminative remedy which dissolves tenacious bile, allays irritation and removes obstruction by aiding nature. It acts soothingly and without pain. Beware of imitations. The genuine article has the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON CO., Sole Agents, New York," on every bottle.

A CUT IN WAGES.

The Cotton Mills Affected by the Tariff.

It is announced that there is to be a reduction of 10 per cent in the wages of the employes of the California Cotton Mills, in East Oakland, owing to the low prices at which manufactured articles must be sold, as a consequence of the cheap-labor competition of England and India.

Under the McKinley bill, Superintendent Rutherford said the pay roll of the mills was $10,000 a month. Now, he says it is only $7000 per month.

"We are sorry," says Mr. Rutherford, "to be compelled to make this reduction in wages, but, for the salvation of our business, must do so. A number of those who will be reduced have been seen and, while they cannot help but deplore the disagreeable necessity that compels them to work for less pay, they readily see that we alone cannot keep our mills running in any other way, and they are not disposed to complain."

THE GENUINE "BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES" are sold only in boxes. They are wonderfully effective for Coughs, Hoarseness or Irritation of the Throat caused by cold.

PRIZES ON PATENTS.

How to Get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune.

We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors.

NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS.

The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which, if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost every one sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author.

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the Patent Office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not the inventor will have a valuable patent.

Adjudication of Insolvency.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR the County of Alameda, State of California. In the matter of Robert Stevenson, an insolvent debtor.

Order of adjudication of insolvency.

Robert Stevenson having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, from which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Robert Stevenson is hereby declared to be insolvent. It is hereby ordered that Calvin B. White, Sheriff of Alameda County, be, and he is hereby appointed receiver of the property of said insolvent, and that upon his giving a bond to the People of the State of California, in the sum of $1,000, conditioned as required by law, and qualifying, he take charge and possession of all of the estate, real and personal, of said Robert Stevenson, insolvent debtor, whatsoever and wheresoever situate, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account and papers, and to keep and care for and dispose of the same until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons having the same or any part thereof in his or their possession, are hereby directed to pay the same to said receiver, and that said receiver keep the said property, or the proceeds thereof, till the further order of this court. And all persons are hereby forbidden to pay any debts to said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to such insolvent, to him, or to any person, firm, corporation or association, for his use, and the said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property until the further order of this court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered, that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, Department No. 2, in open court, at the courtroom of said court, in the County of Alameda, on the 25th day of March, 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered, that this order be published in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the County of Alameda, as often as the said paper is published before the day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered, that in the meantime, all proceedings against said insolvent be stayed.

Dated February 21st, 1895.

WATER RATES.

A Proposed Cut of Twenty Per Cent.

Appraising the Contra Costa Company's Plant.

A Big Batch of Miscellaneous Street Work Disposed Of.

An adjourned meeting of the Council was held last night, all the members, [illegible] being present. Towle was chosen to preside.

[illegible]

Mrs. [illegible], who represented the Ladies' Cooperative Aid Society, again appealed to the Council for a share of the aid granted to the Associated Charities, to carry on the society's work.

[illegible] stated that the Finance Committee had given the request courteous consideration on a previous occasion and that the City Attorney had rendered an opinion on the subject, which, he understood, prohibited the Council from granting any money for charity beyond what the charter [illegible] could be granted to the Associated Charities. He had since ascertained, however, that the charter provision merely restricted the amount that could be granted to the Associated Charities, being not to exceed $[illegible]. He thought, therefore, a part of the [illegible] per month now allowed to the Associated Charities might be diverted to the Ladies' Cooperative Aid Society, who were similarly engaged in charity work.

The matter was thereupon referred back to the Finance Committee and the City Attorney.

[illegible]

Manuel, [illegible] Committee on Water Rates, then presented the ordinance fixing the water rates for the next fiscal year. In doing so, he said he would follow the custom [illegible] last year of presenting the argument in favor of [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] in determining the valuation of the works as a basis on which to [illegible] rates for the coming fiscal year. In fixing the valuation of the Contra Costa Company's works, to establish a basis for the fixing of rates, the committee had [illegible] three propositions: What the plant could be reproduced for at present prices; what it probably cost the company, and what part of the property owned by the company could be fairly considered as part of the company's present system.

The argument [illegible] extends into the details regarding the properties of the Contra Costa Water Company, placing a value upon each piece at present prices, and [illegible] the price paid [illegible]. It also discarded all reservoir sites not in actual use and all lands not actually necessary to the system of the company [illegible] from the estimated value of the property. It assumed that the present cost of the works as they now stand would be $[illegible], and that they [illegible] $[illegible]. To be on the safe side, however, the committee had added [illegible] per cent to this sum, and fixed the [illegible] of the property at $[illegible]. [illegible] the total valuation on which the water rates at $2,421,[illegible]. They had [illegible] from the appraisement property valued at $122,741, because, in their judgment, it did not constitute any part of the present system of the Contra Costa Water Company. On the accepted valuation the company was entitled to [illegible] per cent interest. The water rates on [illegible] which the committee submitted would give them the [illegible] per cent on the valuation fixed, and in view of the fact that the company was drawing a large revenue from the sale of water outside the city [illegible] would no doubt yield them more than [illegible] per cent. The ordinance submitted [illegible] a reduction on the present [illegible] of 20 per cent.

The ordinance was then read a first time.

[illegible] moved the rules be suspended and the ordinance be read a second time and passed to print.

The motion prevailed.

The ordinance was then read a second time and passed to print.

The Council agreed to meet as a Committee of the Whole Wednesday night to consider the ordinance and hear objections, if any, to its final passage.

[illegible]

The Industrial Army's application for aid to purchase soap, tubs and other utensils and materials for their proposed laundry was filed, it being stated that the Council had no authority to contribute money toward such an object and besides a free license had already been granted them by the city.

[illegible] THE BOULEVARD.

The following resolution was adopted, all voting aye except Towle:

"Whereas, the sum of $[illegible] has been deposited with the City Treasurer by W. E. Dargie for the payment of the agreed half of the estimated cost and expenses of the certain street work to be performed upon the boulevard north of Twelfth street and as described in resolutions Nos. 20,5[illegible], 20,718 and [illegible], and thereupon this Council [illegible] by said resolutions Nos. 20,718 and [illegible], order the other half of such cost and expense to be paid by the city of Oakland, but in said resolutions did not designate the fund from which in the City Treasury said payment may be made, and

"Whereas, Section 26 of the General Street act in providing for such partial payments by resolution of the Council, requires that the Council must designate the fund out of which the partial payment is made, therefore

"Resolved, That the Street fund is hereby designated as the fund in the City Treasury from which the payment shall be made of the other half of said cost and expenses in behalf of this city, and the like sum of $[illegible] is hereby appropriated to be paid out of the Street fund to the contractor for said work upon the proper performance and acceptance of the same."

STANDARD OIL SUIT.

A communication was read from the City Attorney stating that the suit of the Standard Oil Company vs. the city of Oakland, now pending in the United States Circuit Court, will probably be tried in May or June.

SUIT FOR LAND.

The communication of B. Haynes was referred to the City Attorney with instructions to bring suit to determine the ownership of land involved.

PRIVATE SEWER CONSTRUCTION.

An ordinance amending the private sewer ordinance was itself amended so that the word "may" was made to read "must" and sent to print for five days.

RESOLUTIONS OF INTENTION.

A resolution of intention to sewer Third street, from Madison to Oak, was passed to print; also to grade, curb and macadamize East Tenth street, from Park avenue to city line; also to grade and curb East Twentieth street, from Twenty-third to Twenty-fifth avenue; also to macadamize East Twentieth street, from Tenth to Twelfth avenue; also to sewer Sixth street, from Jackson to Madison; also to grade, curb and macadamize East Ninth street, from Park avenue to city line; also to sewer Grant or Thirty-third street, from Fourteenth avenue to a point 253 feet east thereof; also for the opening and widening of Harrison street, from First street to the water front; also to remacadamize East Fourteenth street, from First to Thirteenth avenue; also for sidewalking Market street, from Fourteenth to Eighteenth.

A resolution of intention to remacadamize East Twelfth street, from Thirteenth avenue to Park avenue, was referred to the Street Committee.

SEWER CONSTRUCTION.

Mrs. Littlejohn was given permission to construct a sewer in Tenth avenue, near East Twenty-fourth street.

TO AMEND THE ELECTION LAW.

A resolution was adopted requesting the Alameda legislative delegation to secure the passage of an amendment to the election law to enable the holding of a special election with a reduced number of polling places and election officers.

ELECTION SUPPLIES.

The City Clerk was directed to procure the necessary stamps, ink and other supplies for the municipal election to be held March 11th.

LICENSE OR NO LICENSE.

The Oakland Woman's Christian Temperance Union submitted the following resolution adopted at a meeting of the Union February 25, 1895:

"Resolved, That we respectfully but earnestly ask the Oakland City Council to submit to the voters of Oakland at the coming municipal election the question of license or no license for the sale of intoxicating liquors to be drank upon the premises."

PROHIBITION PROPOSITION.

A communication was read from Home Protection Division, No. 59, Sons of Temperance, for the submission to the citizens of Oakland, for an expression of opinion, for or against issuing a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors to be consumed on the premises. The petition was signed by Joseph Humphreys and R. J. Hunter. Referred to the City Attorney and Ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

SUNDAY CLOSING OF SALOONS.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union petitioned for the closing of the saloons from 6 P. M. Saturday to 6 A. M. on Monday. Referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee and City Attorney.

Frank A. Foster and 551 other petitioners filed a petition asking for the closing of all saloons from the hour of 6 P. M. Saturday to 6 A. M. Monday. The petition and an ordinance accompanying it was referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

PRIVATE SEWER CONTRACT.

The petition of John P. Beckett for permission to proceed with the construction of a sewer in Third street, between Madison and Oak, he having entered into a contract with the property owners, was granted.

MIDNIGHT CLOSING OF SALOONS.

An ordinance to close saloons at midnight was read a first and second time under suspension of the rules, Heitmann voting against the latter proposition.

LIQUOR LICENSES AND BONDS.

The liquor license bonds of Frank Bieler, [illegible] East Fourteenth street; James Nielson, 6[illegible] Washington street, were approved.

Permission to take out licenses to sell liquors was given to the following dealers: James Nelson, 677 Washington street; J. & H. [illegible], 222 Sixth street; M. T. O'Brien, 421 Tenth street; Clement Martin, 12[illegible] Broadway, and Thomas F. Beard, 351 Eighth street.

REMOVAL OF DEAD ANIMALS.

C. W. Lent requested that the Board of Public Works be directed to advertise for proposals to remove dead animals from the city. Referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee and City Attorney.

STREET WORK.

A petition for permission to grade East Seventeenth street, from Twentieth to Twenty-first avenue and Twenty-first avenue, from south line of East Seventeenth street to alley 140 feet north, was referred to the Street Committee.

AT THE PLAY.

Fashion Greets the Warde-James Company.

The Macdonough Crowded to the Doors.

"Henry IV" Was Presented in an Artistic Manner.

An artistic and a society success was the initial performance last evening of the Warde-James Company at the Macdonough Theater. The pretty playhouse was crowded to the foyer, while many stood who were luckless enough to come late, after all the seats were gone.

Henry IV is not a masterpiece of the Bard of Avon, although it has through it a strong vein of comedy that carries more closely to the borders of the humorous than other dramas of the immortal poet. The play is, however, worthy to be presented by the strong company that these eminent tragedians have gathered about them. No character in Shakespeare has more originality about it than that of "Sir John Falstaff," doubtless few have so much of the humor that is furnished by the fat knight, whose egotistical lying is an art in itself.

The audience was thoroughly in touch with the movement of the play. Warde and James, the former as the blithe and rollicking "Prince" and the latter as the redoubtable "Falstaff," were enthusiastically received. When the curtain dropped upon the second act they were forced to respond to several recalls, and the audience was not satisfied until Warde, for himself and his companion, Mr. James, was obliged to respond in a well-timed speech.

For the play itself, little need be said. The "Falstaff" of James was a marvelous piece of acting, seldom equaled on the stage of the Macdonough or any other theater. His admirers found a new source of enjoyment in the impersonation of that character. Even the oldest theater-goers were forced to believe they had never fathomed the depth of Louis James' versatility. Certain it was his work as "Falstaff" was something of a revelation. As the gay "Prince Henry," Warde was at home. His magnificent presence, his clear and clean delivery of the lines and his evident understanding of them, rendered the impersonation a charming study. Contrasts were so sharply drawn in the rendition of the two characters that there resulted an artistic performance that held the audience to the end.

Oakland seldom has an opportunity to witness within a week the excellent playing which the Warde-James Company will offer. The first night is a sign of the success of the engagement. A deserved success it will be, for a more ambitious company of players never visited Oakland. Whether it be the charm of Warde's clean and intellectual studies of the great dramas which are included in the repertoire, or the really superb work of Mr. James, there is much to admire. This is the last season in which these eminent actors will be seen together. They will repay a visit this week a hundred fold to those who enjoy acting such as only true actors can present.

This evening that masterpiece of dramas, Francesca da Rimini will be presented. On Wednesday evening, Julius Caesar. This performance, many High school and University students will attend.

The first nighters took the theater by storm, last evening. There was a fashionable audience present. Among those noticed at the play were: Dr. and Mrs. Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wilder, J. W. Howard, Miss Howard, Captain and Mrs. Watson, William Gross and Mrs. Gross, Miss Gross, Dr. White, Mrs. Charles Cook and party, Miss A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, John Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, Miss O'Brien, W. Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Gorrill, Miss Gorrill, Mrs. Ralston and party, Miss S. Cook, Miss D. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Britton, Dr. Baldwin, Dr. Dunn and Mrs. Dunn, W. E. Dargie, Sam Bell McKee, Dr. and Mrs. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moffitt, Miss Emma Snyder, Andy Stone, A. S. McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. Buteau, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hall, Miss Simmons, Mrs. Mary Whitney, Walter Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Captain Reilly, Mrs. Pope, Miss Pope, Dr. and Mrs. Merriman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker, Miss Baker, John Snyder, Mrs. S. Chappell, Alvin Baker, Miss Wosly, Mrs. A. A. Sutter, Miss Bates, Charles Bates, Mrs. Simmonds, Miss Phillips, Mrs. Howard, Miss Kenner, Miss Irene Baker, Miss Louise Simmonds, Miss May Barrington, Mrs. Baker, Miss Ida Belle Palmer, Miss Bessie Palmer, Miss Grace Baldwin, Miss Myra O'Brien, Mrs. Dayton, Miss Buck, Guy Lilienkrantz, Dr. J. N. Young, Dr. Charles Fisher, Carl Kramm, George P. McNear, Thomas Furby, Joseph Pheby, Bernard Stone, Fred Conklin, James Huff, Harold Harvey, R. W. Snow, Judge Allen, A. Macdonald, J. Frank Proest, Herbert Beck, Ray Baker, Harry Baker, Walter Dayton, Joseph Rosborough, George De Golia, Alexander Graham, Phil Remillard.

The People's.

Pink Dominoes, a clever comedy, was presented last evening to a first night house. The play was well received. Its funny situations, working up to an irresistibly funny climax, caught the house. There is a good company presenting a clean play, and this forms a combination that will draw well. The comedy has been well staged with new effects, fine scenery and bright music. It will go without a doubt. Richard Scott, Maurice Stewart, Josie Seabrook and a fine support carry the piece.

The Musical Festival.

The monster music festival and French fete in aid of the French Hospital was commenced at the Mechanics' Pavilion last evening. Thousands were present, and the festival was opened with a startling success to be scored for its first night. Fun and merriment will reign during the first five nights of the festival, which will include the benefit fete. The grand American Band concert, given by 100 musicians, is a musical success. The superb electrical effects, which heighten the intensity of the music, were novelties never enjoyed here before. There will be popular programmes each evening, together with special attractions during the fete.

Long service has proved the superiority of Dr. Price's Baking Powder. It is without a successful peer.

FOR ANNEXATION.

The Municipal League Indorses the Movement.

The Municipal League held a meeting last evening to discuss the proposed annexation of Temescal to Oakland. The matter was very thoroughly canvassed and debate resulted in the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Citizens' Municipal League is heartily in favor of the annexation of Temescal to the city of Oakland and recommend that all progressive citizens interest themselves in the measure and vote and work for the same.

"L. D. Inskeep, president.

"JOHN A. BECKWITH, secretary."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address

IN SHAPE.

Now the Fight Will Wage.

County Officials on the Warpath.

Lively Times Are Ahead for the Lawmakers.

The Final Grand Rush of New Bills at Sacramento.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.

SACRAMENTO, February 25. — The County Government question will soon be settled. It has been made a special order for Thursday next, and meantime the officials whose salaries are affected will be pulling every string they can lay their hands on to turn the tide their way.

In order to estimate the population of the different counties the committee adopted the plan of multiplying by five the vote given for Governor in the various localities, and this, they claim, has given them much better results than could have been obtained even by a Federal census.

The plan of letting every county arrange its own salary schedule seems to have worked well, for a member from Alameda could not be expected to be cognizant of the needs of Inyo, and vice versa. There will, of course, be a general overhauling in order to see that no advantage has been taken of this latitude by any particular section, but it is not anticipated that anything unfair will have been attempted.

The vital importance of county government issues makes the bill one that demands the most exacting attention, for there is no telling where a joker may have been run in, in the most innocent manner possible. Delegations representing some of the interests affected are on the scene and there will be some tall skirmishing between now and the time when the battle royal takes place.

NO MORE ORATIONS.

The approaching termination of the session and the vast amount of work that is confronting the members has led to the adoption of a five minutes' speech rule. Something of this sort was necessary, for, altogether, 1887 bills have been introduced, 1012 of which are in the Assembly. A number were withdrawn today, the majority of those called back being duplicates, though, occasionally, a jocular measure figured, as, for instance, when Assemblyman North asked for the return of his bill prohibiting football.

The last few moments, devoted to the introduction of bills, were fraught with much interest, for it seemed as if some of the most noteworthy had been kept until the last moment. For example, Senator Earl presented one declaring a host of waterways public highways. Among them are Alviso slough, San Antonio creek to the old embarcadero of San Antonio, north branch of Alameda creek to Eden Landing, Channel street east of Harrison and Mission creek.

Senator Graves has taken the bull by the horns as regards election contests of high degree. His proposition is to permit recounting, etc., for State officers, and in view of the locality of the Capitol the sole jurisdiction is to be vested in the Superior Court of Sacramento.

NO PULLMAN PRIVILEGES.

If by any chance Senator Linder's latest venture becomes a law, there will be a stir in railroad circles, for it declares that a person in possession of a transportation ticket is entitled to ride in any coach on the train. This sounds like a good by to Marquis Pullman's valuable privileges.

Another bill clamoring for attention is by Senator Toner and permits six round contests with five ounce gloves. This has been framed in behalf of the athletic clubs, where it is desired to encourage scientific boxing and to put new blood into the listless individuals who have been moping around since prize fighting went out of fashion.

Senator Hart is making the dust fly in several directions and he is more aggressive than ever in a measure against specialists and quacks. It declares that all persons advertising that they can cure the morphine or liquor habit must place on file with the Secretary of State a prescription giving the formula of the drugs they advertise.

PURE BUTTER AND CHEESE.

It looks now as if Senator Frank McGowan's Pure Butter bill will become a law, for it is going unchecked through both houses. As the measure is one of the highest importance to dairymen its principal provision is given, as follows:

That for the purpose of this act every article, substance or compound, other than that produced from pure milk or cream from the same, made in the semblance of butter, and designed to be used as a substitute for butter made from pure milk or cream from the same, is hereby declared to be imitation butter; and that for the purposes of this act every article, substance or compound, other than that produced from pure milk or cream from the same, made in the semblance of cheese, and designed to be used as substitute for cheese made from pure milk or cream from the same, is hereby declared to be imitation cheese, provided that the use of salt, runnet and harmless coloring matter, for coloring the product of pure milk or cream, shall not be construed to render such product an imitation; and provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the use of pure skimmed milk in the manufacture of cheese.

The bill further forbids all owners of hotels or restaurants to keep doctored compounds without declaring them such, and winds up with an appropriation of $12,000 with which to carry out the provisions of the act. Assemblyman Hart North fought the appropriation part of the bill when it came before the Assembly, but his efforts were in vain.

AN ECHO OF A DEBATE.

By the way, Mr. North desires to be set right on a matter that is causing him quite a little trouble. In the report of the proceedings of the woman suffragists in the House, it was announced that Mr. North was the only member who voted against it. This was incorrect, and has had the result of bringing down on his head a shower of execrations from his female friends all over the State. As a matter of fact, there was strong opposition, and Mr. North was one of those who voted no. His comments in doing so were as follows:

"My vote has already been cast in favor of a Constitutional amendment covering the subject matter herein. Upon reading the Constitution of California, together with the following judicial decisions, viz: In re Benjamin, 25 N. Y. Sup. 1063; In re Gage, 26 N. Y. Sup. 167; In re Gage, 141 N. Y. Apple; Bourland vs. Hildreths, 26 Cal. 161; Van Valkenburg vs. Brown, 43 Cal. 43, I believe this bill is unconstitutional and vote against it accordingly."

THE LEXOW BILL.

The Lexow Commission fight will soon be history, for although Dr. Dille is here urging the passage of the bill he is receiving no encouragement. And there is no doubt the issue will be sidetracked altogether before the week is out. It will not go through without a struggle, for the Union League will send a delegation here to make one last effort.

The final proposition is to endeavor to have the Commissioners selected as follows: One by the Governor and the other two by the presiding officers of the Legislature. Senator Hart's query as to who would make the appointment in the event of a vacancy occurring on the board is to be met by an amendment that under such circumstances the successor shall be chosen by the Governor, who must, however, make his selection from the party to which the retiring official belonged.

COUNTY DIVISION.

County division is getting in an interesting condition. The lauded men of the State are assembling to fight the Linder General bill, for by its provisions it will be possible to divide their holdings with but little trouble. General Chipman is here in the interests of Tehama, and Major McLaughlin, Billy Hamilton, Milton Green and ex-Senator Jones for Butte, and they are all united in their opposition to the Tulare man's project. Linder says that his sole object is to get those county division fights out of the Legislature, but the opposition insists that he is manipulating in behalf of those who desire to carve up counties to suit themselves. The probabilities now are that none of the county division schemes will pass the present session as none are in a condition to be helped along.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Ed Fitzgerald's scheme for the establishment of free labor bureaus is bearing fruit. Gigantic petitions, indorsing the project are being received by the law-makers, one of the largest being from Berkeley. The proposition is to locate headquarters in San Francisco and to have branches at Oakland and other places of prominence throughout the State.

"Stop-over" Robinson's cause has got a setback. The Corporation Committee of the Assembly has favorably reported the bill which removes the liability for a railroad's refusal to acknowledge hold-over checks. This simply leaves the offense a misdemeanor, with nothing in it for outside parties.

Governor Budd is much better. He was out riding today and was able to attend to official business.

Frank Gould, ex-Speaker of the last Legislature, is here urging an appropriation of $50,000 for a wagon road into the Yosemite.

Professor Hilgard of the State University is on hand to make a fight for the agricultural appropriation and other matters pertaining to the big institute.

T. V. Cator, the Populist leader, is around the Capitol.

Rod Church is taking in the sights.

James Traver of West Oakland is watching the County Government bill.

Charles Wetmore is here fighting the liquor men's bill, and Attorney G. W. Baker of Oakland is for the defense.

Senator Biggy's bill for the payment of the claims of the National Guardsmen for services rendered during the recent strike is now a law, and the boys can come to the front now and get their money.

Lee Fairchild is ill with the grip.

J. G. Edwards and T. C. Coogan are here working on the Insurance bill.

Captain John Hackett is up from Oakland on the Pilot Commissionership business.

NIGHT SESSIONS.

Assemblymen Ready to Do Some Hard Work.

SACRAMENTO, February 26.—From now on, business will be rushed along during the nine legal days of the session remaining.

A resolution was adopted to hold sessions every evening except Sunday.

The General Fee bill reported from the County Government Committee was taken up and amended in a few minor points, and passed to a third reading.

Bills were passed appropriating $10,000 for the support of the Woman's Relief Corps Home at Evergreen, Santa Clara county; also a Deficiency bill of $3000 to pay for the heating and ventilating apparatus in the training department of the Normal school at San Jose.

A concurrent resolution was offered and referred to the Rules Committee that the Senate and Assembly adjourn sine die March 8th.

Cutter of Yuba and Sutter proposed to change the date to March 15th.

THE JORDAN CLAIM.

It Has Again Passed the Senate and May Be Paid.

SACRAMENTO, February 26.—The old claim of Contractor D. Jordan, that has been before every Legislature since 1878, passed the Senate this morning by a vote of 22 to 14.

Langford of San Joaquin opposed the bill, denouncing it as a purely lobby measure, but Ford championed the bill, pointing out that now it has the approval of the State Board of Examiners.

The bill has passed two Legislatures, but failed to become a law, because of a lack of funds to meet the claim.

The claim is for $70,000, and is for work done at Folsom prison.

Where the directions of other baking powders call for two teaspoonfuls you need use but one of Dr. Price's to get best results.

TO SUPPRESS BRIGANDS.

A Proclamation to Be Issued by the Governor General.

MADRID, February 26.—At the conclusion of the special meeting of the Cabinet last night the Minister of War, General Dominguez, announced that the Government authorized the issuing of a proclamation by the Governor General of Cuba to suppress armed bands of brigands in the Provinces of Matanzas and Puerto Principe.

The Ministers denied that any serious disorder occurred or that troops from the Phillipine Islands had been landed at Cuba.

A SUSPECT ARRESTED.

Believed to Have Been One of the Bank Robbers.

CHICAGO, February 26.—A portion of the booty from the looted First National Bank of Griswold, Ia., was recovered here today, and it is supposed that a member of the gang in that robbery and the affray at Council Bluffs yesterday is under arrest.

The suspect is Mark Davis, a Chicago saloon-keeper, who was arrested with about $600 postage stamps, which he got in a valise shipped by the American Express.

OFFICERS RECALLED.

Japanese Leaders Are Needed at Home.

BERLIN, February 26.—The Japanese Minister of War has recalled to Japan all Japanese officers serving in the German army.

The Japanese envoy, Count Aoki, gave a farewell dinner last evening. Among the toasts was "Happy entry into Pekin."

Count Aoki will sail for New York from Bremen today and expects to leave Vancouver, B. C., March 14th.

THE DRAYTON CASE.

The Wife Now Wants a Divorce on the Ground of Desertion.

TRENTON, N. J., February 26.—Mrs. Charlotte Augusta Drayton, whose husband, James Coleman Drayton, is suing her in the courts of this State for a divorce on the ground of adultery, today filed a counter petition asking for a divorce on the ground of desertion.

FINE PARADE.

Rex, King of Carnival, Shows Up at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, February 26.—At noon today Rex, king of carnival, appeared in grand pageant based upon scenes and incidents from Fergus Hume's "Chronicles of Fairyland."

There were twenty magnificent tableaux in the procession.

The weather is delightful and the streets everywhere are packed with spectators.

CAREFUL.

No Mistakes Will Be Made.

Plans of the Terminal Committee.

William R. Davis Discusses the Situation.

San Jose and Oakland Will Not Have a Quarrel.

"We have a good hold on the second hundred thousand dollars," said Attorney W. R. Davis this afternoon, when questioned as to the progress made by the Terminal Committee. "I think," he continued, "we shall be able to show better than that amount by next Saturday night, provided the committee can sustain the effort it has made during the past two days. There are now in the field some fifteen or twenty men, each of whom is fully competent to thoroughly present the project. They are accomplishing a vast amount of work, and with good luck will be in a position to make an excellent report next Saturday evening. Having enlarged the committee, it has become necessary to increase the number of citizens and property owners upon whom the committee shall wait. Today we are gathering an eligible list from the city assessment rolls of property owners, who are to be added to the list already in the hands of the committee.

"We have segregated these lists into two classes. The first consists of those citizens who are known to be favorable to the terminal project, but whose means forbid a very heavy individual subscription. The second class will include property owners, who, by reason of their large interests in Oakland, ought to come to the front with large subscriptions.

"It is a difficult matter to canvass the city, for many of those upon whom the committee desires to wait are San Francisco business men, who are only to be found here after business hours. Considerable time is thus lost, although there are a dozen and a half energetic men canvassing on their trail. A very satisfactory showing can now be made in the number of men who are ready to subscribe but are only waiting to determine the amount they will obligate themselves to pay. The number, I am satisfied, will reach fifty, if not more."

A fair estimate of the situation as explained today by members of the committee is contained in the opening lines of Mr. Davis' statement. The committee considers this to be a conservative estimate of the results which will be accomplished ere the week is concluded. The new members of the committee have taken hold of their duties with a will. They are public-spirited citizens who realize the immense importance of the work in hand. With the views they hold, it is their aim to fully impress all with whom they come in contact with the great opportunity contained in the project.

Not a possible point is being overlooked by the committee. While the important work just now is to secure as favorable a showing as possible to lay before the directors of the Valley Road, there are many other matters which are under discussion. As the work of gathering subscriptions draws to a close, the committee will begin to formulate its plan of action when appearing with Oakland's claims before the railroad directors. In this connection there will have to be taken into consideration the opposing claims of other localities which are making a struggle for recognition by the road. The nearest rival to Oakland is San Jose. The Garden City has its representative citizens hard at work. One of them was in Oakland today, and favored several members of the local committee with a talk upon the situation with reference to the two cities. The matter has been placed in a very pleasant light as a result of the visit.

There is no reason why the claims of the two cities should clash before the railroad directors. The interests of each can be combined in such a way that no rivalry or opposition to each other's plans need result.

"I am informed through conversation with a prominent member of the San Jose committee," said Mr. Davis this morning, "that the people there have no desire to clash in any way with Oakland. In fact, they would much desire to work in harmony with us. I am told that all San Jose wants is to get a connection with the new road in good faith and in a practicable manner. The question whether it shall be on the main line or have branch connections is a minor consideration, so long as San Jose secures the service of a competing road. There is no desire to conflict with Oakland and our natural claims to the terminus. It must be remembered that the road, should it locate elsewhere, cannot have a chance to secure a very large share of the ferry traffic between here and San Francisco, which amounts to 13,000,000 passengers annually. The feeling between the people of San Jose and Oakland in this matter should be, as it is, entirely friendly. That this is important to know may be understood when it is considered that the directors will soon have to take up the matter of route for their road. Each city that is striving to gain recognition at their hands will have its subscriptions to the stock backed up by the best arguments its representatives can produce. Now, if San Jose and Oakland can go before the directors with their claims not at variance, but on one issue pooled to benefit both, the work will be much less difficult."

With such a mutual understanding there will be no attempt made by either committee to offset or underestimate the arguments of each. There will be a reciprocal benefit to attach to both whereby each may gain its desired end without injuring the other. To this end will be directed a careful consideration by the local committee of the conditions that obtain in each case. That there need be no clash before the directors is apparent, if the situation has been correctly summed up by those who are in closest touch with the sentiment of the people who are most deeply interested in the movement.

The committee will hold a meeting tonight for the purpose of surveying the field and ascertaining what progress has been made. There is every reason to believe that the responsive chord has been touched so strongly in many of Oakland's citizens that its vibrations will send a thrill of financial answer through the city that will insure success to the effort to secure the terminal of the valley road.

The San Francisco Morning Call devotes a page of today's issue to a discussion of Oakland's claims to the terminus. It places this city in a most favorable light and gives an able and complete survey of the situation. The work will undoubtedly carry weight with those who are to determine the selection of the route of the valley road.

Mark the difference between Dr. Price's and the other baking powders. It does not only immeasurably better work but does it at half the cost.

NO WATER.

A Portion of the Town of Dalton Destroyed by Fire.

DALTON, Ohio, February 26. — Fire broke out this morning in the Schultz Wagon Plant, and spread to the Presbyterian Church and adjoining buildings. No water is to be had nearer than three-quarters of a mile.

The west end of the town apparently will be destroyed.

Fire companies from Massillon and Wooster are coming by special trains.

NOT A FAIR DEAL.

L. W. Rodgers Says He Did Not Defy the Courts.

ST. LOUIS, February 26.—Vice President L. W. Rodgers of the American Railway Union, who addressed the Trades Assembly Sunday, says:

"The published account of what was said at Walhalla Hall did me an injustice in alleging that I declared myself a revolutionist and defied the courts. I am before the courts now under indictment, and I would not prejudice my cause by such a rash remark.

"Further than this, I am not and never was a revolutionist. The words of Mr. Phelan were mistaken for mine."

ALL RESCUED.

Five Hundred Miners Imprisoned by a Collision.

LONDON, February 26.—A dispatch from Normanton says the 500 miners who were imprisoned in a pit of the Whitewood Haimor Colliery by a collision of cages were rescued during the night.

ARMENIANS ARRESTED.

Charges Made Against Them by Turks.

VIENNA, February 26.—A dispatch from Constantinople says, in consequence of charges preferred by Turks, twenty-five young Armenians were arrested and twenty-one imprisoned.

The arrests produced a painful impression, which may lead to further disturbances.

A COMMISSION.

It Is Favored by the Senate Finance Committee.

How the Delegates Shall Be Chosen.

Provisions Made in the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—The Senate Finance Committee today ordered a favorable report on the amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill to provide for the appointment of a commission of nine on behalf of the United States to attend the international conference on the rehabilitation of silver in case one be decided upon.

At Voorhees' request the Senate referred it at once to the Appropriation Committee to be acted on as a part of the Sundry Civil bill.

The committee struck out the provision specifying the countries upon whose invitation the President shall determine this country to be represented, and it now simply provides he shall act with such conference if called.

The provision regarding the appointment of commissioners on behalf of the United States is made to read as follows: "The United States shall be represented at such conference by nine delegates to be selected as follows: The President of the United States shall select three of said delegates; the Senate shall select three members of the Senate as delegates, and the House of Representatives shall select three members as delegates. If at any time there be any vacancy, such vacancy shall be filled by the President of the United States."

ARBITRATION BILL.

It Passed the House Without a Division.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—Henderson of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads, called up the conference report on the Postoffice Appropriation bill when the House met at 11 o'clock today, but as it was evident there would be some debate, he withdrew the report in order to give Catchings an opportunity to present the special order giving the day until 5 p. m. to the Committee on Labor, and tomorrow to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

The order was adopted without division, and Morgan called up the National Arbitration bill.

Grisham of Pennsylvania explained the bill, which, he said, was favored by railroads and by representatives of labor.

The National Arbitration bill passed the House without division.

During the discussion of the Arbitration bill, Fithian (Dem.) of Illinois declared the President's action in sending troops to Chicago last summer was unconstitutional.

"I predict," said he, "the name of Altgeld will live in history as one who in a great crisis stood for lawful constitutional government."

TRIED TO KILL.

A Fierce Sword Contest Between Italian Leaders.

SPOKANE, Wash., February 26.—A fierce sword contest took place here last night between Charles A. Scapelli and John D. Moore, rival leaders of two Italian factions of the city.

The contest was for $200 a side.

The men are far from being friendly and they fought as if they meant to kill.

The former soon disarmed Moore and was awarded the contest.

Moore took his defeat with bad grace, and by his taunts and those of his friends in the audience he succeeded in enraging Scapelli to the point that they again crossed swords to fight to a finish.

The two rival factions cheered their leaders and shouted to them to fight to kill, and they undoubtedly were trying to kill each other when the police, who were hastily summoned, appeared on the scene and stopped the fight.

OLD SOLDIERS.

The Encampment in Kansas Will Begin Tomorrow.

LAWRENCE, Kan., February 26.—The Fourteenth Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Kansas will begin here tomorrow.

Several hundred delegates have already arrived and the prospects are for the biggest attendance in the history of the organization in the State.

National Commander Lawler, Adjutant General C. C. Jones and National Chaplain Haggerty will arrive tomorrow.

The encampment will last until Friday.

A Human Target.

CHICAGO, February 26. — William Haderlee, the "human target," who was shot in the abdomen by Professor Alfred Rieckhoff Sunday night during a rifle-shooting exhibition, died at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital. Rieckhoff is still held at the Larrabee station pending the result of the Coroner's inquest, which will be held this morning.

Damage by Fire.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., February 26.—A fire did $50,000 damage in the City Hall, today. Keeper Dunn and family on the top floor of the building had a narrow escape.

IN SHAPE.

Now the Fight Will Wage.

County Officials on the Warpath.

Lively Times Are Ahead for the Lawmakers.

The Final Grand Rush of New Bills at Sacramento.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.

SACRAMENTO, February 25. — The County Government question will soon be settled. It has been made a special order for Thursday next, and meantime the officials whose salaries are affected will be pulling every string they can lay their hands on to turn the tide their way.

In order to estimate the population of the different counties the committee adopted the plan of multiplying by five the vote given for Governor in the various localities, and this, they claim has given them much better results than could have been obtained even by a Federal census.

The plan of letting every county arrange its own salary schedule seems to have worked well, for a member from Alameda could not be expected to be cognizant of the needs of Inyo, and vice versa. There will, of course, be a general overhauling in order to see that no advantage has been taken of this latitude by any particular section, but it is not anticipated that anything unfair will have been attempted.

The vital importance of county government issues makes the bill one that demands the most exacting attention, for there is no telling where a joker may have been run in, in the most innocent manner possible. Delegations representing some of the interests affected are on the scene and there will be some tall skirmishing between now and the time when the battle royal takes place.

NO MORE ORATIONS.

The approaching termination of the session and the vast amount of work that is confronting the members has led to the adoption of a five minutes' speech rule. Something of this sort was necessary, for, altogether, 1337 bills have been introduced, 1012 of which are in the Assembly. A number were withdrawn today, the majority of those called back being duplicates, though, occasionally, a jocular measure figured, as, for instance, when Assemblyman North asked for the return of his bill prohibiting football.

The last few moments, devoted to the introduction of bills, were fraught with much interest, for it seemed as if some of the most noteworthy had been kept until the last moment. For example, Senator Earl presented one declaring a host of waterways public highways. Among them are Alviso slough, San Antonio creek to the old embarcadero of San Antonio, north branch of Alameda creek to Eden Landing, Channel street east of Harrison and Mission creek.

Senator Graves has taken the bull by the horns as regards election contests of high degree. His proposition is to permit recounting, etc., for State officers, and in view of the locality of the Capitol the sole jurisdiction is to be vested in the Superior Court of Sacramento.

NO PULLMAN PRIVILEGES.

If by any chance Senator Linder's latest venture becomes a law, there will be a stir in railroad circles, for it declares that a person in possession of a transportation ticket is entitled to ride in any coach on the train. This sounds like a good by to Marquis Pullman's valuable privileges.

Another bill clamoring for attention is by Senator Toner and permits six round contests with five ounce gloves. This has been framed in behalf of the athletic clubs, where it is desired to encourage scientific boxing and to put new blood into the listless individuals who have been moping around since prize fighting went out of fashion.

Senator Hart is making the dust fly in several directions and he is more aggressive than ever in a measure against specialists and quacks. It declares that all persons advertising that they can cure the morphine or liquor habit must place on file with the Secretary of State a prescription giving the formula of the drugs they advertise.

PURE BUTTER AND CHEESE.

It looks now as if Senator Frank McGowan's Pure Butter bill will become a law, for it is going unchecked through both houses. As the measure is one of the highest importance to dairymen its principal provision is given, as follows:

That for the purpose of this act every article, substance or compound, other than that produced from pure milk or cream from the same, made in the semblance of butter, and designed to be used as a substitute for butter made from pure milk or cream from the same, is hereby declared to be imitation butter; and that for the purposes of this act every article, substance or compound, other than that produced from pure milk or cream from the same, made in the semblance of cheese, and designed to be used as substitute for cheese made from pure milk or cream from the same, is hereby declared to be imitation cheese, provided that the use of salt, rennet and harmless coloring matter for coloring the product of pure milk or cream, shall not be construed to render such product an imitation; and provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the use of pure skimmed milk in the manufacture of cheese.

The bill further forbids all owners of hotels or restaurants to keep doctored compounds without declaring them such, and winds up with an appropriation of $12,000 with which to carry out the provisions of the act. Assemblyman Hart North fought the appropriation part of the bill when it came before the Assembly, but his efforts were in vain.

AN ECHO OF A DEBATE.

By the way, Mr. North desires to be set right on a matter that is causing him quite a little trouble. In the report of the proceedings of the woman suffragists in the House, it was announced that Mr. North was the only member who voted against it. This was incorrect, and has had the result of bringing down on his head a shower of execrations from his female friends all over the State. As a matter of fact, there was strong opposition, and Mr. North was one of those who voted no. His comments in doing so were as follows:

"My vote has already been cast in favor of a Constitutional amendment covering the subject matter herein. Upon reading the Constitution of California, together with the following judicial decisions, viz: In re Benjamin, 25 N. Y. Sup. 1053; In re Gage, 26 N. Y. Sup. 167; In re Gage, 141 N. Y. Appls.; Loarland vs. Andreths, 26 Cal. 161; Van Valkenburg vs. Brown, 43 Cal. 43, I believe this bill is unconstitutional and vote against it accordingly."

THE LEXOW BILL.

The Lexow Commission fight will soon be history, for although Dr. Dills is here urging the passage of the bill he is receiving no encouragement. And there is no doubt the issue will be sidetracked altogether before the week is out. It will not go through without a struggle, for the Union League will send a delegation here to make one last effort.

The final proposition is to endeavor to have the Commissioners selected as follows: One by the Governor and the other two by the presiding officers of the Legislature. Senator Hart's query as to who would make the appointment in the event of a vacancy occurring on the board is to be met by an amendment that under such circumstances the successor shall be chosen by the Governor, who must, however, make his selection from the party to which the retiring official belonged.

As the work of gathering subscriptions draws to a close, the committee will begin to formulate its plan of action when appearing with Oakland's claims before the railroad directors. In this connection there will have to be taken into consideration the opposing claims of other localities which are making a struggle for recognition by the road. The nearest rival to Oakland is San Jose. The Garden City has its representative citizens hard at work. One of them was in Oakland today, and favored several members of the local committee with a talk upon the situation with reference to the two cities. The matter has been placed in a very pleasant light as a result of the visit.

There is no reason why the claims of the two cities should clash before the railroad directors. The interests of each can be combined in such a way that no rivalry or opposition to each other's plans need result.

"I am informed through conversation with a prominent member of the San Jose committee," said Mr. Davis this morning, "that the people there have no desire to clash in any way with Oakland. In fact, they would much desire to work in harmony with us. I am told that all San Jose wants is to get a connection with the new road in good faith and in a practicable manner. The question whether it shall be on the main line or have branch connections is a minor consideration, so long as San Jose secures the service of a competing road. There is no desire to conflict with Oakland and our natural claims to the terminus. It must be remembered that the road, should it locate elsewhere, cannot have a chance to secure a very large share of the ferry traffic between here and San Francisco, which amounts to 13,000,000 passengers annually. The feeling between the people of San Jose and Oakland in this matter should be, as it is, entirely friendly. That this is important to know may be understood when it is considered that the directors will soon have to take up the matter of route for their road. Each city that is striving to gain recognition at their hands will have its subscriptions to the stock backed up by the best arguments its representatives can produce. Now, if San Jose and Oakland can go before the directors with their claims not at variance, but on one issue pooled to benefit both, the work will be much less difficult."

With such a mutual understanding there will be no attempt made by either committee to offset or underestimate the arguments of each. There will be a reciprocal benefit to attach to both whereby each may gain its desired end without injuring the other. To this end will be directed a careful consideration by the local committee of the conditions that obtain in each case. That there need be no clash before the directors is apparent, if the situation has been correctly summed up by those who are in closest touch with the sentiment of the people who are most deeply interested in the movement.

The committee will hold a meeting tonight for the purpose of surveying the field and ascertaining what progress has been made. There is every reason to believe that the responsive chord has been touched so strongly in many of Oakland's citizens that its vibrations will send a thrill of financial answer through the city that will insure success to the effort to secure the terminal of the valley road.

The San Francisco Morning Call devotes a page of today's issue to a discussion of Oakland's claims to the terminus. It places this city in a most favorable light and gives a reliable and complete survey of the situation. The work will undoubtedly carry weight with those who are to determine the selection of the route of the valley road.

Mark the difference between Dr. Price's and the other baking powders. It does not only immeasurably better work but does it at half the cost.

NO WATER.

A Portion of the Town of Dalton Destroyed by Fire.

DALTON, Ohio, February 26. — Fire broke out this morning in the Schultz Wagon Plant, and spread to the Presbyterian Church and adjoining buildings. No water is to be had nearer than three-quarters of a mile.

The west end of the town apparently will be destroyed.

Fire companies from Massillon and Wooster are coming by special trains.

NOT A FAIR DEAL.

L. W. Rodgers Says He Did Not Defy the Courts.

ST. LOUIS, February 26.—Vice President L. W. Rodgers of the American Railway Union, who addressed the Trades Assembly Sunday, says:

"The published account of what was said at Wainwright Hall did me an injustice in alleging that I declared myself a revolutionist and defied the courts. I am before the courts now under indictment, and I would not prejudice my cause by such a rash remark.

"Further than this, I am not and never was a revolutionist. The words of Mr. Phelan were mistaken for mine."

ALL RESCUED.

Five Hundred Miners Imprisoned by a Collision.

LONDON, February 26.—A dispatch from Normanton says the 500 miners who were imprisoned in a pit of the Whitewood Haimor Colliery by a collision of cages were rescued during the night.

ARMENIANS ARRESTED.

Charges Made Against Them by Turks.

VIENNA, February 26.—A dispatch from Constantinople says, in consequence of charges preferred by Turks, twenty-five young Armenians were arrested and twenty-one imprisoned.

The arrests produced a painful impression, which may lead to further disturbances.

A COMMISSION.

It Is Favored by the Senate Finance Committee.

How the Delegates Shall Be Chosen.

Provisions Made in the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—The Senate Finance Committee today ordered a favorable report on the amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill to provide for the appointment of a commission of nine on behalf of the United States to attend the international conference on the rehabilitation of silver in case one be decided upon.

At Voorhees' request the Senate referred it at once to the Appropriation Committee to be acted on as a part of the Sundry Civil bill.

The committee struck out the provision specifying the countries upon whose invitation the President shall determine this country to be represented, and it now simply provides he shall act with such conference if called.

The provision regarding the appointment of commissioners on behalf of the United States is made to read as follows: "The United States shall be represented at such conference by nine delegates to be selected as follows: The President of the United States shall select three of said delegates; the Senate shall select three members of the Senate as delegates, and the House of Representatives shall select three members as delegates. If at any time there be any vacancy, such vacancy shall be filled by the President of the United States."

ARBITRATION BILL.

It Passed the House Without a Division.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—Henderson of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads, called up the conference report on the Postoffice Appropriation bill when the House met at 11 o'clock today, but as it was evident there would be some debate, he withdrew the report in order to give Catchings an opportunity to present the special order giving the day until 5 p. m. to the Committee on Labor, and tomorrow to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

The order was adopted without division, and McCrary called up the National Arbitration bill.

Erdman of Pennsylvania explained the bill, which, he said, was favored by railroads and by representatives of labor.

The National Arbitration bill passed the House without division.

During the discussion of the Arbitration bill, Fithian (Dem.) of Illinois declared the President's action in sending troops to Chicago last summer was unconstitutional.

"I predict," said he, "the name of Altgeld will live in history as one who in a great crisis stood for lawful constitutional Government."

Remember that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder gives better results with one spoonful than any other powder does with two.

TRIED TO KILL.

A Fierce Sword Contest Between Italian Leaders.

SPOKANE, Wash., February 26.—A fierce sword contest took place here last night between Charles A. Scapelli and John D. Moore, rival leaders of two Italian factions of the city.

The contest was for $200 a side.

The men are far from being friendly and they fought as if they meant to kill.

The former soon disarmed Moore and was awarded the contest.

Moore took his defeat with bad grace, and by his taunts and those of his friends in the audience he succeeded in enraging Scapelli to the point that they again crossed swords to fight to a finish.

The two rival factions cheered their leaders and shouted to them to fight to kill, and they undoubtedly were trying to kill each other when the police, who were hastily summoned, appeared on the scene and stopped the fight.

OLD SOLDIER.

The Encampment in Kansas Will Begin Tomorrow.

LAWRENCE, Kan., February 26.—The Fourteenth Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Kansas will begin here tomorrow.

Several hundred delegates have already arrived and the prospects are for the biggest attendance in the history of the organization in the State.

National Commander Lawler, Adjutant General C. C. Jones and National Chaplain Haggerty will arrive tomorrow.

The encampment will last until Friday.

A Human Target.

CHICAGO, February 26. — William Haderlee, the "human target," who was shot in the abdomen by Professor Alfred Rieckhoff Sunday night during a rifle-shooting exhibition, died at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital. Rieckhoff is still held at the Larrabee station pending the result of the Coroner's inquest, which will be held this morning.

Damage by Fire.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., February 26.—A fire did $50,000 damage in the City Hall, today. Keeper Dunn and family on the top floor of the building had a narrow escape.

Passed a Sleepless Night.

LONDON, February 26.—Lord Rosebery passed a sleepless night and there is increase of weakness.

THE U. S. Government officially reports ROYAL Baking Powder superior to all others in leavening strength. (Bulletin 13, Ag'l Dep't, p. 599.)

NO REPLY.

Senator Gorman Had Nothing to Say.

Broken Down Politicians as Inspectors.

A Lively Debate Over a Reduction of an Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, February 26. — The Sundry Civil bill was taken up in the Senate today.

Berry spoke against the proposed committee amendment reducing appropriation for protecting timber lands from $90,000 to $60,000, and moved to increase it to $120,000.

Gorman opposed the increase.

"The so-called timber inspectors," said Wolcott, contemptuously, "are a lot of broken-down politicians, who will trample over each other as soon as this appropriation is adopted."

The Senator declared that when these men were not engaged in blackmailing railroads out of passes they were dragging some poor prospector to the Federal Courts.

Gorman resented the suggestive remark of Berry made as to the increase of many officers, but the decrease in this particular case.

Gorman declared he knew no party, no Administration, in his action on these appropriations.

"It is the first time," said Berry, excitedly, "I ever heard of the Senator from Maryland (Gorman), as a civil service reformer. If the Senator meant to infer he (Berry) was getting the appropriation in order to put political favorites in place, he was stating what was not true.

"It has been repeatedly charged that the Senator from Maryland (Gorman) has filled out one of the great branches of the Government with his appointees."

Gorman, apparently unruffled, made no reply.

Stewart further denounced the timber agents as a curse to the West.

LINE OF STEAMERS.

They May Run From New Orleans to Port of Tampico.

MONTEREY, Mex., February 26.—J. A. Robertson, general manager of the Monterey and Mexican Gulf Railroad, is negotiating with the Illinois Central Railroad Company for the establishment of a through line of steamers between New Orleans and the port of Tampico.

It is stated that arrangements for the operation of the new service have been completed.

It will place Northern Mexico in close water connection with the Central and Southeastern States of the United States and will be of great benefit to this city and surrounding country.

Just the thing for autumn and winter mornings, delicious griddle cakes prepared with Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

A TAX CASE.

Waiting for a Decision From the United States Court.

A stipulation has been filed, according to which it has been agreed that no further action shall be taken in the suit of the County of Alameda vs. the Central Pacific Railroad Company and the Southern Pacific Company, until the final decision of the Supreme Court of the United States on a writ of error from the decision of the California Supreme Court in certain points concerning the suit. The case was originally brought in 1891 to recover taxes, when the defendant filed a demurrer and the matter has been in the courts ever since.

DISEASED COWS.

Dr. Pierce Hunting for Them Over the Line.

Word was brought to Dr. Pierce, City Veterinarian, this morning, that in one of the largest dairies, over the Contra Costa county line, which furnish milk in this city, there is a number of diseased cows. The doctor will visit the dairies in question this afternoon.

HE NEARLY ESCAPED.

Constables Have a Contest Over a Prisoner.

C. A. Dolan is in the County Jail awaiting the arrival of the Stockton train on which he will be taken to the Slough city, where he is wanted for embezzlement. Dolan was released from San Quentin prison last night after serving a year for grand larceny committed in this county. Two constables had a battle over the prisoner at the gates of San Quentin and Dolan nearly escaped.

BIG STAKES.

Harry Hayward Lost $7600 at One Time.

He Admits That He Was a Free Gambler.

The Prosecution Will Try to Show That He Killed.

MINNEAPOLIS, February 26.—When the trial of the Hayward murder case was resumed today, it was announced that County Attorney Nye could not be present, owing to the funeral in the family. Assistant County Attorney A. H. Hall conducted the cross examination of Harry Hayward.

Harry's connection with the loan to Miss Ging made on the flour mill at Hamel and the collection of the loss when it suddenly burned down was thoroughly ventilated.

Harry was asked whether he did not drive out to Hamel with Miss Ging the morning after the fire.

This he denied utterly.

The State proposes to show on rebuttal that Harry is not telling the truth.

Harry described how he turned a lot given him by his father into cash.

The proceeds had been nearly $10,000, and this he partially lost at gambling, while the rest he had given to Adry in a sealed envelope and it was put in the safe.

He declared that the largest sum of money he ever lost at one time was $5700, at the Twin City Athletic Club.

LOST THEIR STARS.

Specials Who Aided Preachers in Their Investigations.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 26.—The numerous special policemen who have been on duty at the several big hotels have had their stars taken from them by the Board of Police Commissioners.

It is charged by those men who have lost their badges of authority that the preachers and other members of the Civic Federation, who have been investigating police corruption, have been shadowed by detectives of the Police Department, and that detectives have discovered that certain of the hotel special policemen have been secretly aiding the preachers in their investigation in the tenderloin district.

THE RAILROAD BILL.

What the Minority Report Says Concerning It.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—The minority report in the House on the Pacific Railroad bill says: "We call attention to the following fatal defects in the bill: While ostensibly providing for the payment of the principal of the subsidy bonds, amounting to $64,623,512, it really gives the debtor companies simply the option, which they may or may not accept. Should the provisions of the bill be accepted by the debtor companies it will result in a transfer of the lien the Government holds as to the principal of the debt to parties whose interest will be entirely antagonistic to that of the Government."

The Sugar Bounty.

WASHINGTON, February 26 — The amendment for the payment of the sugar bounty was declared in order to lay it on the table. The Senate on a yea and nay vote of 40 to 16, which practically carries it.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Miss Bessie Wall and Miss Sophie Newland in Concert.

One of the most interesting events of next week will be the piano and song recital given by the well-known pianist and singer, Miss Bessie Wall, and Miss Sophie Newland. It will take place in Hamilton Hall on Tuesday evening, March 5th. An interesting programme has been prepared for the event, and a large number of tickets has been sold. A great deal of interest has been aroused in the event, which promises to be a great social and artistic success.

GERMAN-AMERICANS.

A Mass Meeting to Be Held Tomorrow Night.

The German-American Independent Political Club will hold a mass meeting at Germania Hall tomorrow evening to discuss the political issues as bearing upon the present municipal campaign. An attractive programme of speeches and songs has been arranged. The principal speaker will be Professor A. Putzker of the State University, who will address the audience in English on "True Citizenship."

Speeches in German will be made by Dr. H. Muhr, F. Knecken and J. C. Schultz. The singing section of the Oakland Turn Verein and Riehl's Quartet will furnish the musical portion of the programme.

In all the States the sales of Dr. Price's Baking Powder are increasing. Envious competitors can not check its onward march to victory.

A PAIR OF ARTISTS.

Mr. and Mrs. George Watson's Recent Acquirements.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen Watson need no introduction to the people of this city beyond the fact that they have returned to Oakland after an absence of a couple of years in New York. At all times talented actors and accomplished elocutionists, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, have just added to their artistic merit and thoroughness the result of a course of the latest design in their profession. The calling of the reader and delineator is a progressive one, and this will be made apparent to those who will note the methods of Mr. and Mrs. Watson as compared with those who have not studied under the latest instructors. Mr. Watson is known as a preferred support of Frederick Warde, Fanny Davenport and other leading actors. Mrs. Watson is especially gifted as an instructor in physical culture. Their pupils in both elocution and physical culture will give an exhibition soon.

WITHDREW HIS PLEA.

J. H. Saunders Will Now Stand Trial.

J. H. Saunders this morning pleaded not guilty to two charges of burglary. He plead guilty to one charge, and thought the other would be dismissed, but Judge Greene would not consent to any such proposition. Then he determined to stand trial, and withdrew his plea of guilty. The prisoner is accused of stealing some valuable furniture from the residences of J. M. Williamson and Mary Magner last December. Saunders will be tried before a jury on March 26th and will be defended by ex-Judge Stephen G. Nye.

Senator Gorman Had Nothing to Say.

Broken Down Politicians as Inspectors.

A Lively Debate Over a Reduction of an Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, February 26. -- The Sundry Civil bill was taken up in the Senate today.

Berry spoke against the proposed committee amendment reducing appropriation for protecting timber lands from $80,000 to $60,000, and moved to increase it to $120,000.

Gorman opposed the increase.

"The so-called timber inspectors," said Wolcott, contemptuously, "are a lot of broken-down politicians, who will trample over each other as soon as this appropriation is adopted."

The Senator declared that when these men were not engaged in blackmailing railroads out of passes they were dragging some poor prospector to the Federal Courts.

Gorman resented the suggestive remark of Berry made as to the increase of many officers, but the decrease in this particular case.

Gorman declared he know no party, no Administration, in his action on these appropriations.

"It is the first time," said Berry, excitedly, "I ever heard of the Senator from Maryland (Gorman), as a civil service reformer. If the Senator meant to infer he (Berry) was getting this appropriation in order to put political favorites in place, he was stating what was not true.

"It has been repeatedly charged that the Senator from Maryland (Gorman) has filled out one of the great branches of the Government with his appointees."

Gorman, apparently unruffled, made no reply.

Stewart further denounced the timber agents as a curse to the West.

LINE OF STEAMERS.

They May Run From New Orleans to Port of Tampico.

MONTERREY, Mex., February 26.—J. A. Robertson, general manager of the Monterey and Mexican Gulf Railroad, is negotiating with the Illinois Central Railroad Company for the establishment of a through line of steamers between New Orleans and the port of Tampico.

It is stated that arrangements for the operation of the new service have been completed.

It will place Northern Mexico in close water connection with the Central and Southeastern States of the United States and will be of great benefit to this city and surrounding country.

Just the thing for autumn and winter mornings, delicious griddle cakes prepared with Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

A TAX CASE.

Waiting for a Decision From the United States Court.

A stipulation has been filed, according to which it has been agreed that no further action shall be taken in the suit of the County of Alameda vs. the Central Pacific Railroad Company and the Southern Pacific Company, until the final decision of the Supreme Court of the United States on a writ of error from the decision of the California Supreme Court in certain points concerning the suit. The case was originally brought in 1891 to recover taxes, when the defendant filed a demurrer and the matter has been in the courts ever since.

DISEASED COWS.

Dr. Pierce Hunting for Them Over the Line.

Word was brought to Dr. Pierce, City Veterinarian, this morning, that in one of the largest dairies, over the Contra Costa county line, which furnish milk in this city, there is a number of diseased cows. The doctor will visit the dairies in question this afternoon.

HE NEARLY ESCAPED.

Constables Have a Contest Over a Prisoner.

C. A. Dolan is in the County Jail awaiting the arrival of the Stockton train on which he will be taken to the Slough city, where he is wanted for embezzlement. Dolan was released from San Quentin prison last night after serving a year for grand larceny committed in this county. Two constables had a battle over the prisoner at the gates of San Quentin and Dolan nearly escaped.

BIG STAKES.

Harry Hayward Lost $7500 at One Time.

He Admits That He Was a Free Gambler.

The Prosecution Will Try to Show That He Falsified.

MINNEAPOLIS, February 26.—When the trial of the Hayward murder case was resumed today, it was announced that County Attorney Nye could not be present, owing to the funeral in the family. Assistant County Attorney A. H. Hall conducted the cross examination of Harry Hayward.

Harry's connection with the loan to Miss Ging made on the flour mill at Hamel and the collection of the loss when it suddenly burned down was thoroughly ventilated.

Harry was asked whether he did not drive out to Hamel with Miss Ging the morning after the fire.

This he denied utterly.

The State proposes to show on rebuttal that Harry is not telling the truth.

Harry described how he turned a lot given him by his father into cash.

The proceeds had been nearly $10,000, and this he partially lost at gambling, while the rest he had given to Adry in a sealed envelope and it was put in the safe.

He declared that the largest sum of money he ever lost at one time was $5700, at the Twin City Athletic Club.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Miss Bessie Wall and Miss Sophie Newland in Concert.

One of the most interesting events of next week will be the piano and song recital given by the well-known pianist and singer, Miss Bessie Wall, and Miss Sophie Newland. It will take place in Hamilton Hall on Tuesday evening, March 5th. An interesting programme has been prepared for the event, and a large number of tickets has been sold. A great deal of interest has been aroused in the event, which promises to be a great social and artistic success.

GERMAN-AMERICANS.

A Mass Meeting to Be Held Tomorrow Night.

The German-American Independent Political Club will hold a mass meeting at Germania Hall tomorrow evening to discuss the political issue as bearing upon the present municipal campaign. An attractive programme of speeches and songs has been arranged. The principal speaker will be Professor A. Panzker of the State University, who will address the audience in English on "True Citizenship."

Speeches in German will be made by Dr. H. Muhr, F. Ruckeim and J. C. Schmitz. The singing section of the Oakland Turn Verein and Riehl's Quartet will furnish the musical portion of the programme.

In all the States the sales of Dr. Price's Baking Powder are increasing. Envious competitors cannot check its onward march to victory.

A PAIR OF ARTISTS.

Mr. and Mrs. George Watson's Recent Acquirements.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen Watson need no introduction to the people of this city beyond the fact that they have returned to Oakland after an absence of a couple of years in New York. At all times talented actors and accomplished elocutionists, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, have just added to their artistic merit and thoroughness the result of a course of the latest design in their profession. The calling of the reader and delineator is a progressive one, and this will be made apparent to those who will note the methods of Mr. and Mrs. Watson as compared with those who have not studied under the latest instructors. Mr. Watson is known as a preferred support of Frederick Warde, Fanny Davenport and other leading actors. Mrs. Watson is especially gifted as an instructor in physical culture. Their pupils in both elocution and physical culture will give an exhibition soon.

WITHDREW HIS PLEA.

J. H. Saunders Will Now Stand Trial.

J. H. Saunders this morning pleaded not guilty to two charges of burglary. He plead guilty to one charge, and thought the other would be dismissed, but Judge Greene would not consent to any such proposition. Then he determined to stand trial, and withdrew his plea of guilty. The prisoner is accused of stealing some valuable furniture from the residences of J. M. Williamson and Mary Magner last December. Saunders will be tried before a jury on March 26th and will be defended by ex-Judge Stephen G. Nye.

LOST THEIR STARS.

Specials Who Aided Preachers in Their Investigations.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 26.—The numerous special policemen who have been on duty at the several big hotels have had their stars taken from them by the Board of Police Commissioners.

It is charged by these men who have lost their badges of authority that the preachers and other members of the Civic Federation, who have been investigating police corruption, have been shadowed by detectives of the Police Department, and that detectives have discovered that certain of the hotel special policemen have been secretly aiding the preachers in their investigation in the tenderloin district.

THE RAILROAD BILL.

What the Minority Report Says Concerning It.

WASHINGTON, February 26.—The minority report in the House on the Pacific Railroad bill says: "We call attention to the following fatal defects in the bill: While ostensibly providing for the payment of the principal of the subsidy bonds, amounting to $64,623,512, it really gives the debtor companies simply the option, which they may or may not accept. Should the provisions of the bill be accepted by the debtor companies it will result in a transfer of the lien the Government holds as to the principal of the debt to parties whose interest will be entirely antagonistic to that of the Government."

The Sugar Bounty.

WASHINGTON, February 26. — The amendment for the payment of the sugar bounty was declared in order today in the Senate on a yea and nay vote of 40 to 16, which practically carries it.

FRUITCURA
(TRADE MARK)
A Scientific Discovery by a Woman to Cure Women.
Women of All Ages, Attention!
MME. M. YALE, Queen of Beauty, who has lectured in all of the prominent cities of the world before vast audiences, and has been pronounced by all newspapers to be the most perfect woman in form and feature now living, speaks to the women of the world and confesses to them that the secret of her beauty lies in perfect health—and the secret of her health lies in the use of her own remedies. Among them—Fruitcura—her great and wonderful tonic for curing all female ailments, and building up the system. Fruitcura restores all weak organs to perfect health. It cures the many complaints of women that only women know of. It restores the vitality, makes the eyes bright, the step elastic, and brings the bloom of health to the faded cheek. It renews the nerve tone and makes the flesh firm, hard and velvety. In fact, its use is the royal road to perfect health and beautiful womanhood. It cures their complaints and nervous troubles of any nature and revives the vitality which is lacking in all such cases for women of all ages. A discovery by a woman to cure women. Price, $1 per bottle; 6 for $5. At druggists or by mail.

NOT INSANE.

A Girl Who Simply Had a Bad Temper.

Rosa Park, a girl of 15 years, belonging to Elmhurst, was before Judge Ellsworth and a commission this afternoon charged with insanity. Her singular freaks and sullen ways had led her relatives to suspect that she was insane, but the Commissioners refused to commit her, as the examination proved her malady to consist of a singularly stubborn temper.

BISHOP'S BOND.

The Commissioner's Sureties Approved by the Court.

Ira Bishop this morning filed his bond in the sum of $30,000 as a commissioner to sell the property of the Piedmont Cable Company. Mr. Bishop's sureties are Samuel Bigelow and John R. Spring. The bond was approved by Judge Frick. It is believed that the property will not be sold for at least a month.

TO ANNEX.

The Question That Will Interest Temescal.

It Will Be Decided at Tomorrow's Election.

Arrangements Completed for the Casting of Ballots.

City Clerk Tompkins and Secretary George Kaufman of the Board of Public Works are very busy today arranging for the annexation election to be held tomorrow. The booths are again to be resurrected from the depths of the storehouse under the Fire Department headquarters on Fifteenth street. The ballots are all printed and with the rest of the election paraphernalia will be ready for distribution to the various election officers this evening.

The election is exciting a great deal of interest in Temescal and North Oakland where the benefits of annexation are being as freely discussed as are numerous objections raised by opponents of the proposition.

Both sides so far as the Temescal district is concerned have waged a hot fight and there will be a lively battle fought at the polls in that section tomorrow. The interest lies chiefly in that portion of the community and in the closely adjacent limits of the city. There does not appear to be much interest manifested in the city generally.

The polls will be open from sunrise or 6 a.m. to 5 p.m. Polling places have been established on the same lines as those fixed at the recent charter amendment election. There will be three voting places, fixed at the following locations:

Consumption

is amenable to treatment. Hope, courage, proper exercise, and from the inception of the disease the continual use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites, are absolutely necessary.

Keep up good courage, and with the use of this most nourishing and fattening preparation recovery is certain in the first stages, and may be accomplished even when the lungs are seriously involved. Stop the excessive waste (and nothing will do it like Scott's Emulsion), and you are almost safe.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c and $1.

TO ANNEX.

The Question That Will Interest Temescal.

It Will Be Decided at Tomorrow's Election.

Arrangements Completed for the Casting of Ballots.

City Clerk Tompkins and Secretary George Kaufman of the Board of Public Works are very busy today arranging for the annexation election to be held tomorrow. The booths are a[illegible] to be resurrected from the depths of the storehouse under the Fire Department headquarters on Fifteenth street. The ballots are all printed and, with the remainder of the election paraphernalia, will be ready for distribution to the various election officers this evening.

The election is exciting a great deal of interest in Temescal and North Oakland, where the benefits of annexation are being as freely discussed as are numerous objections raised by opponents of the proposition.

Both sides, so far as the Temescal district is concerned, have waged a hot fight, and there will be a lively battle fought at the polls in that section tomorrow. The interest lies chiefly in that portion of the community, and in the closely adjacent limits of the city. There does not appear to be much interest manifested in the city, generally.

The polls will be open from sunrise, or 6:11 A. M., to 5 P. M. Polling places have been established on the same lines as those fixed at the recent constitutional amendment election. In Temescal there will be three voting places, fixed at the following locations:

PERALTA PRECINCT.

Consumption

is amenable to treatment. Hope, courage, proper exercise, and from the inception of the disease the continual use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites, are absolutely necessary.

Keep up good courage, and with the use of this most nourishing and fattening preparation recovery is certain in the first stages, and may be accomplished even when the lungs are seriously involved. Stop the excessive waste (and nothing will do it like Scott's Emulsion), and you are almost safe.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

PALMISTRY — PROF. A. MYERS, THE celebrated European Palmist, Psychometrist and Phrenologist, who has examined the hands of most of the crowned heads of Europe, has arrived in Oakland and intends to remain here for some time. By Palmistry he reveals accurately the past, present and future of the individual, gives descriptions of every member of your family, the deceased, as well as the living; also the description of the one you have married and the one you will marry; tells country of birth, age and how long you will live, describes perfectly your present circumstances, and no matter how difficult they are, by his advice you will be able to avoid obstacles and need to success. As a Psychometrist he is unequaled. He will locate any ailment or disease more accurately than autopsy would do, and by this gift and power has helped many, who had given up all hope. All who are about to make a change should consult him, as his advice is reliable and beneficial. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed or no pay. Free—Free—Free medical diagnosis from 8 to 10 A. M. TUESDAY.........FEBRUARY 26 1895

CUBA LIBRA is in arms once more against Spanish domination. "The much beloved isle" will break her bonds some day notwithstanding the herculean efforts of the Spanish Government to retain possession. There is an army of 18,000 Spanish regulars stationed there now, but the uprising of the Cubans is said to be general this time, and the danger to Spanish supremacy is serious. All previous insurrections have been sectional and, therefore, less difficult to suppress.

ANOTHER shocking tragedy at a railroad crossing within the city limits directs public attention once more to the imperfect means provided for the protection of life and limb and property at such crossings. The scene of the accident this time was a thoroughfare which has been heretofore regarded as being under the sole jurisdiction of the railroad company, although used by the public as a highway for more than five years, and the city may in a measure disclaim responsibility. But a grave responsibility rests on some one's shoulders for leaving a notoriously dangerous crossing imperfectly provided with proper precautions against just such a dreadful accident as that which occurred there last night.

AT a banquet of lawyers in Edinburgh not long ago a toast was drunk to "the greatest benefactor of the profession—the man who makes his own will." The meaning which this toast was intended to convey was that olographic will making is simply inviting litigation and a defeat of the objects of the testator. As a matter of fact, however, olographic wills are more commonly sustained than any other kind, particularly where the decedent was not a lawyer. The average lawyer who writes out his own will surrounds it with so much complexity that its own purposes are defeated. Even so great a lawyer as Samuel J. Tilden was in his day, he failed to dispose of his property by will in a way that would survive a judicial test. The Scotch barristers' toast needs revision.

Making Marriage a Mockery.

The tendency of the times throughout the country is to make marriage a mockery. While we have established a Gretna Green, as it were, at the bar of every justice's court, and, we might add, in the presence of any one who has ears to hear the acknowledgment made by the man that the woman accompanying him is his wife and the voice of the woman making a corresponding acknowledgment, no matter how vaguely done, we have also been simplifying the method of dissolving the nuptial bonds. Divorce as well as marriage has been made easy. Incompatability of temper, failure to provide, cruelty and desertion are each, in its turn, so broadly interpreted as to cover almost any condition. The judicial interpretation of cruelty has been so finely drawn that it has almost reached the point where a cross look from either party to the divorce might be included in the definition, and a sharp answer is in danger of being accepted any day, as evidence of incompatability of temper. We have not quite reached the iniquitous and dangerous practice of "divorce without publicity," but it is in the power of the court to exclude every one not a party to the trial from the hearing of the case. The lawyer who advertises the procurement of "divorces without publicity" is freely denounced as a "shyster," but the line of secrecy is often so closely drawn that those outside the "pale of the profession" feel justified in sustaining the shyster's method of soliciting a clientage.

While the road to marriage in Great Britain is an easy one, even though the Gretna Green blacksmith on the Scotch border has ceased to ply his lucrative occupation of marrying eloping couples, the dissolution of the bond so easily and lightly made is a difficult process. The man and woman who thus marry in haste have ample leisure afterward to repent before the law furnishes any relief. The difference between us and them is this: With them the marriage bond may be easily made, but with difficulty broken; with us it is easily made and easily broken, too. "Until death shall you separate" was the time-honored formula, but Oakey Hall, when Mayor of New York, conceived it to be more in conformity with the usages of society to make the reading of the marriage declaration "until death or divorce shall you separate," and he thus expressed it at every marriage which he solemnized during his incumbency of the Chief Magistracy. The man of many divorce suits and a numerous train of divorcees to his credit, and the "grass widow" are familiar figures in American society.

But we have not yet reached the limit of laxity in this particular. South Dakota, for instance, has cut down the residence qualification of an applicant for divorce to three months. It was formerly six months. It is a shocking reflection on Dakotan morals to learn that the Legislature changed the time from six months to three in response to a numerously-signed petition from citizens.

Loose and liberal as are the divorce laws in California they require a year's residence to give an applicant "standing in court." Sometimes that is ineffective. A notable case on record was that of Mrs. Langtry, who established a residence in San Francisco and went through the form of declaring her intention to become a citizen to rid herself of the English marriage which bound her to Langtry in order to enable her to marry Gebhardt, the putty-brained New Yorker, who worshiped at her shrine and followed her across continent and sea, like a pet pug to a leading string. But the "Lily's" method of declaring her intention was informal and unlawful, because she made it to the Circuit Court clerk at her residence instead of at his office. Her object was defeated. She was thrown out of court.

The indifference to the marriage obligations which the looseness of marriage and divorce laws engenders is not a healthy sign. It is a return to barbarism. The Indian divorces himself by casting off his squaw at pleasure. The semi-civilized Oriental returns the wife to her parents. We have not quite reached that point, but we are on the highroad toward it when considered in the light of the recent act of the South Dakotan Legislature. Perhaps, the free and easy frontiersmen of that State will petition the next Legislature that meets to cut down the residence qualification in divorce cases to six weeks or six days, and the goal of barbarism will have been reached. That would be making marriage a mockery with a vengeance.

Annexation Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the election to annex Temescal and other territory lying between Oakland and Berkeley will be held. The merits of the proposition on which the electors of this city will vote are well known. So far as Oakland is concerned, to vote for the annexation of the territory seeking the privilege is clearly in the line of the municipal policy since the time when it took in the villages east of the north arm of the estuary and expanded the charter line on the north from Twenty-second street to Thirty-sixth street. It is, therefore, likely enough that the vote in Oakland will be unanimous, or nearly so. The territory seeking admission into the municipal corporation will constitute the real battle ground. If the gentlemen who championed the petition before the Council were sincere and truthful in their representations (and there is no reason to believe otherwise), the measure ought to carry there also. There was a good margin on the safe side to the petition which was circulated in the territory to be annexed favoring annexation and pledged to vote for it. It was thus fortified in advance that the friends of progress and good sanitation approached the Council. It is fair to presume that every one of the signers of that pledge will keep it. In this light, the success of the measure at the polls tomorrow may be regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Republican Ratification.

At the Oakland Theater tonight, the Republicans will open the municipal campaign with a rousing ratification meeting. While the campaign is to be short and promises to be a quiet one, still every Republican should turn out tonight to give the ticket a hearty support.

THE unemployed of Great Britain are appealing to Parliament for a State grant of $25,000,000 to supply their needs during the next six weeks. This indicates a far worse state of affairs there than anything that has prevailed in this country during the most trying period of recent hard times.

Delicate and delicious are all food products into which Dr. Price's Baking Powder enters. The best leavening agent in the world.

Monotonous.

"Day by day," said the man blase,
"We are finishing where we began;
Some embezzler so gay from his home goes away,
And China is whipped by Japan.

"And gold galore goes the ocean o'er,
And senators queer things say,
And ex-Queen Lil is ambitious to spill
New corpuscles, day by day.

"Committees storm and demand reform,
And Congress is blamed for delay.
'We'll soon come out of the hole, no doubt,'
They say to us, day by day.

"And masters and men are at strife again,
And statesmen their ire display.
Mankind is agreed that it's shocking, indeed,
To keep it up day by day.

"Alack-a-day," said the man blase,
"What a pitiful slave am I—
Monotony's curse I'd forsake in a hearse,
If it weren't so common to die!"
—Washington Star.

MIRTHFUL MORSELS.

WEIGHED, BUT NOT WANTING.

"And have you weighed, dear sir,
This matter you've proposed?"
She said, as very gracefully
Within his lap she posed.

"I never had before," said he,
"But now I have good grounds
For reckoning the same to be
—Richmond Dispatch.

A CLEAR SKY.

"Out in Oregon," said a man from that State, "the air is so clear that you can see the peak of Mount Shasta, in California, from the peak of Mount Hood, in Oregon, a distance of 27[illegible] miles." "Here in the East we don't see much further than that." "Oh, come, now." "It's a fact. The moon is 240,000 miles away, but we can see it on a clear night."—Life.

Mrs. Longnecker (of Squantuck Corners)—Whose that driven by I wonder? I declare I believe it's that Pennington girl from the city that's visitin' at the Tarbotts'. Peek through the blinds here, Andrew, and see if 'tain't.

Miss [illegible]—Yes, that's who 'tis. But who's that sappy-lookin' little feller with her? Do you s'pose he's the one that they say's goin' to marry her?

Mrs. Longnecker—Shouldn't wonder. I guess that's her fiance.—Harper's Bazar.

RANDOM NOTES.

A recent industrial innovation in Switzerland is the manufacture of floor mosaics from wood pulp.

It is said that a man in Kokomo, who has been married three times, is supporting all three of his mothers-in-law and that they live harmoniously together.

The world's production of gold in 1894 has broken the record, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The total is placed by the United States Mint Bureau at $175,000,000, a gain of nearly $20,000,000 over the figures of 1893, which surpasses the yield of any previous year. The gain is chiefly in the United States, South Africa, Australia and Russia. The gold mined in this country in 1894 is not far from $45,000,000, including an increase of $1,750,000 in Colorado, $2,000,000 in California, $1,000,000 in Montana and $500,000 in Idaho. Large gains are reported in Oregon and Washington. The gold yield in South Africa was [illegible] from $26,000,000 in 1893 to $38,000,000 in 1894. Australia will yield about $39,000,000 a gain of $5,000,000, and Russia $28,000,000 against $25,000,000 in 1893. China will probably show a falling off as a result of its disturbed condition. For the coming year a gold yield of $200,000,000 is indicated, but no one as yet has raised the cry of over-production.

Probably the highest price ever asked for a new book is the $600 demanded for the vellum edition of the "Chaucer" in folio, with woodcuts by Burne Jones and large ornamental borders by William Morris, issued by the Kelmscott press.

Carthage (Mo.) theater-goers are preparing a bill which they will ask the Legislature to pass making it a misdemeanor for women attending theaters to wear large hats.

A Roman milestone was recently found near Carlisle, on the old Roman road leading to York, on which is cut the name of Carausius, the commander of the channel fleet, who, in Diocletian's time, proclaimed himself Emperor in Britain and held out for eight years against both Romans and Picts. This is the first inscription of Carausius ever found, though his coins are not uncommon.

Of twenty yearling race horses sold for $5000 or over apiece in England in 1893 only three won races last year. The combined cost of the horses was $160,500, while the winnings were only $24,300. In the ten years from 1882 to 1892, 292 yearlings sold at $5000 or over, cost $2,415,000 and won $920,000. Last year twenty-two yearlings brought that sum or more, the highest price being $20,500 paid for the Duchess of Montrose's Roquebrune, a daughter of Saint Simon, by Sainte Marguerite.

At Dudley, Eng., one Town Councillor was fined for assaulting another and knocking out his teeth at a Council meeting held to distribute Christmas gifts.

In 1894 the boats of the Royal National Lifeboat Association were launched 398 times and rescued 625 persons. The society gave rewards, besides, for the saving of 141 lives by shore boats. Thirty-three vessels were saved from total or partial loss.

Some investigations made by a correspondent of the London Times into the much-vaunted Gothenberg system of regulating the liquor traffic appear to throw doubt upon the success of that system. Drunkenness among women has increased just as public drinking has been driven out and home drinking substituted.

BITS OF GOSSIP.

Chauncey Depew is not much concerned over the threat of the Methodist ministers to look askance at him. The row is all over the half-rate pass order issued by the New York Central, shutting off the clergy. Mr. Depew has collected scriptural authority for refusal to give passes, and is paying the ministers in their own coin.

Queen Victoria has not opened Parliament in person for nine years, and her physical disabilities are such that she is never likely to open it again, as she could not ascend the staircases. She is now restricted to functions which do not require any exertion, or to which she can be carried in a Bath chair.

Prince Bismarck has a curious superstition in connection with the number three, and apparently not without reason. He has served three German emperors; he has fought in three wars; he has signed three treaties of peace; he arranged the meeting of the three emperors and established the triple alliance.

Berlin has now its ladies' club, formed under the patronage of Empress Frederick, and named for her The Victoria. It possesses a fine library, a grand piano and comfortably furnished rooms, but no cuisine—meals, however, being supplied from a restaurant next door. Early closing is the rule, lights being turned out at 10 p. m.

Although Henrik Ibsen is the greatest figure in Norwegian literature he has really no Norwegian blood in his veins, his ancestors, remote and near, having been Scotch, Danish and German. Poverty, neglect and adverse criticism, the usual attendants of poets, followed his early career and intensified his naturally pessimistic disposition.

Samuel D. Lane of Northampton, Mass., 85 years of age, is serving his fifty-sixth year as justice of the peace. His term of office has been uninterrupted from its beginning.

The Duchess of Leinster, one of the greatest beauties of the day, is dying of consumption, the seeds of which were planted at the funeral of the duke a year ago, when she took a severe cold. TUESDAY.....FEBRUARY 26 1895

CUBA LIBRE is in arms once more against Spanish domination. "The much beloved isle" will break her bonds some day notwithstanding the herculean efforts of the Spanish Government to retain possession. There is an army of 18,000 Spanish regulars stationed there now, but the uprising of the Cubans is said to be general this time, and the danger to Spanish supremacy is serious. All previous insurrections have been sectional and, therefore, less difficult to suppress.

ANOTHER shocking tragedy at a railroad crossing within the city limits directs public attention once more to the imperfect means provided for the protection of life and limb and property at such crossings. The scene of the accident this time was a thoroughfare which has been heretofore regarded as being under the sole jurisdiction of the railroad company, although used by the public as a highway for more than five years, and the city may in a measure disclaim responsibility. But a grave responsibility rests on some one's shoulders for leaving a notoriously dangerous crossing imperfectly provided with proper precautions against just such a dreadful accident as that which occurred there last night.

AT a banquet of lawyers in Edinburgh not long ago a toast was drunk to "the greatest benefactor of the profession—the man who makes his own will." The meaning which this toast was intended to convey was that olographic will making is simply inviting litigation and a defeat of the objects of the testator. As a matter of fact, however, olographic wills are more commonly sustained than any other kind, particularly where the decedent was not a lawyer. The average lawyer who writes out his own will surrounds it with so much complexity that its own purposes are defeated. Even so great a lawyer as Samuel J. Tilden was in his day, he failed to dispose of his property by will in a way that would survive a judicial test. The Scotch barristers' toast needs revision.

Making Marriage a Mockery.

The tendency of the times throughout the country is to make marriage a mockery. While we have established a Gretna Green, as it were, at the bar of every justice's court, and, we might add, in the presence of any one who has ears to hear the acknowledgment made by the man that the woman accompanying him is his wife and the voice of the woman making a corresponding acknowledgment, no matter how vaguely done, we have also been simplifying the method of dissolving the nuptial bonds. Divorce as well as marriage has been made easy. Incompatability of temper, failure to provide, cruelty and desertion are each, in its turn, so broadly interpreted as to cover almost any condition. The judicial interpretation of cruelty has been so finely drawn that it has almost reached the point where a cross look from either party to the divorce might be included in the definition, and a sharp answer is in danger of being accepted any day, as evidence of incompatability of temper. We have not quite reached the iniquitous and dangerous practice of "divorce without publicity," but it is in the power of the court to exclude every one not a party to the trial from the hearing of the case. The lawyer who advertises the procurement of "divorces without publicity" is freely denounced as a "shyster," but the line of secrecy is often so closely drawn that those outside the "pale of the profession" feel justified in sustaining the shyster's method of soliciting a clientage.

While the road to marriage in Great Britain is an easy one, even though the Gretna Green blacksmith on the Scotch border has ceased to ply his lucrative occupation of marrying eloping couples, the dissolution of the bond so easily and lightly made is a difficult process. The man and woman who thus marry in haste have ample leisure afterward to repent before the law furnishes any relief. The difference between us and them is this: With them the marriage bond may be easily made, but with difficulty broken; with us it is easily made and easily broken, too. "Until death shall you separate" was the time-honored formula, but Oakey Hall, when Mayor of New York, conceived it to be more in conformity with the usages of society to make the reading of the marriage declaration "until death or divorce shall you separate," and he thus expressed it at every marriage which he solemnized during his incumbency of the Chief Magistracy. The man of many divorce suits and a numerous train of divorcees to his credit, and the "grass widow," are familiar figures in American society.

But we have not yet reached the limit of laxity in this particular. South Dakota, for instance, has cut down the residence qualification of an applicant for divorce to three months. It was formerly six months. It is a shocking reflection on Dakotan morals to learn that the Legislature changed the time from six months to three in response to a numerously-signed petition from citizens.

Loose and liberal as are the divorce laws in California they require a year's residence to give an applicant "standing in court." Sometimes that is ineffective. A notable case on record was that of Mrs. Langtry, who established a residence in San Francisco and went through the form of declaring her intention to become a citizen to rid herself of the English marriage which bound her to Langtry in order to enable her to marry Gobhardt, the putty-brained New Yorker, who worshiped at her shrine and followed her across continent and sea, like a pet pug to a leading string. But the "Lily's" method of declaring her intention was informal and unlawful, because she made it to the Circuit Court clerk at her residence instead of at his office. Her object was defeated. She was thrown out of court.

The indifference to the marriage obligations which the looseness of marriage and divorce laws engenders is not a healthy sign. It is a return to barbarism. The Indian divorces himself by casting off his squaw at pleasure. The semi-civilized Oriental returns the wife to her parents. We have not quite reached that point, but we are on the highroad toward it when considered in the light of the recent act of the South Dakotan Legislature. Perhaps, the free and easy frontiersmen of that State will petition the next Legislature that meets to cut down the residence qualification in divorce cases to six weeks or six days, and the goal of barbarism will have been reached. That would be making marriage a mockery with a vengeance.

Annexation Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the election to annex Temescal and other territory lying between Oakland and Berkeley will be held. The merits of the proposition on which the electors of this city will vote are well known. So far as Oakland is concerned, to vote for the annexation of the territory seeking the privilege is clearly in the line of the municipal policy since the time when it took in the villages east of the north arm of the estuary and expanded the charter line on the north from Twenty-second street to Thirty-sixth street. It is, therefore, likely enough that the vote in Oakland will be unanimous, or nearly so. The territory seeking admission into the municipal corporation will constitute the real battle ground. If the gentlemen who championed the petition before the Council were sincere and truthful in their representations (and there is no reason to believe otherwise), the measure ought to carry there also. There was a good margin on the safe side to the petition which was circulated in the territory to be annexed favoring annexation and pledged to vote for it. It was thus fortified in advance that the friends of progress and good sanitation approached the Council. It is fair to presume that every one of the signers of that pledge will keep it. In this light, the success of the measure at the polls tomorrow may be regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Republican Ratification.

At the Oakland Theater tonight, the Republicans will open the municipal campaign with a rousing ratification meeting. While the campaign is to be short and promises to be a quiet one, still every Republican should turn out tonight to give the ticket a hearty support.

THE unemployed of Great Britain are appealing to Parliament for a State grant of $25,000,000 to supply their needs during the next six weeks. This indicates a far worse state of affairs there than anything that has prevailed in this country during the most trying period of recent hard times.

Delicate and delicious are all food products into which Dr. Price's Baking Powder enters. The best leavening agent in the world.

Monotonous.

"Day by day," said the man blase,
"We are dullshing where we began;
Some embezzler so gay from his home goes away,
And China is whipped by Japan.

"And gold galore goes the ocean o'er,
And Senators queer things say,
And ex-Queen Lil is ambitious to spill
New corpuscles, day by day.

"Committees storm and demand reform,
And Congress is blamed for delay,
'We'll soon come out of the hole, no doubt,'
They say to us, day by day.

"And masters and men are at strife again,
And statesmen their fire display,
Mankind is agreed that it's shocking, indeed,
To keep it up day by day.

"Alack-a-day," said the man blase,
"What a pitiful slave am I—
Monotony's curse I'd forsake in a hearse,
If it weren't so common to die!"

MIRTHFUL MORSELS.

WEIGHED, BUT NOT WANTING.

"And have you weighed, dear sir,
This matter you've proposed?"
She said, as very gracefully
Within his lap she posed.

"I never had before," said he,
"But now I have good grounds
For reckoning the same to be
About two hundred pounds."

A CLEAR SKY.

"Out in Oregon," said a man from that State, "the air is so clear that you can see the peak of Mount Shasta, in California, from the peak of Mount Hood, in Oregon, a distance of 270 miles." Here in the East we can see much further than that." "Oh, come, now." "It's a fact. The moon is 240,000 miles away, but we can see it on a clear night."—Life.

IMPORTED HEIRLOOMS.

Little Miss Brickrow—With all your airs, I don't believe your folks have any family heirlooms.

Little Miss D'Avnoo—We haven't any? My momma has a broadpin that my grandmother bought at the Paris exposition and smuggled in herself.—Good News.

PERHAPS SHE'S RIGHT.

Mrs. Longnecker (of Squamtuck Corners)—Whose that driven by, I wonder? I declare I believe it's that Pushington girl from the city that's visitin' at the Tatcotts'. Peek through the blinds here, Almiry, and see if 'tain't.

Miss Almira Forty Smith—Yes, that's who 'tis. But who's that sappy-lookin' little feller with her? Do you s'pose he's the one that they say's goin' to marry her?

Mrs. Longnecker—Shouldn't wonder. I guess that's her fiasco.—Harper's Bazar.

RANDOM NOTES.

A recent industrial innovation in Switzerland is the manufacture of floor mosaics from wood pulp.

It is said that a man in Kokomo, who has been married three times, is supporting all three of his mothers-in-law and that they live harmoniously together.

The world's production of gold in 1894 has broken the record says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The total is placed by the United States Mint Bureau at $175,000,000, a gain of nearly $20,000,000 over the figures of 1893, which surpasses the yield of any previous year. The gain is chiefly in the United States, South Africa, Australia and Russia. The gold mined in this country in 1894 is not far from $45,000,000, including an increase of $4,750,000 in Colorado, $2,000,000 in California, $1,000,000 in Montana and $800,000 in Idaho. Large gains are reported in Oregon and Washington. The gold yield in South Africa has made a bound from $26,000,000 in 1893 to $38,000,000 in 1894. Australia will yield about $39,000,000 a gain of $3,000,000, and Russia $28,000,000 against $20,000,000 in 1893. China will probably show a falling off as a result of its disturbed condition. For the coming year a gold yield of $200,000 is indicated, but no one as yet has raised the cry of over-production.

Colorado refined silver bullion is being shipped by Denver smelters direct to China. It is known that several hundred thousand ounces have been shipped.

Probably the highest price ever asked for a new book is the $600 demanded for the vellum edition of the "Chaucer" in folio, with woodcuts by Burne Jones and large ornamental borders by William Morris, issued by the Kelmscott press.

Carthage (Mo.) theater-goers are preparing a bill which they will ask the Legislature to pass making it a misdemeanor for women attending theaters to wear large hats.

A Roman milestone was recently found near Carlisle, on the old Roman road leading to York, on which is cut the name of Carausius, the commander of the channel fleet, who, in Diocletian's time, proclaimed himself Emperor in Britain and held out for eight years against both Romans and Picts. This is the first inscription of Carausius ever found, though his coins are not uncommon.

Of twenty yearling race horses sold for $5000 or over apiece in England in 1893 only three won races that year. The combined cost of the horses was $160,500, while the winnings were only $24,300. In the ten years from 1832 to 1892, 202 yearlings sold at $5000 or over, cost $2,415,000 and won $929,000. Last year twenty-two yearlings brought that sum or more, the highest price being $20,500 paid for the Duchess of Montrose's Roquebrune, a daughter of Saint Simon, by Galata Marguerite.

At Dudley, Eng., one Town Councilor was fined for assaulting another and knocking out his teeth at a Council meeting held to distribute Christmas gifts.

In 1894 the boats of the Royal National Lifeboat Association were launched 398 times and rescued 625 persons. The society gave rewards, besides, for the saving of 141 lives by shore boats. Thirty-three vessels were saved from total or partial loss.

Some investigations made by a correspondent of the London Times into the much-vaunted Gothenberg system of regulating the liquor traffic appear to throw doubt upon the success of that system. Drunkenness among women has increased just as public drinking has been driven out and home drinking substituted.

BITS OF GOSSIP.

Chauncey Depew is not much concerned over the threat of the Methodist ministers to look askance at him. The row is all over the half-rate pass order issued by the New York Central, shutting off the clergy. Mr. Depew has collected scriptural authority for refusal to give passes, and is paying the ministers in their own coin.

Queen Victoria has not opened Parliament in person for nine years, and her physical disabilities are such that she is never likely to open it again, as she could not ascend the staircases. She is now restricted to functions which do not require any exertion, or to which she can be carried in a Bath chair.

Prince Bismarck has a curious superstition in connection with the number three, and apparently not without reason. He has served three German emperors; he has fought in three wars; he has signed three treaties of peace; he arranged the meeting of the three emperors and established the triple alliance.

Berlin has now its ladies' club, founded under the patronage of Empress Frederick, and named for her The Victoria. It poisesses a fine library, a grand piano and comfortably furnished rooms, but no cuisine—meals, however, being supplied from a restaurant next door. Early closing is the rule, lights being turned out at 10 P. M.

Although Henrik Ibsen is the greatest figure in Norwegian literature he has really no Norwegian blood in his veins, his ancestors, remote and near, having been Scotch, Danish and German. Poverty, neglect and adverse criticism, the usual attendants of poets, followed his early career and intensified his naturally pessimistic disposition.

Samuel D. Lane of Northampton, Mass., 85 years of age, is serving his fifty-sixth year as justice of the peace. His term of office has been uninterrupted from its beginning.

The Duchess of Leinster, one of the greatest beauties of the day, is dying of consumption, the seeds of which were planted at the funeral of the duke a year ago, when she took a severe cold. No collection of photographs of the leading London beauties has been considered complete without the picture of this high-bred young creature, who represented the best type of the English aristocracy.

"Prince Kung," says a Japanese resident of New York, "is indeed a forlorn hope for China. He has been for years almost a wreck from over-indulgence in opium smoking. When the efforts of his enemies resulted in his overthrow some years ago he took to hitting the pipe for comfort and forgetfulness, and I doubt if he retains sufficient will power to handle the great crisis placed in his care."

Washington's father, Augustine, was born in Washington Parish, Va., his grandfather, Lawrence, was born in Virginia, between the Potomac and Rappahannock rivers, and his great-grandfather, John, was born at Sulgrave, Northamptonshire, Eng.

MAY BATTLE.

Troops Are Marching Against the Rebels

A Ransom Offered for Release of a General.

Chief of the Rebel Forces Gets Eight Years in Prison.

NEW YORK, February 26.—A dispatch dated Panama, Columbia, February 25th, says:

"News has been received from Buena Ventura of a battle near Cali, in which the rebels were defeated. Many were killed on both sides. The Government forces captured a large body of prisoners.

"Fourteen hundred Government troops are marching against Cartago, which it is reported was seized by the rebels.

"Reports from Santander are not favorable to the Government. A battle is expected there at any time. General Rafael Reyfes left Calamar last Friday with 1300 men. He will on arriving join forces with General Herrera in Santander.

"General Ronjfla writes from Cali that Eduardo Matfon, chief of the rebel forces in Cauca, has been captured and tried by court martial. He has been sentenced to eight years in prison. He says that it is time for the Government to adopt drastic measures against the enemies of the Government.

"In the official bulletin is printed the announcement that General Roberto Ardenata, formerly general-in-chief of the Panama garrison, has been taken prisoner by the rebel forces. The Government offers a ransom for his release.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

A District Attorney Must Explain His Actions.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 26.—Charges have been preferred against William D. Faintor, District Attorney of Broome county. The deponent of the affidavit in which is contained the charges alleged that the District Attorney refused to allow the Bank Examiner to examine the Chenango Valley Bank, or to appear before the Grand Jury of Broome county and present certain charges against the officers of the bank.

The person who presents the charges is a resident of this city and a newspaper man.

Colonel Cole, Governor Morton's private secretary, took them over to the Attorney General's office, and on his return said that a copy of them would be served on the accused man, and time granted him to file an answer. He would not tell what steps would be taken after that.

The examiner of the bank, who it is said was refused the privilege of appearing before the Grand Jury to present the charges against the bank officials, will also be asked to file a statement. It is asked that a committee be appointed to examine into and pass on the charges, and if the committee finds they are true that District Attorney Painter be removed.

POISONED THE DOGS.

Valuable Canines Lost at a Show in New York.

NEW YORK, February 26.—Office detectives and officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals are actively engaged in an effort to capture the miscreant or miscreants who, on Friday morning last, put poison in the cages of eight little prize dogs at Madison Square Garden.

The dogs belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Sans of this city.

"A subscription of the popular kind was started," said Mr. Sans, "but I ordered it stopped, as it was too much for my pride, and, furthermore, I do not know but that I would be receiving the contribution of the person or persons who killed the dogs. I have been informed that the Westminster Kennel Club will, in due time, reimburse me for my loss.

It is a matter that rests entirely with them. If they fail to do so, it will result in no ill-feeling on my part, nor in my taking any legal action to compel such restitution by them. My sole desire is to see the guilty persons caught and punished."

At the rooms of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals it was said that no arrests had been made yet.

NOT SETTLED YET.

Differences Between Mexico and Guatemala Still Discussed.

CITY OF MEXICO, February 26.—The Secretary of the Treasury has wired instructions to the Custom authorities at Tabachula, Chiapas, for the release of the 200 head of mules which have been delayed at that point for some time by order of the government. The stock belongs to the American contracting firm of Park & Thornton, who are at present engaged in constructing the Guatemalan Northern railroad in Guatemala, where the animals, which were purchased in this country, were urgently needed.

Their entrance into Guatemala at a time when the peace relations were threatened between that country and Mexico, evidently caused the Mexican Government to order them detained until further developments regarding the international dispute were made. The fact that the embargo on the mules had been raised strengthens the impression that the diplomatic conference between Emilio de Leon, Guatemala's Envoy, and Mexico's Secretary of Foreign Affairs, has reached a friendly termination. Secretary Mariscal, however, said that the statement as to the settling of all differences between Mexico and Guatemala is without foundation and premature.

DO NOT AGREE.

Anti-Bond Men Want Amendments Withdrawn.

WASHINGTON, February 26. — The friends of the amendment to the Sundry Civil bill, providing for an issue of $100,000,000 certificates of indebtedness, have about concluded they will be unable to get the bill through as long as the amendment remains a part of it.

The Populist Senators have announced a determination to defeat the bill rather than permit the adoption of this amendment.

The amendment offered by Mills for the repeal of all laws authorizing an issue of bonds will be opposed by those who favor certificates just as stubbornly as the certificate amendment is opposed by the anti-bond men.

As no one desires an extra session, it appears probable that both amendments will be dropped after a few hours' debate.

One half the quantity of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder will go farther and give better results than a like quantity of any other brand.

THEIR LOSS.

Rochester Is in Mourning for Fred Douglass.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., February 26.—Rochester is in mourning today for Fred Douglass.

Just before the funeral train arrived there marched into the trainhouse the funeral cortege, including the Douglass League of Rochester, bearing a league banner draped in mourning.

The Mayor and members of the Common Council and other city officials came in carriages.

The funeral party moved to the City Hall, where the body lay in state several hours.

Handsome floral tributes sent by sympathetic friends from Washington lay on the coffin.

Asks for a Receiver

MILWAUKEE, February 26.—Edward Ferguson is the complainant in a suit for the appointment of a receiver for the Milwaukee Worsted Mills. The complaint charges mismanagement by the officers, which has brought about an unwarranted depreciation in the assets of the company of $80,000.

Not So Much Damage.

PARIS, February 26.—A fire last night in Casino de Paris, did not do so much damage as was first announced. Only the Rue de Clichy end of the building was destroyed.

WILL RATIFY.

Grand Rally of Republicans This Evening.

Eloquent Speeches and Fine Music Outlined.

Oakland Theater to Be the Scene of the Meeting.

The Republicans will hold a grand rally tonight at the Oakland Theater. Preparations for the big mass meeting are now complete. The City Central Committee has done everything in its power to insure a great success for the opening meeting of the campaign. The entire ticket will be ratified.

The local issues will be discussed by a number of excellent speakers, who have volunteered their services. The voting public will also be given a chance to see the candidates and to hear them expound their views on the local questions that affect the interests of the city and her people. Able and eloquent gentlemen have given their time and attention to a careful study of the situation, in order that the issues may be discussed with intelligent understanding.

The fine speeches will be interspersed with a musical programme, whose rendition will enliven the meeting. Fine vocal and instrumental talent will supply these features of the gathering. No pains have been spared to make the meeting a demonstration worthy of its purpose.

Hon. Charles N. Fox has consented to accept the honor as chairman of the evening. Several hundred equally prominent Republicans have been invited to act as vice presidents.

The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock, and short, sharp speeches will be the programme. There will be no tiresome delays nor any long-winded remarks. Each speaker will be timed so that all may be heard. Republicans throughout the city should turn out and participate in the great ratification of a municipal ticket.

The principal speakers of the evening, as announced thus far by Secretary Bishop of the City Central Committee, are the well-known attorneys, Frof S. Stratton and George W. Reed. A number of other prominent Republicans will also be present and will address the meeting. These are mentioned outside of the many candidates who will briefly give their views.

SCHOOL BOARD.

Bids for Lafayette Building Are Rejected.

A Proposition to Settle a Legal Dispute.

The Sixth Ward School Matter Again Under Discussion.

The Board of Education held a regular meeting last night. Director Whitehead was absent owing to illness.

The matter of the sale of the old Lafayette school came up for discussion and on motion of Director Clements the Board of Public Works was instructed to reject all bids for the same and readvertise for new ones. Those received were considered too low.

Professor Meade submitted a report regarding certain heating and ventilation tests performed by him in the old Lafayette school building. The apparatus was accepted and the matter of remunerating Professor Meade for his services was referred to the Finance Committee.

Director Clement discussed the case of the Freyer children and moved that they be excluded from school privileges until the board was satisfied that Mr. Freyer is a bona fide resident of Oakland.

The Superintendent said that Mr. Freyer had been notified to be present at the meeting, but had not put in an appearance. Director Clement's motion prevailed, Messrs. Redington and Mock voting against it.

F. F. Lamoreaux, secretary of the Ramillard Brick Company, appeared before the board in regard to the sixth ward school, and offered to tear down the concrete wall to the ground line and rebuild in brick for the sum of $2500.

Director Mock objected on the ground that it would add that much to the cost of the building, making it $37,500 in place of $35,000.

Director Reed was anxious to have the matter settled as soon as possible, even if they had to pay for it, but would like the Committee on Schoolhouses and Sites to state first whether the demand was fair or not.

It was finally agreed to refer the matter to the committee and Mr. Whitehead to report.

In conclusion the following bills were allowed: W. Morgan & Co., $1132; Carruth & Carruth, $9 50; Enquirer, $5 25; E. Callagher, $3; A. T. Turner, $7; Tyrrel & Campbell, $56 25; Walter Meese, 50 cents; Weber & Co., $4 50; T. W. Webster, $2.

The board then adjourned till Monday, the 18th of March.

That the best is always the most economical is in nothing more clearly demonstrated than in the use of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

ANOTHER FINE.

Fate of a Violator of the Liquor License Law.

F. Pezzola, the saloon keeper, was fined $50 by Judge Wood in the Police Court this morning for selling liquor without a license. He has already been convicted of the same offense by a jury and fined $100. A third charge of a like character still remains to be heard.

TWO SULLIVANS.

Ill Luck Lands Them Both in the Hospital.

This morning Thomas Sullivan was brought to the Receiving Hospital with an injured knee. He is a carpenter, and fell from the roof of a building on Thirteenth and Jefferson streets, where he was putting on shingles.

No sooner had Thomas Sullivan left the place than Jerry Sullivan was brought in with a scalp wound, sustained while handling lumber on the wharf. The latter is a longshore man, and belongs to San Francisco.

NO AFFIDAVITS.

How the Council of 1875 Passed Ordinances.

Important Franchises Not Properly Attested.

Telegraph Avenue Opening Carelessly Certified To.

The discovery made yesterday in the Police Court, before Judge Wood, that the Midnight Saloon-Closing Ordinance is inoperative, because its passage was not properly attested by affidavit, has directed the attention of interested parties to other ordinances passed in the same manner, and by the same Council, some of which ordinances are still supposed to be in effect.

The discovery that nearly all the ordinances of the Council of 1875 were passed without affidavit of publication or posting, has led to the belief that they are just as inoperative as is the ordinance on the closing of saloons. As a consequence there was an examination of the original copies of ordinances on file in the City Clerk's office, this morning, by a number of people.

There was quite a large number of ordinances passed by the City Council of that year and they comprised every subject from a street grade to a railroad franchise.

Among those discovered as having some relation to the present times and which may or may not, according to later action by the Council, be affected, is one opening Telegraph avenue to a width of 100 feet, with sidewalks twenty feet in width, and declaring the thoroughfare to be a public street. There is another creating the office of City Physician. Still another grant is a railroad franchise on Telegraph avenue, from Fourteenth to Durant street. This franchise covers a part of the line now operated on Telegraph avenue by the Oakland Railroad Company.

If affidavits were ever attached to these ordinances it is a mystery where they have gone.

Economy in the kitchen is in using the purest and best materials. There is nothing so expensive as the cheap baking powders. Highest government authorities recommend Dr. Price's as the strongest, purest and best.

A SAD CASE.

John Lindy Is About Ready to Die.

Did Not Have the Courage to Commit Suicide.

It Took Him Four Days to Walk In From Haywards.

John Lindy was sent to the County Hospital today, and will probably end his days there before many weeks. His story is a singularly sad one.

Lindy was once a strong, able-bodied man, who made good wages as a boiler maker at the Judson Iron Works. Five years ago when the grip was so bad in this locality, he was caught by the disease and never recovered his health. He got a bad attack of catarrh, then he got bronchitis and was left in a state of consumption.

He expended $500 on doctors and druggists to regain his health and finally had to do any light manual labor just for his board.

His last engagement was at a hotel in Haywards, where he worked for his board, but, getting too weak, he was told to leave and was not even given as much money as would take him to Oakland.

The poor fellow then started walking, and after a four days' tramp reached the foot of First and Franklin streets, where he fell down exhausted, and was yesterday afternoon brought to the Receiving Hospital in an emaciated and altogether pitiable condition.

His voice is nearly gone, and in barely audible words, he recounted his sufferings this morning and told how, even on his walk to Oakland, he had been denied a drink of milk on the road. He also produced at the hospital a small vial of laudanum, which, he said, he had carried about for over a month with the intention to commit suicide, but his courage had failed him and he had refrained from taking the fatal step.

Lindy is an American by birth and only 35 years of age, but he looks much older and bears the impress of great sufferings. He says he has no relatives alive.

The Pirates' Steed.

The horse and wagon which was used by the bay pirates arrested at Fitchburg, a few days ago, and which Chief Schaffer placed in the City Hall stables, were claimed by a woman this morning. She said she had rented the outfit, as she supposed, to a couple of drummers. The outfit was surrendered on the payment of costs.

He Has Appealed.

G. A. Peterson has appealed to the Superior Court for a rehearing of the action brought against him by G. G. Baker. The suit was originally brought to recover an instalment due on a promissory note and was decided in the Justice's court in favor of the plaintiff.

On a Promissory Note.

The Union Savings Bank, through its cashier, A. E. H. Cramer, has filed a claim for $2200 in the estate of George C. Fricke, deceased. The money is due on a promissory note with accruing interest from April 11, 1894.

Cost of a Will.

J. Callaghan has filed a creditor's claim in the estate of Kate West, deceased. The demand is for $15 for writing and drawing a will at her request.

Territorial Census.

SALT LAKE, February 26.—The Territorial census, completed last night, show that on January 1st Salt Lake City had a population of 47,080. This is an increase of 3137 compared with the Federal census of 1890.

Colonel Cole, Governor Morton's private secretary, took them over to the Attorney General's office, and on his return said that a copy of them would be served on the accused man, and time granted him to file an answer. He would not tell what steps would be taken after that.

The examiner of the bank, who it is said was refused the privilege of appearing before the Grand Jury to present the charges against the bank officials, will also be asked to file a statement. It is asked that a committee be appointed to examine into and pass on the charges, and if the committee finds they are true that District Attorney Painter be removed.

POISONED THE DOGS.

Valuable Canines Lost at a Show in New York.

New York, February 26.—Office detectives and officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals are actively engaged in an effort to capture the miscreant or miscreants who, on Friday morning last, put poison in the cages of eight little prize dogs at Madison Square Garden.

The dogs belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Sanz of this city.

"A subscription of the popular kind was started," said Mr. Sanz, "but I ordered it stopped, as it was too much for my pride, and, furthermore, I do not know but that I would be receiving the contribution of the person or persons who killed the dogs. I have been informed that the Westminster Kennel Club will, in due time, reimburse me for my loss.

It is a matter that rests entirely with them. If they fail to do so, it will result in no differing on my part, nor in my taking any legal action to compel such restitution by them. My sole desire is to see the guilty persons caught and punished."

At the rooms of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals it was said that no arrests had been made yet.

NOT SETTLED YET.

Differences Between Mexico and Guatemala Still Discussed.

City of Mexico, February 26.—The Secretary of the Treasury has wired instructions to the Custom authorities at Tabachula, Chiapas, for the release of the 200 head of mules which have been delayed at that point for some time by order of the government. The stock belongs to the American contracting firm of Park & Thornton, who are at present engaged in constructing the Guatemalan Northern railroad in Guatemala, where the animals, which were purchased in this country, were urgently needed.

Their entrance into Guatemala at a time when the peace relations were threatened between that country and Mexico, evidently caused the Mexican Government to order them detained until further developments regarding the international dispute were made. The fact that the embargo on the mules had been raised strengthens the impression that the diplomatic conference between Emilio de Leon, Guatemala's Envoy, and Mexico's Secretary of Foreign Affairs, has reached a friendly termination. Secretary Mariscal, however, said that the statement as to the settling of all differences between Mexico and Guatemala is without foundation and premature.

DO NOT AGREE.

Anti-Bond Men Want Amendments Withdrawn.

Washington, February 26.—The friends of the amendment to the Sundry Civil bill, providing for an issue of $100,000,000 certificates of indebtedness, have about concluded they will be unable to get the bill through as long as the amendment remains a part of it.

The Populist Senators have announced a determination to defeat the bill rather than permit the adoption of this amendment.

The amendment offered by Mills for the repeal of all laws authorizing an issue of bonds will be opposed by those who favor certificates just as stubbornly as the certificate amendment is opposed by the anti-bond men.

As no one desires an extra session, it appears probable that both amendments will be dropped after a few hours' debate.

One half the quantity of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder will go farther and give better results than a like quantity of any other brand.

THEIR LOSS.

Rochester Is in Mourning for Fred Douglass.

Rochester, N. Y., February 26.—Rochester is in mourning today for Fred Douglass.

Just before the funeral train arrived there marched into the trainhouse the funeral cortege, including the Douglass League of Rochester, bearing a league banner draped in mourning.

The Mayor and members of the Common Council and other city officials came in carriages.

The funeral party moved to the City Hall, where the body lay in state several hours.

Handsome floral tributes sent by sympathetic friends from Washington lay on the coffin.

Asks for a Receiver

Milwaukee, February 26.—Edward Ferguson is the complainant in a suit for the appointment of a receiver for the Milwaukee Worsted Mills. The complaint charges mismanagement by the officers, which has brought about an unwarranted depreciation in the assets of the company of $80,000.

Not So Much Damage.

Paris, February 26.—A fire last night, in Casino de Paris, did not do so much damage as was first announced. Only the Rue de Clichy end of the building was destroyed.

WILL RATIFY.

Grand Rally of Republicans This Evening.

Eloquent Speeches and Fine Music Outlined.

Oakland Theater to Be the Scene of the Meeting.

The Republicans will hold a grand rally tonight at the Oakland Theater. Preparations for the big mass meeting are now complete. The City Central Committee has done everything in its power to insure a great success for the opening meeting of the campaign. The entire ticket will be ratified.

The local issues will be discussed by a number of excellent speakers, who have volunteered their services. The voting public will also be given a chance to see the candidates and to hear them expound their views on the local questions that affect the interests of the city and her people. Able and eloquent gentlemen have given their time and attention to a careful study of the situation, in order that the issues may be discussed with intelligent understanding.

The fine speeches will be interspersed with a musical programme, whose rendition will enliven the meeting. Fine vocal and instrumental talent will supply these features of the gathering. No pains have been spared to make the meeting a demonstration worthy of its purpose.

Hon. Charles N. Fox has consented to accept the honor as chairman of the evening. Several hundred equally prominent Republicans have been invited to act as vice presidents.

The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock, and short, sharp speeches will be the programme. There will be no tiresome delays nor any long-winded remarks. Each speaker will be timed so that all may be heard. Republicans throughout the city should turn out and participate in the great ratification of a municipal ticket.

The principal speakers of the evening, as announced thus far by Secretary Bishop of the City Central Committee, are the well-known attorneys, Fred S. Stratton and George W. Reed. A number of other prominent Republicans will also be present and will address the meeting. These are mentioned outside of the many candidates who will briefly give their views.

SCHOOL BOARD.

Bids for Lafayette Building Are Rejected.

A Proposition to Settle a Legal Dispute.

The Sixth Ward School Matter Again Under Discussion.

The Board of Education held a regular meeting last night. Director Whitehead was absent owing to illness.

The matter of the sale of the old Lafayette school came up for discussion and on motion of Director Clements the Board of Public Works was instructed to reject all bids for the same and readvertise for new ones. Those received were considered too low.

Professor Meade submitted a report regarding certain heating and ventilation tests performed by him in the old Lafayette school building. The apparatus was accepted and the matter of remunerating Professor Meade for his services was referred to the Finance Committee.

Director Clement discussed the case of the Freyer children and moved that they be excluded from school privileges until the board was satisfied that Mr. Freyer is a bona fide resident of Oakland.

The Superintendent said that Mr. Freyer had been notified to be present at the meeting, but had not put in an appearance. Director Clement's motion prevailed, Messrs. Bellington and Moss voting against it.

P. F. Lamoreaux, secretary of the Remillard Brick Company, appeared before the board in regard to the sixth ward school, and offered to tear down the concrete wall to the ground line and rebuild in brick for the sum of $2500.

Director Mock objected on the ground that it would add that much to the cost of the building, making it $37,500 in place of $25,000.

Director Reed was anxious to have the matter settled as soon as possible, even if they had to pay for it, but would like the Committee on Schoolhouses and Sites to state first whether the demand was fair or not.

It was finally agreed to refer the matter to the committee and Mr. Whitehead to report.

In conclusion the following bills were allowed: W. Morgan & Co., $112; Carruth & Carruth, $9 50; Enquirer, $5 25; B. Callaghan, $3; A. P. Turner, $7; Tyrrel & Campos, $50 25; Walter Meese, 50 cents; Weber & Co., $1 50; T. W. Webster, $2.

The board then adjourned till Monday, the 18th of March.

That the best is always the most economical is in nothing more clearly demonstrated than in the use of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

ANOTHER FINE.

Fate of a Violator of the Liquor License Law.

F. Pezzola, the saloon keeper, was fined $50 by Judge Wood in the Police Court this morning for selling liquor without a license. He has already been convicted of the same offense by a jury and fined $100. A third charge of a like character still remains to be heard.

TWO SULLIVANS.

Ill Luck Lands Them Both in the Hospital.

This morning Thomas Sullivan was brought to the Receiving Hospital with an injured knee. He is a carpenter, and fell from the roof of a building on Thirteenth and Jefferson streets, where he was putting on shingles.

No sooner had Thomas Sullivan left the place than Jerry Sullivan was brought in with a scalp wound, sustained while handling lumber on the wharf. The latter is a longshore man, and belongs to San Francisco.

NO AFFIDAVITS.

How the Council of 1875 Passed Ordinances.

Important Franchises Not Properly Attested.

Telegraph Avenue Opening Carelessly Carried To.

The discovery made yesterday in the Police Court, before Judge Wood, that the Midnight Saloon-Closing Ordinance is inoperative, because its passage was not properly attested by affidavit, has directed the attention of interested parties to other ordinances passed in the same manner, and by the same Council, some of which ordinances are still supposed to be in effect.

The discovery that nearly all the ordinances of the Council of 1875 were passed without affidavit of publication or posting, has led to the belief that they are just as inoperative as is the ordinance on the closing of saloons. As a consequence there was an examination of the original copies of ordinances on file in the City Clerk's office, this morning, by a number of people.

There was quite a large number of ordinances passed by the City Council of that year and they comprised every subject from a street grade to a railroad franchise.

Among those discovered as having some relation to the present times and which may or may not, according to later action by the Council, be affected, is one opening Telegraph avenue to a width of 100 feet, with sidewalks twenty feet in width, and declaring the thoroughfare to be a public street. There is another creating the office of City Physician. Still another grant is a railroad franchise on Telegraph avenue, from Fourteenth to Durant street. This franchise covers a part of the line now operated on Telegraph avenue by the Oakland Railroad Company.

If affidavits were ever attached to these ordinances it is a mystery where they have gone.

Economy in the kitchen is in using the purest and best materials. There is nothing so expensive as the cheap baking powders. Highest government authorities recommend Dr. Price's as the strongest, purest and best.

A SAD CASE.

John Lindy Is About Ready to Die.

Did Not Have the Courage to Commit Suicide.

It Took Him Four Days to Walk In From Haywards.

John Lindy was sent to the County Hospital today, and will probably end his days there before many weeks. His story is a singularly sad one.

Lindy was once a strong, able-bodied man, who made good wages as a boiler maker at the Judson Iron Works. Five years ago when the grip was so bad in this locality, he was caught by the disease and never recovered his health. He got a bad attack of catarrh, then he got bronchitis and was left in a state of consumption.

He expended $5 00 on doctors and druggists to regain his health and finally had to do any light manual labor just for his board.

His last engagement was at a hotel in Hayward, where he worked for his board, but, getting too weak, he was told to leave and was not even given as much money as would take him to Oakland.

The poor fellow then started walking, and after a four days' tramp reached the foot of First and Franklin streets, where he fell down exhausted, and was yesterday afternoon brought to the Receiving Hospital in an emaciated and altogether pitiable condition.

His voice is nearly gone, and in barely audible words, he recounted his sufferings this morning and told how, even on his walk to Oakland, he had been denied a drink of milk on the road. He also produced at the hospital a small vial of laudanum, which, he said, he had carried about for over a month with the intention to commit suicide, but his courage had failed him and he had refrained from taking the fatal dose.

Lindy is an American by birth and only 35 years of age, but he looks much older and bears the impress of great sufferings. He says he has no relatives alive.

The Pirates' Steed

The horse and wagon which was used by the bay pirates arrested at Fitchburg a few days ago, and which Chief Scantlebury placed in the City Hall stables, were claimed by a woman this morning. She said she had rented the outfit, as she supposed, to a couple of drummers. The outfit was surrendered on the payment of costs.

He Has Appealed.

G. A. Peterson has appealed to the Superior Court for a rehearing of the action brought against him by G. G. Baker. The suit was originally brought to recover an installment due on a promissory note and was decided in the Justice's court in favor of the plaintiff.

On a Promissory Note

The Union Savings Bank, through its cashier, A. E. H. Cramer, has filed a claim for $2200 in the estate of George C. Fricke, deceased. The money is due on a promissory note with accruing interest from April 11, 1894.

Cost of a Will.

J. Callaghan has filed a creditor's claim in the estate of Kate West, deceased. The demand is for $15 for writing and drawing a will at her request.

Territorial Census.

Salt Lake, February 26.—The Territorial census, completed last night, show that on January 1st Salt Lake City had a population of 47,980. This is an increase of 3127 compared with the Federal census of 1890.

A REVOLUTION.

Some Lively Times Expected in Cuba.

Plans for the Uprising Made in the East.

Spanish Troops Will Be Ready to Meet the Rebels.

New York, February 26.—The outbreak in Cuba reported in last night's cable despatches is said to have been the cause here in New York. It is said that other dispatches received here, yesterday, by members of the Cuban revolutionary party to whom the secret for the uprising has been known since February 9 th, told that the revolution had been begun.

Jose Marti, twice banished from Cuba on account of his hate of Spanish domination, and General Maximo Gomez, who commanded the eastern wing of the Cuban rebels in the revolution of 1868, left New York two weeks ago for Vera Cruz and the news received last night from Cuba tells that they have landed, for their arrival was to be the signal for the uprising.

This movement will be known as the Marti revolution, for it is led by Jose Marti, who will be the head of the Provisional Government if the revolutionists are successful.

General Gomez, who accompanied him, is the commander-in-chief of the revolutionary forces.

It was here that the revolution was planned, and it was from here that the order was sent which ignited the fire of the civil war in Cuba, yesterday, or more probably on Sunday, since that was the date originally set.

The Cuban leaders here in league with the revolutionists of the island and with sympathizers in the United States, Mexico and the South American republics, have been long preparing for the event, the inception of which is announced in the cablegrams.

The insurgent forces in Matanzas, near Ybarra, wrote one wing of the patriot party raised its standard, are under command of Major General Julio Sanguily, the place mentioned being sixty miles east of Havana, on the west end of the island.

The scene of the other uprising, Guantanamo, is on the east end of the island, and the fact that these widely separated places are given prominence was accepted by Cubans in New York last night to mean that the uprising extended throughout the island and that the Spanish authorities were attempting to battle its extent.

The revolutionary forces in the eastern section of the island, which includes Guantanamo, are commanded by Brigadier General Guillermo Moncada. It is estimated that he can raise 1000 men.

The Spanish forces number about 18,000 regulars, of which about 6000 are stationed in Santiago de Cuba, and so are within reach of the rebels at Guantanamo.

The bulk of the remaining Spanish troops are stationed in Havana, and so are near the scene of General Sanguily's starting point, Ybarra.

General Gomez and Marti are expected to land on the north coast, but there is some uncertainty about their exact destination, as they were forced to move with great caution and had gone to Vera Cruz for the purpose of deceiving the Spanish authorities who were expecting trouble from another quarter, it is said.

Men who are high in the councils of the Cuban party here and who were intrusted with the date set for the uprising, said last night that with the arms which have been smuggled into Cuba during the last few weeks and which were landed near Matanzas and other points, and those already in possession of the patriot forces, General Gomez would be able to arm 3000 men at once and many more within a very short time. Advices received by mercantile houses in Lyrida confirmed the other dispatches of the revolutionary party here received about noon. The plan of campaign is more complete than in any of the numerous revolutions which have drenched Cuban soil with blood. To begin with, relying upon the fact that the disaffection is general, firearms and supplies of war smuggled to Cuba were landed at widely separated points, for it is upon patriot troops that Marti and General Gomez rely, and they aimed to fire the entire island with the spirit of rebellion at the same hour.

To this end, the banished leaders and the trusty men who were already upon Cuban soil were assigned to different districts, and all were given similar instructions. They will arm as many men as their supplies of rifles will permit, and rallying, in addition, all of the unarmed or poorly-armed patriots to their standard, will make head for a common destination, there to meet Marti and Gomez, if possible, and so present a uniform front to the Spanish regulars.

The Cubans will be handicapped in the matter of arms, but its leaders here say that their countrymen know every foot of the hills and roads and can endure privations which would mean death to the Spaniards. They fought for ten years before, when their chance for success was not nearly so bright as now, Cubans here were saying last night, and think, now, that they cannot fail.

In addition to Gomez and Marti, it is believed the following are in command of bodies of patriots at various points on the island:

WANT TO RETIRE.

Officers Have Expressed Their Desire to the Emperor.

Berlin, February 26.—It is stated on good authority that Vice Admiral Holtman and Admiral Von Der Goltz have expressed to the Emperor their desire to retire, and his Majesty's decision has been deferred until the marine budget is disposed of.

The reason for the Emperor's dissatisfaction is said to be insufficient representation of naval affairs in the Reichstag.

He Wants a Divorce.

John M. Breen, the Washington street cigar dealer, commenced a suit in the Superior Court, this afternoon, against Mary Agnes Breen, for a divorce. Mr. Breen has engaged Judge J. J. Allen and Thomas F. Garrity to prosecute the action.

ON THE TRACK.

Mrs. P. J. Delehanty Killed at the Mole.

Run Down at Night by the Alameda Local.

Another Fatality at the Altamont Railroad Tunnel

Mrs. P. J. Delehanty, wife of the senior member of the undertaking firm of Delehanty & Havens, 561 Clay street, was instantly killed last night, about 8:30 o'clock, near tower No. 1 on the pier leading from the broad gauge mole.

She was returning in a buggy with her husband from San Francisco, when the Alameda local, coming from the mole, dashed into the rear of the vehicle, throwing the unfortunate woman beneath the wheels of the locomotive, crushing her to death, killing the horse and reducing the buggy to splinters.

Mr. Delehanty was thrown out of the buggy upon the roadway. He was badly shaken up, became dazed for a time, but miraculously escaped injury.

A number of people appeared on the scene almost immediately after the accident.

Delehanty was borne away bemoaning the bereavement he had sustained.

The Coroner was notified and bore the remains of Mrs. Delehanty to the Morgue.

It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Delehanty had attended a funeral in San Francisco during the afternoon of yesterday, and on their way home took the 8 o'clock boat, driving aboard in their buggy.

When they reached this side, they drove along the pier, but neglected to cross the tracks at a certain point in order to continue on the driveway intended for vehicles. As a consequence, whether knowingly or not cannot be told, they continued along the right of way of the local trains.

The Alameda train was then coming away from the mole and crashed into the vehicle before it could be stopped.

The locomotive was in charge of Engineer Horace Hammond.

Mrs. Delehanty was the sister of Mr. Havens, Mr. Delehanty's business partner.

Coroner Baldwin will hold an inquest at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

CLUBBED AT ALTAMONT.

Altamont tunnel claimed another victim yesterday in the person of John Buckley, a young laborer in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. He was caught in a landslide. His fellow-workmen labored hard to extricate him from beneath the crushing weight of earth which buried him, but were unable to do so until after death had taken place. The deceased has a brother residing at 313 Tehama street, San Francisco. An inquest will be held tonight.

It was at Altamont tunnel that the collision between a construction and a passenger train took place last January, in which three lives were lost.

PASSED OUT.

An Old-Time and Popular Business Firm Retires.

The popular firm of Harrison & Boyce have disposed of their business in the Twelfth Street Market to Alexander I. Smith, a brother of Robert and James Smith, the well-known contractors. The senior member of the retiring firm is Street Superintendent. Harrison & Boyce have opened an office at 168 Tenth street for the adjustment of all accounts due and all claims against them. The retirement of this popular firm wipes out an old-time business land mark in this city.

UNFAIR DEAL.

East Fourteenth street People vs. East Twelfth.

The Council at its meeting last night adopted a resolution of intention for the remacadamizing of East Fourteenth street.

This action has aroused bitter opposition all along the line, and at an early hour this morning several taxpayers on the thoroughfare called at the office of the City Clerk to ascertain whether or not they had been correctly informed in the premises. They were given the desired information.

Prof. W. T. Wenzell,

Of the College of Pharmacy of the State University, after actual analyses made by him, pronounces "the ROYAL BAKING POWDER the strongest and purest baking powder before the public."

The ROYAL BAKING POWDER destroys the dyspeptic qualities of hot food.

COURT NOTES.

Catherine McCloskey has filed a demurrer in the suit of Thomas L. Kaen versus Catherine McCloskey et al. on the ground that the complaint does not set forth facts sufficient to cause an action.

Annie L. Schramm has been appointed guardian for her four minor children to represent them in the action brought by them against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

Emil Frankuchon has brought suit against L. Grillio for $62 damages alleged to have been sustained through a breach of agreement concerning certain real estate transactions.

James P. Brown has been appointed guardian of the person and estate of Creed Raymond Brown, a minor.

The suit of Octavia O'Farrell against the Oakland Water Company has been dismissed.

John Ellis Hewston was this morning appointed a special deputy sheriff by Sheriff White.

You never need use more than half as much of Dr. Price's Baking Powder as of any other. A single trial will prove this.

LOADED WITH BALLOTS.

The Collins-McDonald Vote to Be Counted.

County Clerk Jordan and Chief Deputy Ewing left on the first train this morning with the ballots to be counted by the Legislature in the Collins-McDonald contest. The ballots weigh about 300 pounds, and the Clerk is required to keep them in his actual custody, and is prohibited from sending them by express or otherwise.

Mr. Jordan and his deputy will have to guard their charge incessantly during the time of recount, which will probably occupy a couple of days.

During the absence of the Clerk the office will be in charge of his efficient deputy, Frank Adams.

HAPPY HEARTS.

Four Thespians Who Were Married at the Courthouse.

The Gerald Comedy Company has added two married couples to the staff of artists.

Yesterday Giles Morgan and Reta Leray were made one, and their example was immediately followed by Harry Percival and Lucy Clark, who received their marriage license from Cupid Ewing and were a few moments later joined in matrimony by Judge Lawrence at the Courthouse. Today the young couple will go on their honeymoon with the company, which is about to start on a tour Eastward.

MURDOCK VS. MORCK.

The Machinist Charged With Criminal Libel.

Fire Warden Murdock swore to a complaint this morning charging William Morck with criminal libel. The complaint alleges that Morck circulated and swore to the statement that Murdock had tried to extort money from him in return for a favorable report on Morck's fire-escapes.

In Another Court.

The case of the county of Alameda vs.

and immediately a protest against the work was prepared and put in circulation.

The protest sets forth that East Fourteenth street was macadamized some time ago at the expense of the property owners, and that, since that time, the street has had to accommodate the traffic that was driven to it through the impassable condition of East Twelfth street; also that the taxpayers are not able to do the work a second time, unless with assistance of the city.

The protestants also object to concrete curbs, claiming that wood would be good enough for them, and that if they wanted to make a change, they would ask for it.

They also claim that the street is improperly made to stand all the through traffic of East Twelfth street, the property owners on which will not make any improvements.

Best is always cheapest. Dr. Price's, as the purest and strongest of the baking powders, is more economical than the ordinary kind.

LEVOY ON A TEAR.

The Man Responsible for the Mired Horse and Buggy.

It was ascertained this morning that the horse and buggy which were fished out of the Lake Merritt marsh yesterday belong to the Almont stables, on Broadway, near Sixth street, where they were hired by a man named Henry Levoy two days ago. They were claimed by "Frenchy" Blouin, and surrendered to him by the police. Levoy was later found walking along the streets in a dazed manner. He did not know what had become of the horse and buggy, how he had separated from them, or, in fact, where he had been for the past two days. He was arrested and charged with cruelty to animals.

THE SHERMAN LIBEL.

Ben Morgan Will Argue the Case Tonight.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock the case of criminal libel against E. A. Sherman Jr. will come up in the Police Court. Arguments will be advanced on the motion of Sherman to have the case dismissed on the ground that the document in which it is alleged the libel on Chief Schaller was contained was a privileged communication. It is understood that Ben Morgan will appear as counsel for Sherman.

STILL GOING ON.

The Water Front Case Drags Along in Court.

Judge Ogden was listening the greater part of the day to further argument in the suit of the City of Oakland vs. the Oakland Water Front Company.

Attorney Brown was on hand reading long extracts of law and W. R. Davis was making voluminous notes. The interest in the case is only visibly demonstrated by a very few loungers in the lobby.

Free Lecture Tonight.

O. B. Smith will lecture tonight at 8 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, Twelfth and Clay streets, on "Ancient Jerusalem and Her Monuments." Admission free, and everybody invited.

Last night a burglar visited Temescal, and extracted from the room of John Ginnipp his silver watch, chain and locket, and his car badge, stamped No. 147.

MAY DAY FETE.

A Date Selected for the Horse Meet.

Bicyclers Favor Oakland Trotting Park.

President Fitzgerald Is Encouraged by Enthusiasts.

The executive committee in charge of the Horse-Meet has decided that the exhibition will be given on May 1st.

That date has been selected owing to the fact that it is celebrated by many people as a half-holiday, and because, also, merchants can, at that time, be more easily induced to give their employes a day off than they can earlier or later in the season.

There is a strong feeling in favor of having the meet take place at the Oakland Trotting Park.

The mile track is always in excellent condition about May 1st, and the leading bicycle men say that the fastest riders could be secured to run on it, whereas, on a made special track they could not be induced to run under any circumstances.

Mrs. A. A. Burton, the secretary, is daily in receipt of inquiries regarding the meet. This shows that the proposed scheme is attracting widespread attention. She hopes to be able in a few days to give all the information desired on the subject.

President Fitzgerald also speaks encouragingly of the manner in which the project is espoused by people who are difficult to entuse on any subject, and this, he argues, is a favorable evidence of the great popularity of the undertaking.

SEXTON'S TRIAL.

He Is Again Before a Jury in the Superior Court.

John E. Sexton's second trial on a charge of forging R. J. Boyer's signature to a check on Wells, Fargo Co's Bank for $100 was commenced in Judge Ellsworth's department of the Superior Court this morning. The defendant is represented by H. C. McPike. At the former trial the jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.

An Important Meeting to Be Held This Evening.

An important meeting of the Merchants' Exchange has been called for this evening at the Council Chambers. The Board of Directors has had under consideration several very important measures which will be the subject for discussion tonight. The board has requested that a very large attendance of members be present, as the questions involve the interests of the entire mercantile community.

STILL SICK.

The Grip Has Secured a Hold on Williams and Shorey.

Detectives Williams and Shorey are still confined to their homes by aggravated attacks of the grip. There was some improvement reported in Mr. Williams' case today, but in Mr. Shorey's it was stated that he was growing worse.

Lady Maccabees.

A performance of unusual interest will be given tonight at Hamilton Hall under the auspices of the Lady Maccabees. M. Wentworth, the eminent reader and impersonator, will be on hand, and render some of his inimitable sketches of Dion Boucicault and Joseph Jefferson, and will be assisted by Mrs. George Monck and Mr. Forner. Henry Hatton and Kate Douglas Williams will also assist, and the entertainment will close with a representation of Sindambron, in which moving tableaux will be introduced and fourteen young ladies take part. The musical and illuminating effects of this latter are said to be very fine.

Widow and Daughters.

Yesterday the contest over the will of the late Franklin Mott was commenced. The daughters of deceased contest the right of the widow to have letters of administration issued to her, and claim that she took advantage of the old man's feeble state of mind to influence him in his business.

A New Law Library.

A law library of 15 0 volumes and to cost $1000 is to be put into the Blake-Moffitt building for the accommodation of the legal tenants.

Adjudication of Insolvency.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR the County of Alameda, State of California. In the matter of Elbert Olney, an insolvent debtor.

Order of adjudication of insolvency.

Elbert Olney having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, from which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor the said Elbert Olney is hereby declared to be insolvent. It is hereby ordered that E. P. White, Sheriff of Alameda County, be, and he is hereby appointed receiver of the property of said insolvent, and that upon his giving a bond, to the approval of the Judge of this Court, in the sum of $1, conditioned as required by law, and qualifying, he take charge and possession of all of the estate, real and personal, of said Elbert Olney, insolvent debtor, wheresoever and whereso'er found, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account and papers and to keep and care for and dispose of the same until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons having the same or any part thereof in his or their possession, are hereby directed to pay the same to said receiver, and that said receiver keep the said property, or the proceeds thereof, till the further order of this court. And all persons are hereby forbidden to pay any debts to said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to such insolvent, to him, or to any person, firm, corporation or association, for his use, and the said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered, that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, Department No. 4, in open Court, at the Courtroom of said Court, in the County of Alameda, on the next day of April, 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered, that this order be published in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the County of Alameda, as often as the said paper is published before the day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered, that in the meantime all proceedings against said insolvent be stayed.

Dated February 25, 1895.

F. B. OGDEN,
Judge of the Superior Court.

A REVOLUTION.

Some Lively Times Expected in Cuba.

Plans for the Uprising Made in the East.

Spanish Troops Will Be Ready to Meet the Rebels.

New York, February 26.—The outbreak in Cuba reported in last night's cable dispatches is said to have been hatched here in New York. It is said that other dispatches received here, yesterday, by members of the Cuban revolutionary party to whom the date set for the uprising has been known since February 9th, told that the revolution had been begun.

Jose Marti, twice banished from Cuban soil because of his hate of Spanish domination, and General Maximo Gomez, who commanded the eastern wing of the Cuban rebels in the revolution of 1868, left New York two weeks ago for Vera Cruz and the news received last night from Cuba tells that they have landed, for their arrival was to be the signal for the uprising.

This movement will be known as the Marti revolution, for it is led by Jose Marti, who will be the head of the Provisional Government if the revolutionists are successful.

General Gomez, who accompanied him, is the commander-in-chief of the revolutionary forces.

It was here that the revolution was planned, and it was from here that the order was sent which ignited the fire of the civil war in Cuba, yesterday, or more probably on Sunday, since that was the date originally set.

The Cuban leaders here in league with the revolutionists of the island and whose sympathizers in the United States, Mexico and the South American republics, have been long preparing for the event, the inception of which is announced in the cablegrams.

The insurgent forces in Matanzas, near Ybarra, whom one wing of the patriot party raised its standard, are under command of Major General Julio Sanguily, the place mentioned being sixty miles east of Havana, on the west end of the island.

The scene of the other uprising, Guantanamo, is on the east end of the island, and the fact that these widely separated places are given prominence was accepted by Cubans in New York last night to mean that the uprising extended throughout the island and that the Spanish authorities were attempting to belittle its extent.

The revolutionary forces in the eastern section of the island, which includes Guantanamo, are commanded by Brigadier General Guillermo Moncada. It is estimated that he can raise 4000 men.

The Spanish forces number about 18,000 regulars, of which about 6000 are stationed in Santiago de Cuba, and so are within reach of the rebels at Guantanamo.

The bulk of the remaining Spanish troops are stationed in Havana, and so are near the scene of General Sanguily's starting point, Ybarra.

General Gomez and Marti are expected to land on the south coast, but there is some uncertainty about their exact destination, as they were forced to move with great caution and had gone to Vera Cruz for the purpose of deceiving the Spanish authorities who were expecting trouble from another quarter, it is said.

Men who are high in the councils of the Cuban party here and who were intrusted with the date set for the uprising, said last night that with the arms which have been smuggled into Cuba during the last few weeks and which were landed near Matanzas and other points, and those already in possession of the patriot forces, General Gomez would be able to arm 3000 men at once and many more within a very short time. Advices received by mercantile houses in Lyttle's confirmed the cipher dispatches of the revolutionary party here received about noon. The plan of campaign is more complete than in any of the numerous revolutions which have drenched Cuban soil with blood. To begin with, relying upon the fact that the disaffection is general, the arms and supplies of war smuggled to Cuba were landed at widely different points, for it is upon patriot troops that Marti and General Gomez must rely, and they aimed to fire the entire island with the spirit of rebellion at the same hour.

To this end, the banished leaders and the trusty men who were already upon Cuban soil were assigned to different districts, and all were given similar instructions. They will arm as many men as their supplies of rifles will permit, and rallying, in addition, all of the unarmed or poorly-armed patriots to their standard, will make head for a common destination, there to meet Marti and Gomez, if possible, and so present a uniform front to the Spanish regulars.

The Cubans will be handicapped in the matter of arms, but the leaders here say that their countrymen know every foot of the hills and roads and can endure privations which would mean death to the Spaniards. They fought for ten years before, when their chance for success was not nearly so bright as now, Cubans here were saying last night, and think, now, that they cannot fail.

In addition to Gomez and Marti, it is believed the following are in command of bodies of patriots at various points on the island:

General Carlos Roloff, a Polish officer; General Antonio Maceo, General Crombet, General Sanchez, General Francisco Arillo, General Enrique Collazo, General Julio Sanguily, who was probably the instigator of the uprising at Matanzas; General Guillermo Moncada and the Marquis of Santa Lucia.

WANT TO RETIRE.

Officers Have Expressed Their Desire to the Emperor.

Berlin, February 26.—It is stated on good authority that Vice Admiral Hoffman and Admiral Von Der Goltz have expressed to the Emperor their desire to retire, and his Majesty's decision has been deferred until the marine budget is disposed of.

The reason for the Emperor's dissatisfaction is said to be insufficient representation of naval affairs in the Reichstag.

His Wants a Divorce.

John M. Breen, the Washington street cigar dealer, commenced a suit in the Superior Court, this afternoon, against Mary Agnes Breen, for a divorce. Mr. Breen has enfraged Judge J. J. Allen and Thomas F. Garrity to prosecute the action.

ON THE TRACK.

Mrs. P. J. Delehanty Killed at the Mole.

Run Down at Night by the Alameda Local.

Another Fatality at the Altamont Railroad Tunnel.

Mrs. P. J. Delehanty, wife of the senior member of the undertaking firm of Delehanty & Havens, 969 Clay street, was instantly killed last night, about 8:30 o'clock, near tower No. 1 on the pier leading from the broad gauge mole.

She was returning in a buggy with her husband from San Francisco, when the Alameda local, coming from the mole, dashed into the rear of the vehicle, throwing the unfortunate woman beneath the wheels of the locomotive, crushing her to death, killing the horse and reducing the buggy to splinters.

Mr. Delehanty was thrown out of the buggy upon the roadway. He was badly shaken up, became dazed for a time, but miraculously escaped injury.

A number of people appeared on the scene almost immediately after the accident.

Delehanty was borne away bemoaning the bereavement he had sustained.

The Coroner was notified and bore the remains of Mrs. Delehanty to the Morgue.

It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Delehanty had attended a funeral in San Francisco during the afternoon of yesterday, and on their way home took the 8 o'clock boat, driving aboard in their buggy.

When they reached this side, they drove along the pier, but neglected to cross the tracks at a certain point in order to continue on the driveway intended for vehicles. As a consequence, whether knowingly or not, cannot be told, they continued along the right of way of the local trains.

The Alameda train was then coming away from the mole and crashed into the vehicle before it could be stopped.

The locomotive was in charge of Engineer Horace Hammond.

Mrs. Delehanty was the sister of Mr. Havens, Mr. Delehanty's business partner.

Coroner Baldwin will hold an inquest at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

CRUSHED AT ALTAMONT.

Altamont tunnel claimed another victim yesterday in the person of John Buckley, a young laborer in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. He was caught in a landslide. His fellow-workmen labored hard to extricate him from beneath the crushing weight of earth which buried him, but were unable to do so until after death had taken place. The deceased has a brother residing at 313 Tehama street, San Francisco. An inquest will be held tonight.

It was at Altamont tunnel that the collision between a construction and a passenger train took place last January, in which three lives were lost.

PASSED OUT.

An Old-Time and Popular Business Firm Retires.

The popular firm of Harrison & Boyce have disposed of their business in the Twelfth Street Market to Alexander I. Smillie, a brother of Robert and James Smillie, the well-known contractors. The senior member of the retiring firm is Street Superintendent. Harrison & Boyce have opened an office at 468 Tenth street for the adjustment of all accounts due and all claims against them. The retirement of this popular firm wipes out an old-time business land mark in this city.

UNFAIR DEAL.

East Fourteenth street People vs. East Twelfth.

The Council at its meeting last night adopted a resolution of intention for the remacadamizing of East Fourteenth street.

This action has aroused bitter opposition all along the line, and at an early hour this morning several taxpayers on the thoroughfare called at the office of the City Clerk to ascertain whether or not they had been correctly informed in the premises. They were given the desired information.

COURT NOTES.

Catherine McClosky has filed a demurrer to the suit of Thomas L. Kaan versus Catherine McClosky et al. on the ground that the complaint does not set forth facts sufficient to cause an action.

Annie L. Schramm has been appointed guardian for her four minor children to represent them in the action brought by them against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

Emil Frankuchen has brought suit against L. Grillo for $920 damages alleged to have been sustained through a breach of agreement concerning certain real estate transactions.

James P. Brown has been appointed guardian of the person and estate of Creed Raymond Brown, a minor.

The suit of Octavia O'Farrell against the Oakland Water Company has been dismissed.

John Ellis Hewston was this morning appointed a special deputy sheriff by Sheriff White.

You never need use more than half as much of Dr. Price's Baking Powder as of any other. A single trial will prove this.

LOADED WITH BALLOTS.

The Collins-McDonald Vote to Be Counted.

County Clerk Jordan and Chief Deputy Ewing left on the first train this morning with the ballots to be counted by the Legislature in the Collins-McDonald contest. The ballots weigh about 300 pounds, and the Clerk is required to keep them in his actual custody, and is prohibited from sending them by express or otherwise.

Mr. Jordan and his deputy will have to guard their charge incessantly during the time of recount, which will probably occupy a couple of days.

During the absence of the Clerk the office will be in charge of his efficient deputy, Frank Adams.

HAPPY HEARTS.

Four Thespians Who Were Married at the Courthouse.

The Gerald Comedy Company has added two married couples to the staff of artists.

Yesterday Giles Morgan and Rota Leray were made one, and their example was immediately followed by Harry Percival and Lucy Clark, who received their marriage license from Cupid Ewing and were a few moments later joined in matrimony by Judge Lawrence at the Courthouse. Today the young couple will go on their honeymoon with the company, which is about to start on a tour Eastward.

MURDOCK VS. MORCK.

The Machinist Charged With Criminal Libel.

Fire Warden Murdock swore to a complaint this morning charging William Morck with criminal libel. The complaint alleges that Morck circulated and swore to the statement that Murdock had tried to extort money from him in return for a favorable report on Morck's fire-escapes.

LEVOY ON A TEAR.

The Man Responsible for the Mired Horse and Buggy.

It was ascertained this morning that the horse and buggy which were fished out of the Lake Merritt marsh yesterday belong to the Almont stables, on Broadway, near Sixth street, where they were hired by a man named Henry Levoy two days ago. They were claimed by "Frenchy" Blouin, and surrendered to him by the police. Levoy was later found walking along the streets in a dazed manner. He did not know what had become of the horse and buggy, how he had separated from them, or, in fact, where he had been for the past two days. He was arrested and charged with cruelty to animals.

THE SHERMAN LIBEL.

Ben Morgan Will Argue the Case Tonight.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock the case of criminal libel against E. A. Sherman Jr. will come up in the Police Court. Arguments will be advanced on the motion of Sherman to have the case dismissed on the ground that the document in which it is alleged the libel on Chief Schaffer was contained was a privileged communication. It is understood that Ben Morgan will appear as counsel for Sherman.

STILL GOING ON.

The Water Front Case Drags Along in Court.

Judge Ogden was listening the greater part of the day to further argument in the suit of the City of Oakland vs. the Oakland Water Front Company.

Attorney Brown was on hand reading long extracts of law and W. R. Davis was making voluminous notes. The interest in the case is only visibly demonstrated by a very few loungers in the lobby.

Free Lecture Tonight.

O. B. Smith will lecture tonight at 8 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, Twelfth and Clay streets, on "Ancient Jerusalem—and Her Monuments." Admission free, and everybody invited.

Stole His Watch.

Last night a burglar visited Temescal, and extracted from the room of John Ginipp his silver watch, chain and locket, and his car badge, stamped No. 147.

MAY DAY FETE.

A Date Selected for the Horse Meet.

Bicyclers Favor Oakland Trotting Park.

President Fitzgerald Is Encouraged by Enthusiasts.

The executive committee in charge of the Horse-Meet has decided that the exhibition will be given on May 1st.

That date has been selected owing to the fact that it is celebrated by many people as a half-holiday, and because, also, merchants can, at that time, be more easily induced to give their employes a day off than they can earlier or later in the season.

There is a strong feeling in favor of having the meet take place at the Oakland Trotting Park.

The mile track is always in excellent condition about May 1st, and the leading bicycle men say that the fastest riders could be secured to run on it, whereas, on a made special track they could not be induced to run under any circumstances.

Mrs. A. A. Barton, the secretary, is daily in receipt of inquiries regarding the meet. This shows that the proposed scheme is attracting widespread attention. She hopes to be able in a few days to give all the information desired on the subject.

President Fitzgerald also speaks encouragingly of the manner in which the project is espoused by people who are difficult to enthuse on any subject, and this, he argues, is a favorable evidence of the great popularity of the undertaking.

SEXTON'S TRIAL.

He Is Again Before a Jury in the Superior Court.

John E. Sexton's second trial on a charge of forging R. J. Boyer's signature to a check on Wells, Fargo Co's Bank for $100 was commenced in Judge Ellsworth's department of the Superior Court this morning. The defendant is represented by H. C. McPike. At the former trial the jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.

An Important Meeting to Be Held This Evening.

An important meeting of the Merchants' Exchange has been called for this evening at the Council Chambers. The Board of Directors has had under consideration several very important measures which will be the subject for discussion tonight. The board has requested that a very large attendance of members be present, as the questions involve the interests of the entire mercantile community.

STILL SICK.

The Grip Has Secured a Hold on Williams and Shorey.

Detectives Williams and Shorey are still confined to their homes by aggravated attacks of the grip. There was some improvement reported in Mr. Williams' case today, but in Mr. Shorey's it was stated that he was growing worse.

Lady Maccabees.

A performance of unusual interest will be given tonight at Hamilton Hall under the auspices of the Lady Maccabees. M. Wentworth, the eminent reader and impersonator, will be on hand, and render some of his inimitable sketches of Dion Boucicault and Joseph Jefferson, and will be assisted by Mrs. George Monck and Mr. Forney. Henry Hatton and Kate Douglas Williams will also assist, and the entertainment will close with a representation of Sandniphon, in which moving tableaux will be introduced and fourteen young ladies take part. The musical and illuminating effects of this latter are said to be very fine.

Widow and Daughters.

Yesterday the contest over the will of the late Franklin Moss was commenced. The daughters of deceased contest the right of the widow to have letters of administration issued to her, and claim that she took advantage of the old man's feeble state of mind to influence him in his business.

Adjudication of Insolvency.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR the County of Alameda, State of California. In the matter of Elbert Olney, an Insolvent debtor.

Order of adjudication of insolvency.

Elbert Olney having filed in this court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, from which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Elbert Olney is hereby declared to be insolvent. It is hereby ordered that C. B. White, Sheriff of Alameda County, be, and he is hereby appointed receiver of the property of said insolvent, and that upon his giving a bond to the people of the State of California, in the sum of $1, conditioned as required by law, and qualifying, he take charge and possession of all of the estate, real and personal, of said Elbert Olney, insolvent debtor, whatsoever and wheresoever situate, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account and papers, and to keep and care for and dispose of the same until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons having the same or any part thereof in his or their possession, are hereby directed to pay the same to said receiver, and that said receiver keep the said property, or the proceeds thereof, till the further order of this court. And all persons are hereby forbidden to pay any debts to said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to such insolvent, to him, or to any person, firm, corporation or association, for his use, and the said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered, that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, Department No. 4, in open Court, at the Courtroom of said Court, in the County of Alameda, on the first day of April, 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered, that this order be published in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, newspaper of general circulation, published in the County of Alameda, as often as the said paper is published before the day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered, that in the meantime all proceedings against said insolvent be stayed.

Dated February 26, 1895.

F. B. OGDEN,
Judge of the Superior Court.
S. F. DANIELS, Attorney for Petitioner.

BENSON ROAD,

The Proposition to Close It Discussed.

Arguments Are Presented by Both Sides.

Fortin Given More Time to Repair the Annex.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon the indigent cases of Mrs. Bartell of Thirty-sixth street and Mrs. Harmon of 1039 East Twenty-second street were referred to Supervisors Pelonze and Johnston, respectively.

Thomas Dunn, who was formerly in the County Hospital and later on at the Blind Home, asked for relief and was sent back to the hospital.

The matter of the so-called Benson road then came up for further hearing, in which the Oakland Water Company and the Alvarado Water Company are opposing each other. The road passes through land belonging to Mr. Dingee, and is situated near Alvarado. It is alleged that there is virtually no necessity for it, as the proper highway is by other old established roads, and Mr. Dingee, therefore, desires the road closed. This has been opposed by certain parties, among whom the Alvarado Water Company, which was represented by Attorneys M. J. Wright and Samuel H. McKee, while Mr. Nusbaumer represented Mr. Dingee's interest.

Mr. Wright stated that a formal petition had been filed with the Clerk for the continuation of Benson road.

Attorney Nusbaumer argued that the road was unnecessary. If the board found that the road was superfluous he asked that it be closed.

After some deliberation Mr. Wright presented a map, prepared by the County Surveyor, and argued that Benson street had been established as a public thoroughfare forever.

The speaker was frequently interrupted by Mr. Nusbaumer, who contended that the whole matter in regard to conveyances, etc., had been already laid before the Supervisors and are understood by them.

Mr. Wright then presented another petition signed by freeholders for the opening of a public road, passing over the land owned by the Oakland Water Company, the Alvarado Artesian Water Company and the county of Alameda, the proposed road being in point of fact the road in dispute. He thought the proper way to have proceeded would have been for the Supervisors to first suggest another road and not to shut them out of house and home. Before the board could proceed in this matter viewers should be appointed, but the speaker contended that according to the law the board could not close up the road in question. His clients owned a piece of land near Alameda creek, and on it were four artesian wells which they intended to make use of and would therefore utilize the road for running their pipes. That was the reason, he contended, why the Oakland Water Company were anxious to have the road closed. The latter have already laid their pipes along the Benson road, and he asked for fair play in the matter.

The board might complicate their position, but could not stop them.

Mr. Nusbaumer followed and argued that the board had a right to close the road as a public highway, and alleged that there was something behind the opposition to the closing of it, considering the contestants expended $100 for abstracts alone, when the whole question was a matter of 400 feet of a road. He desired the case settled right there.

S. B. McKee, also for the Alvarado Water Company, asked for more time.

After nearly two hours' deliberation the matter was left with the District Attorney for his opinion.

Mr. Nusbaumer appeared for Mr. Fortin in the matter of the plaster-work of the new annex. Smyth Bros., he stated, had agreed to make the defective plaster work good. Meanwhile he desired to make arrangements for the protection of Mr. Fortin, and asked for a continuance of the matter, and was granted until next Monday.

Judge Swasey of Alameda was given permission to have one of his law books rebound at THE TRIBUNE bindery.

A requisition for a new range for the County Jail was referred to the Building Committee.

The board then adjourned till 10 A. M. on Monday next.

A CUT IN WAGES.

The Cotton Mills Affected by the Tariff.

It is announced that there is to be a reduction of 10 per cent in the wages of the employes of the California Cotton Mills, in East Oakland, owing to the low prices at which manufactured articles must be sold, as a consequence of the cheap-labor competition of England and India.

Under the McKinley bill, Superintendent Rutherford said the pay roll of the mills was $10,000 a month. Now, he says it is only $7000 per month.

"We are sorry," says Mr. Rutherford, "to be compelled to make this reduction in wages, but, for the salvation of our business, must do so. A number of those who will be reduced have been seen and, while they cannot help but deplore the disagreeable necessity that compels them to work for less pay, they readily see that we alone cannot keep our mills running in any other way, and they are not disposed to complain."

THE GENUINE "BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES" are sold only in boxes. They are wonderfully effective for Coughs, Hoarseness or Irritation of the Throat caused by cold.

PRIZES ON PATENTS.

How to Get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune.

We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors.

Not so Hard as it Seems.

The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which, if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost everyone sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author.

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the Patent Office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not the inventor will have a valuable patent.

BENSON ROAD,

The Proposition to Close It Discussed.

Arguments Are Presented by Both Sides.

Fortin Given More Time to Repair the Annex.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon the indigent cases of Mrs. Bartelli of Thirty-sixth street and Mrs. Harmon of 1650 East Twenty-second street were referred to Supervisors Pelouze and Johnston, respectively.

Thomas Dunn, who was formerly in the County Hospital and later on at the Blind Home, asked for relief and was sent back to the hospital.

The matter of the so-called Benson road then came up for further hearing, in which the Oakland Water Company and the Alvarado Water Company are opposing each other. The road passes through land belonging to Mr. Dingee, and is situated near Alvarado. It is alleged that there is virtually no necessity for it, as the proper highway is by other old established roads, and Mr. Dingee, therefore, desires the road closed. This has been opposed by certain parties, among whom the Alvarado Water Company, which was represented by Attorneys M. L. Wright and Samuel B. McKee, while Mr. Nusbaumer represented Mr. Dingee's interest.

Mr. Wright stated that a formal petition had been filed with the Clerk for the continuation of Benson road.

Attorney Nusbaumer argued that the road was unnecessary. If the board found that the road was superfluous he asked that it be closed.

After some deliberation Mr. Wright presented a map, prepared by the County Surveyor, and argued that Benson street had been established as a public thoroughfare forever.

The speaker was frequently interrupted by Mr. Nusbaumer, who contended that the whole matter in regard to conveyances, etc., had been already laid before the Supervisors and are understood by them.

Mr. Wright then presented another petition signed by freeholders for the opening of a public road, passing over the land owned by the Oakland Water Company, the Alvarado Artesian Water Company and the county of Alameda, the proposed road being in point of fact the road in dispute. He thought the proper way to have proceeded would have been for the Supervisors to first suggest another road and not to shut them out of house and home. Before the board could proceed in this matter viewers should be appointed, but the speaker contended that according to the law the board could not close up the road in question. His clients owned a piece of land near Alameda creek, and on it were four artesian wells which they intended to make use of and would therefore utilize the road for running their pipes. That was the reason, he contended, why the Oakland Water Company were anxious to have the road closed. The latter have already laid their pipes along the Benson road, and he asked for fair play in the matter.

The board might complicate their position, but could not stop them.

Mr. Nusbaumer followed and argued that the board had a right to close the road as a public highway, and alleged that there was something behind the opposition to the closing of it, considering the contestants expended $100 for abstracts alone, when the whole question was a matter of 400 feet of a road. He desired the case settled right there.

S. B. McKee, also for the Alvarado Water Company, asked for more time.

After nearly two hours' deliberation the matter was left with the District Attorney for his opinion.

Mr. Nusbaumer appeared for Mr. Fortin in the matter of the plaster-work of the new annex. Smyth Bros., he stated, had agreed to make the defective plaster work good. Meanwhile he desired to make arrangements for the protection of Mr. Fortin, and asked for a continuance of the matter, and was granted until next Monday.

Judge Swasey of Alameda was given permission to have one of his law books rebound at THE TRIBUNE bindery.

A requisition for a new range for the County Jail was referred to the Building Committee.

The board then adjourned till 10 A. M. on Monday next.

Goethe's Visit to Carlsbad.

There is no doubt that the life of the great poet was greatly prolonged by drinking the waters of the Sprudel Spring. In our day we have the Sprudel Spring brought to us in the form of Salt, which is obtained by evaporation from the waters of Carlsbad.

The Carlsbad Sprudel Salt (powder form) is in no sense a mere purgative, but is an alterative and eliminative remedy which dissolves tenacious bile, allays irritation and removes obstruction by aiding nature. It acts soothingly and without pain. Beware of imitations. The genuine article has the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON Co., Sole Agents, New York," on every bottle.

A CUT IN WAGES.

The Cotton Mills Affected by the Tariff

It is announced that there is to be a reduction of 10 per cent in the wages of the employes of the California Cotton Mills, in East Oakland, owing to the low prices at which manufactured articles must be sold, as a consequence of the cheap-labor competition of England and India.

Under the McKinley bill, Superintendent Rutherford said the pay roll of the mills was $10,000 a month. Now, he says it is only $7000 per month.

"We are sorry," says Mr. Rutherford, "to be compelled to make this reduction in wages, but, for the salvation of our business, must do so. A number of those who will be reduced have been seen and, while they cannot help but deplore the disagreeable necessity that compels them to work for less pay, they readily see that we alone cannot keep our mills running in any other way, and they are not disposed to complain."

PRIZES ON PATENTS.

How to Get $100 and Perhaps Make a Fortune.

We secure patents and to induce people to keep track of their bright ideas we offer a prize of one hundred dollars to be paid on the first of every month to the person who submits to us the most meritorious invention during the preceding month. We will also advertise the invention free of charge in the National Recorder, a weekly newspaper, published in Washington, D. C., which has an extensive circulation throughout the United States and is devoted to the interests of inventors.

NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS

The idea of being able to invent something strikes most people as being very difficult; this delusion the company wishes to dispel. It is the simple things and small inventions that make the greatest amount of money, and the complex ones are seldom profitable. Almost everybody, at some time or another, conceives an idea, which, if patented, would probably be worth to him a fortune. Unfortunately such ideas are usually dismissed without thought. The simple inventions like the car window which could be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, the sauce pan, the collar button, the nut lock, the bottle stopper, the snow shovel, are things that almost everyone sees some way of improving upon, and it is these kind of inventions that bring the greatest returns to the author.

The prize we offer will be paid at the end of each month, whether the application has been acted upon by the Patent Office or not. Every competitor must apply for a patent on his invention through us, and whether he secures the prize or not the inventor will have a valuable patent.

Adjudication of Insolvency.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR the County of Alameda, State of California.

In the matter of Robert Stevenson, an insolvent debtor.

Order of adjudication of insolvency.

Robert Stevenson having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, from which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Robert Stevenson is hereby declared to be insolvent. It is hereby ordered that Calvin B. White, Sheriff of Alameda County, be, and he is hereby appointed receiver of the property of said insolvent, and that upon his giving a bond to the People of the State of California, in the sum of $1500, conditioned as required by law, and qualifying, he take charge and possession of all of the estate, real and personal, of said Robert Stevenson, insolvent debtor, whatsoever and wheresoever situate, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account and papers, and to keep and care for and dispose of the same until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons having the same or any part thereof in his or their possession, are hereby directed to pay the same to said receiver, and that said receiver keep the said property, or the proceeds thereof, till the further order of this court. And all persons are hereby forbidden to pay any debts to said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to such insolvent, to him, or to any person, firm, corporation or association, for his use, and the said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property until the further order of this court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered, that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, Department No. 2, in open court, at the courtroom of said court, in the County of Alameda, on the 25th day of March, 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered, that this order be published in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the County of Alameda, as often as the said paper is published before the day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered, that, in the meantime, all proceedings against said insolvent be stayed.

Dated February 21st, 1895.

[illegible]

The following resolution was adopted, all voting aye except Towle.

"Whereas, the sum of $[illegible] 71.75 has been deposited with the City Treasurer by W. [illegible] for the payment of the agreed half of the estimated cost and expenses of the certain street work to be performed upon the boulevard north of Twelfth street and [illegible] in resolutions Nos. 20,519, [illegible] and [illegible], and thereupon this Council [illegible] by said resolutions Nos. 20,718 and [illegible], order the other half of such cost [illegible] to be paid by the city of Oakland, but in said resolutions did not designate the fund from which in the City Treasury said payment may be made, and

"Whereas, Section 26 of the General Street act in providing for such partial payments by resolution of the Council, requires that the Council must designate the fund out of which the partial payment is made, therefore

"Resolved, That the Street fund is hereby designated as the fund in the City Treasury from which the payment shall be made of the other half of said cost and expenses in behalf of this city, and the like sum of $[illegible] 71.75 is hereby appropriated to be paid out of the street fund to the contractor for said work upon the proper performance and acceptance of the same."

AT THE PLAY.

Fashion Greets the Warde-James Company.

The Macdonough Crowded to the Doors.

"Henry IV" Was Presented in an Artistic Manner.

An artistic and a society success was the initial performance last evening of the Warde-James Company at the Macdonough Theater. The pretty playhouse was crowded to the foyer while many stood who were luckless enough to come late, after all the seats were gone.

Henry IV is not a masterpiece of the Bard of Avon, although it has through it a strong vein of comedy that carries more closely to the borders of the humorous than other dramas of the immortal poet. The play is however worthy to be presented by the strong company that these eminent tragedians have gathered about them. No character in Shakespeare has more originality about it than that of "Sir John Falstaff," nor does he have so much of the humor that is [illegible] by the fat knight, whose egotistical lying is an art in itself.

The audience was thoroughly in touch with the movement of the play. Warde and James, the former as the blithe and rollicking "Prince" and the latter as the redoubtable "Falstaff" were enthusiastically received. When the curtain dropped upon the second act they were forced to respond to several recalls, and the audience was not satisfied until Warde, for himself and his companion, Mr. James, was obliged to respond in a well-turned speech.

For [illegible], [illegible] need be said. The "Falstaff" of James was a marvelous piece of acting, such as one [illegible] on the stage of the Macdonough or any other theater. His admirers found a new source of enjoyment in the [illegible] of this character. Even the critics, theater-goers were forced to believe they had never fathomed the depth of Louis James' versatility. Certainly his work as "Falstaff" was something of a revelation. As the gay "Prince Henry," Warde was at home. His magnificent presence, his clear and clean delivery of the lines and his intelligent understanding of them, rendered the impersonation a charming study. Contrasts were so nicely drawn in the rendition of the two characters that there resulted an artistic performance that held the audience to the end.

Oakland seldom has an opportunity to witness with a week the excellent plays which the Warde-James Company will offer. The first night is a sign of the success of the engagement. A deserved success it will be for a more intelligent company of players never visited Oakland. Whether it be the drama of Warde's grand and stately studies of the great dramas which are in Hamlet in the repertoire, or the really superb work of Mr. James there is much to admire. This is the first season in which the eminent actors will be seen together. They will enjoy a visit that is a wonderful food to those who enjoy acting such as is one of the best actors [illegible].

This evening [illegible] [illegible] will be presented. On Wednesday evening [illegible] [illegible] performance [illegible] High School and University students will attend.

The first nighters took the theater by storm, [illegible] there was a fashionable audience present. Among those noticed at the play were Dr. and Mrs. Cowles, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wilder, J. A. Howard, Miss Howard, Captain and Mrs. Watson, William Gross and Mrs. Gross, Miss Gross, Dr. White, Mrs. Chamberlain, Cook and party, Miss A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Sp[illegible], John [illegible], Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, Miss O'Brien, W. Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Gorrill, Miss Gorrill, Mrs. [illegible] and party, Miss [illegible] Craig, Mrs. D. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Britton, Dr. Baldwin, Dr. Dunn and Mrs. Dunn, W. B. Dargie, Samuel McKee, Dr. and Mrs. Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moffitt, Miss Emma Snyder, Andy Stone, A. [illegible] McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible], Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hall, Miss Simmons, Mrs. Mary Whitney, Walter Hearn, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Captain Rowley, Mrs. Pope, Miss Pope, Dr. and Mrs. Merriman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker, Miss Baker, John Snyder, Mrs. S. Chapp[illegible], Alvin Blake, Miss Woods, Mrs. A. A. Slater, Mrs. Bates, Charles Bates, Miss Simmonds, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Howard, Miss Kenner, Miss Irene Baker, Miss Louise Simmonds, Miss May Berrin, [illegible] Mrs. Baker, Miss Ida Bell [illegible], Miss Bessie Palmer, [illegible], Miss Myra O'Brien, Mrs. Dayton, Miss Bates, Guy Lilienthal, Dr. J. N. Young, Dr. Charles Fisher, Charles Kreiss, George P. McNear, Thomas Pugh, Joseph Theoy, Bernard Stone, Fred Conklin, James Hunt, Harold Harvey, [illegible] Judge Allen, A. Macdonald, [illegible], Herbert Beck, Ray Baker, Harry Baker, Walter Dayton, Joseph Rosenstirn, George De Golia, Alexander Graham, [illegible] Remillard.

The People's.

Pal Dominos, a clever comedy, was presented last evening to a first night house. The play was well received. The funny situation working up to an irresistibly funny climax, caught the house. There is a good company presenting a clean play, and this forms a combination that will draw well. The comedy has been well staged with new effects, fine scenery and bright music. It will go without a doubt. Richard Scott, Maurice Stewart, Josie Seabrook and a fine support carry the piece.

The Musical Festival.

The monster music festival and French fete in aid of the French Hospital was commenced at the Mechanics' Pavilion last evening. Thousands were present, and the festival was opened with a startling success to be scored for its first night. Fun and merriment will reign during the first five nights of the festival, which will include the benefit fete. The grand American band concert, given by 100 musicians, is a musical success. The superb electrical effects, which heighten the intensity of the music, were novelties never enjoyed here before. There will be popular programmes each evening together with special attractions during the fete.

Long service has proved the superiority of Dr. Price's Baking Powder. It is without a successful rival.

FOR ANNEXATION.

The Municipal League Indorses the Movement.

The Municipal League held a meeting last evening to discuss the proposed annexation of Temescal to Oakland. The matter was very thoroughly canvassed and debate resulted in the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Citizens' Municipal League is heartily in favor of the annexation of Temescal to the city of Oakland and recommend that all progressive citizens interest themselves in the measure and vote and work for the same.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

WATER RATES.

A Proposed Cut of Twenty Per Cent.

Appraising the Contra Costa Company's Plant.

A Big Batch of Miscellaneous Street Work Disposed Of.

An adjourned meeting of the Council was held last night, all the members, except Dow, being present. Towle was chosen to preside.

APPLICATION FOR CHARITY.

Mrs. Gregg, who represented the Ladies' Co-operative Aid Society, again appealed to the Council for a share of the aid granted to the Associated Charities, to carry on the society's work.

Manuel stated that the Finance Committee had given the request courteous consideration on a previous occasion and that the City Attorney had rendered an opinion on the subject, which, he understood, prohibited the Council from donating any money for charity beyond what the charter declared might be granted to the Associated Charities. He had since ascertained, however, that the charter provision merely restricted the amount that should be granted to the Associated Charities, being not to exceed $150. He thought, therefore, a part of the $150 per month now allowed to the Associated Charities might be diverted to the Ladies' Co-operative Aid Society, who were similarly engaged in charity work.

The matter was thereupon referred back to the Finance Committee and the City Attorney.

WATER RATES.

Manuel of the special Committee on Water Rates then introduced the ordinance fixing the water rates for the next fiscal year. In doing so, he said, he would follow the custom laid down last year, of presenting the argument in favor of the course the committee had pursued in determining the valuation of the works as a basis on which to establish the rates for the coming fiscal year. In fixing the valuation of the Contra Costa Company's works, to establish a basis for the fixing of rates, the committee had considered three propositions: What the plant could be reproduced for at present prices; what it probably cost the company, and what part of the property owned by the company could be fairly considered as part of the company's present system.

The argument offered extends into the details regarding the properties of the Contra Costa Water Company, placing a value upon each piece at present prices, and supposing a given figure as the price paid for it. It also discarded all reservoir sites not in actual use and all lands not actually necessary to the system of the company as it now existed from the estimated value of the property. It assumed that the present cost of the works as they now stand would be $1,551,902 50, and that they probably cost $1,931,599 52. To be on the safe side, however, the committee had added 10 per cent to this sum, and fixed the accepted valuation of the property at $2,121,659 52. To this they added $300,000 for maintenance, etc., bringing the total valuation on which to fix water rates at $2,421,-659 52. They had discarded from the appraisement property valued at $422,741, because, in their judgment, it did not constitute any part of the present system of the Contra Costa Water Company. On the accepted valuation the company was entitled to 5 per cent interest. The water rates ordinance which the committee submitted would give them the 5 per cent on the valuation fixed, and in view of the fact that the company was drawing a large revenue from the sale of water outside the city also, it would no doubt yield them more than 5 per cent. The ordinance submitted made a reduction on the present rates charged of 20 per cent.

The ordinance was then read a first time.

Mott moved the rules be suspended and the ordinance be read a second time and passed to print.

The motion prevailed.

The ordinance was then read a second time and passed to print.

The Council agreed to meet as a Committee of the Whole Wednesday night to consider the ordinance and hear objections, if any, to its final passage.

INDUSTRIAL ARMY WANTS SOAP.

The Industrial Army's application for aid to purchase soap, tubs and other utensils and materials for their proposed laundry was filed, it being stated that the Council had no authority to contribute money toward such an object and besides a free license had already been granted them by the city.

PROVIDING FOR THE BOULEVARD.

The following resolution was adopted, all voting aye except Towle:

"WHEREAS, the sum of $5671 75 has been deposited with the City Treasurer by W. E. Dargie for the payment of the agreed half of the estimated cost and expenses of the certain street work to be performed upon the boulevard north of Twelfth street and as described in resolutions Nos. 20,549, 20,718 and 20,803, and thereupon this Council did in and by said resolutions Nos. 20,718 and 20,803, order the other half of such cost and expense to be paid by the city of Oakland, but in said resolutions did not designate the fund from which in the City Treasury said payment may be made, and

"WHEREAS, Section 26 of the General Street act in providing for such partial payments by resolution of the Council, requires that the Council must designate the fund out of which the partial payment is made, therefore

"Resolved, That the Street fund is hereby designated as the fund in the City Treasury from which the payment shall be made of the other half of said cost and expenses in behalf of this city, and the like sum of $5671 75 is hereby appropriated to be paid out of the Street fund to the contractor for said work, upon the proper performance and acceptance of the same."

STANDARD OIL SUIT.

A communication was read from the City Attorney stating that the suit of the Standard Oil Company vs. the city of Oakland, now pending in the United States Circuit Court, will probably be tried in May or June.

SUIT FOR LAND.

The communication of B. Haynes was referred to the City Attorney with instructions to bring suit to determine the ownership of land involved.

Property owners were granted permission to construct a sewer in East Twenty-second street, between Tenth and Eleventh avenues.

GRIEVANCE OF PROPERTY OWNERS.

H. H. Colby and others directed the attention of the Council to "the disgraceful condition of East Twelfth street, just east of Thirteenth avenue, so caused by the Oakland Water Company failing to replace the pavement (after they had laid their main) in as good condition as it was before." The same petitioners also directed attention to the condition of the Fruit Vale Railroad Company's track in the same block. Referred to the Board of Public Works.

WANTS A SEWER.

A. O. Giler's petition for a sewer on East Twentieth street, from Eighteenth avenue to Seventeenth avenue, was referred to the Street Committee; also, petition of A. Kenlehut to grade and cut East Twentieth street, from Nineteenth avenue to Twenty-first avenue.

WEBSTER STREET PROTEST—THE RAILROAD AGREEMENT.

The protest of J. Callaghan and others against the remacadamizing of Webster street, from Seventh to First street, was filed. Accompanying the protest was a declaration that the South Pacific Coast Railroad had agreed to keep the street in good order in consideration of receiving the right of way, and that it was so kept until the sale of the property to the Southern Pacific Company, and that the petitioners consider that the railroad company should be required to do the work. Filed.

TWELFTH STREET PROTEST.

The protest of B. Nedderman and others against the grading, curbing, macadamizing, etc., of East Twelfth street, from First avenue to Twelfth avenue, was filed.

AT THE PLAY.

Fashion Greets the Warde-James Company.

The Macdonough Crowded to the Doors.

"Henry IV" Was Presented in an Artistic Manner.

An artistic and a society success was the initial performance last evening of the Warde-James Company at the Macdonough Theater. The pretty playhouse was crowded to the foyer, while many stood who were luckless enough to come late, after all the seats were gone.

Henry IV is not a masterpiece of the Bard of Avon, although it has through it a strong vein of comedy that carries more closely to the borders of the humorous than other dramas of the immortal poet. The play is, however, worthy to be presented by the strong company that these eminent tragedians have gathered about them. No character in Shakespeare has more originality about it than that of "Sir John Falstaff;" doubtless few have so much of the humor that is furnished by the fat knight, whose egotistical lying is an art in itself.

The audience was thoroughly in touch with the movement of the play. Warde and James, the former as the blithe and rollicking "Prince" and the latter as the redoubtable "Falstaff," were enthusiastically received. When the curtain dropped upon the second act they were forced to respond to several recalls, and the audience was not satisfied until Warde, for himself and his companion, Mr. James, was obliged to respond in a well-timed speech.

For the play itself, little need be said. The "Falstaff" of James was a marvelous piece of acting, seldom equaled on the stage of the Macdonough or any other theater. His admirers found a new source of enjoyment in the impersonation of that character. Even the oldest theater-goers were forced to believe they had never fathomed the depth of Louis James' versatility. Certain it was his work as "Falstaff" was something of a revelation. As the gay "Prince Henry," Warde was at home. His magnificent presence, his clear and clean delivery of the lines and his evident understanding of them, rendered the impersonation a charming study. Contrasts were so sharply drawn in the rendition of the two characters that there resulted an artistic performance that held the audience to the end.

Oakland seldom has an opportunity to witness within a week the excellent playing which the Warde-James Company will offer. The first night is a sign of the success of the engagement. A deserved success it will be, for a more ambitious company of players never visited Oakland. Whether it be the charm of Warde's clean and intellectual studies of the great dramas which are included in the repertoire, or the really superb work of Mr. James, there is much to admire. This is the last season in which these eminent actors will be seen together. They will repay a visit this week a hundred fold to those who enjoy acting such as only true actors can present.

This evening that masterpiece of dramas, Francesca da Rimini will be presented. On Wednesday evening, Julius Cæsar. This performance, many High school and University students will attend.

The first nighters took the theater by storm, last evening. There was a fashionable audience present. Among those noticed at the play were: Dr. and Mrs. Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wilder, J. W. Howard, Miss Howard, Captain and Mrs. Watson, William Gross and Mrs. Gross, Miss Gross, Dr. White, Mrs. Charles Cook and party, Miss A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, John Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, Miss O'Brien, W. Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Gorrill, Miss Gorrill, Mrs. Ralston and party, Miss S. Cook, Miss D. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Britton, Dr. Baldwin, Dr. Dunn and Mrs. Dunn, W. E. Dargie, Sam Bell McKee, Dr. and Mrs. Blood, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moffitt, Miss Emma Snyder, Andy Stone, A. S. McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. Buteau, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hall, Miss Simmons, Mrs. Mary Whitney, Walter Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Captain Reilly, Mrs. Pope, Miss Pope, Dr. and Mrs. Merriman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker, Miss Baker, John Snyder, Mrs. S. Chappelli, Alvin Baker, Miss Wosly, Mrs. A. A. Sutter, Mrs. Bates, Charles Bates, Mrs. Simmonds, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Howard, Miss Kenner, Miss Irene Baker, Miss Louise Simmonds, Miss May Barrington, Mrs. Baker, Miss Ida Belle Palmer, Miss Bessie Palmer, Miss Grace Baldwin, Miss Myra O'Brien, Mrs. Dayton, Miss Beck, Guy Lilienerantz, Dr. J. N. Young, Dr. Charles Fisher, Charles Kramm, George P. McNear, Thomas Pheby, Joseph Phony, Bernard Stone, Fred Conklin, James Huff, Harold Harvey, R. W. Snow, Judge Allen, A. Macdonald, J. Frank Paest, Herbert Beck, Ray Baker, Harry Baker, Walter Dayton, Joseph Rosborough, George De Golia, Alexander Graham, Phil Remillard.

The People's.

Pink Dominoes, a clever comedy, was presented last evening to a first night house. The play was well received. Its funny situations, working up to an irresistibly funny climax, caught the house. There is a good company presenting a clean play, and this forms a combination that will draw well. The comedy has been well staged with new effects, fine scenery and bright music. It will go without a doubt. Richard Scott, Maurice Stewart, Josie Sealbrook and a fine support carry the piece.

The Musical Festival.

The monster music festival and French fete in aid of the French Hospital was commenced at the Mechanics' Pavilion last evening. Thousands were present, and the festival was opened with a startling success to be scored for its first night. Fun and merriment will reign during the first five nights of the festival, which will include the benefit fete. The grand American Band concert, given by 100 musicians, is a musical success. The superb electrical effects, which heighten the intensity of the music, were novelties never enjoyed here before. There will be popular programmes each evening, together with special attractions during the fete.

Long service has proved the superiority of Dr. Price's Baking Powder. It is without a successful peer.

FOR ANNEXATION.

The Municipal League Indorses the Movement.

The Municipal League held a meeting last evening to discuss the proposed annexation of Temescal to Oakland. The matter was very thoroughly canvassed and debate resulted in the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Citizens' Municipal League is heartily in favor of the annexation of Temescal to the city of Oakland and recommend that all progressive citizens interest themselves in the measure and vote and work for the same.

"L. D. Inskeep, president.

"JOHN A. BECKWITH, secretary."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address
